A SHORT TREATISE

Containing all the Principal Grounds of Christian RELIGION.

By way of Questions and Answers, very profitable for all sorts of men, but especially for Householders.

Whereunto are added several Questions by the Reverend Authors own Pen, to clear the Exposition: As you may perceive by the Epistle to the Reader.

The fourteenth Impression; more corrected than the former.

Printed by John Wright at the Kings Head in the Old Bayley, 1654.
To the Reader.

Christian Reader,

He many Impressions of this Catechism, (both with and without the Exposition) do manifest what good acceptation it hath found amongst the people of God. And I hope that by means of this change, with which it is now put into thy hand, it will prove much more profitable unto all such who shall diligently improve it.

The Questions which the Reverend Author (Mr. John Ball) did by his own pen, put into the Margin of the Book, to clear the Exposition, for the benefit of some private friends, are now upon the request of many, both Ministers and others (who have experienced the profit hereof) published for more common use. The Catechism as now Printed, remains the self-same for substance, without addition or diminution, and there is no...

more change in the phrase of words, then necessity compelled, that there might be an harmonious suitableness betwixt the Questions and Answers. If any through the quickness of their own parts, shall complain of some needless repetitions which might have been forborn, and of less exactness then might here have been expressed, they are intreated to consider, 1. That as the first composing of the Catechism, so this new modelling of it, intendeth especially the instruction of Children and ignorant Christians, whose weakness requires such condescenstions. 2. That cautiousness to keep off, from all seeming material alterations, may make a satisfying Apologie.

Some care hath been taken, to correct former over-sights of the Printer, in the Scripture quotations, though probably there may yet some Errata be espied, amongst so great a multitude of proofs. In this Impression Where the Answers in the Short Catechism are large, the particulars are noted and numbred by several figures; and in the Exposition some passages are more clearly expressed, and some transposed, according to the Authors own minde and practice,
To the Reader.

Well known to some who were fully acquainted with his Catechistical Exercises, both in his own family and the publick Congregation. Master Thomas Langley (a faithful servant of Christ, and Minister of the Gospel at Middlewich in Cheshire) may be justly judged by those who know him (as he is indeed by my self) the meetest man to have appeared by an Epistle in this publication, because he was the Author's most ancient, much endeared friend, and could have spoken experimentally, very much in reference to this work, (being one of them as I conceive) who concurred (at least) with the worthy Author, in the first publishing of this Catechism; yet his great modesty hath put it upon my hand, though he hath been pleased (with his Son) to afford good assistance in this service. The following Epistle doth suggest both the summary Matter and Method of the Whole Book, with directions to make it the more profitable. Here I might say much to persuade all persons carefully to husband such like helps for the instruction of themselves and their relations in the Principles of Religion. Wisdom (as Solomon) kinds both peculiarly appertain unto them who are charged with the education of young ones, that they may soon be seasoned with Sacred understanding, which may render them savory both in heart and life so long as they shall live, Prov. 22.6. Ministers especially should prove themselves Pastors according to Gods heart, by feeding their flocks with knowledge and understanding, Jer. 3. 15. first acquainting them with the Principles of the Doctrine of Christ, Heb. 6.1. and afterwards make progress answerable to their capacity and proficiency, Heb. 5.13, 14. 1 Cor. 3.2. It is said of Christ the Doctor of his Church, Mat. 23. 8. that he was set up by God the Father to be a light, that he might be for salvation unto the ends of the earth, Esay 49.6. Therefore it will be the wisdome of Preachers to teach their people knowledge, Eccles. 12.9. And Governors of families should inform their children, Deut. 6.7. and servants also (as Christ did, Mat. 13.36, 37, 51.) in the things of God. Wise King Solomon hath left this upon record, to the perpetual commendation of his parents, that he received instruction from them both.

both, Prov. 4. 3, 4. & 31. 1. And upon this account the Lord was so well pleased with father Abraham, that he made him one of his privy Counsel, Gen. 18. 20. Hereunto might be added the praiseworthy practices of pious Princes, in giving order that all within their Dominions should be acquainted with the laws of the God of heaven, 2 Chr. 17. 8, 9, 10. & 30. 22. I might enlarge my self unto tediousness upon this persuasion (wherein I intended more brevity when I began it) but I will onely further press the improvement of this and the like Catechistical helps, by appealing for the profitableness thereof unto the experience of them, who have herein been most diligently imployed. Ministers making trial of their peoples knowledge, do discern a broad difference betwixt them who have learned Catechisms, and others who have not been instructed therein. Doubtless, governours of families, by diligence and constancy in teaching their children and servants, would very much edifie themselves. By means of catechising, mens knowledge will be more clear, distinct, sweet, useful, and they shall be secured from the taint of fundamental errors.
To the Reader.

The reading of the holy Scriptures and other good Books, as also the hearing of Sermons, will be much more delightful and profitable, when people shall be able to refer truths unto their proper heads in Divinity. By this means likewise the falseness and unsoandness of many, together with their ignorance in the Principles of Religion, will be made manifest, whose proud blindness or inconsiderateness emboldens them to adventure upon preaching-work, which they have neither competent strength to wield, nor any warrant from God to undertake.

My heart unfainedly desireth that this Catechism (as it is now tended) may prove thus serviceable to the souls of many, through God's rich blessing, in the Lord our Saviour.

To the
CHRISTIAN READER.

We offer here unto thy view (good Christian Reader) the Principles of Religion, with a short Exposition upon the same, for the explanation of what may seem difficult, the confirmation of the truth professed, against Poverty, and the enforcing of sundry duties of weighty and great importance. The method we have followed is plain and natural; the matter wholesome, but not adorned with flowers of eloquence. We begin with the main end that all men ought to aim at: because there can be no motion but for some end, as there can be no effect but from some efficient. Thence we proceed to the means whereby the end may be attained: for it is in vain to propound an end unto ourselves, if either the way be impossible or imperfect; if either it cannot be be known, or do not lead to the fruition thereof. In the means we consider whence direction is to be taken, and what is to be learned: and there we threw what and who God is, how we must conceive of him, why he ought to be worshipped, what covenant he made with Adam in the time of innocency, and how Adam by transgression fell, and plunged himself and his posterity into woe and misery unspeakable, intolerable and eternal. In the next place we lay down the means that God hath ordained for mans recovery; and there is handled what Christ is, what he hath done for us, how we are made partakers of his benefits, how faith is wrought and increased in us, and what obedience we owe to God in Christ, who is the object of Christian Religion. And because the godly in this course of Christianity are compassed about with infirmities, subject to many falls and assaults, with many tentations, which might discourage and turn them out of the way, therefore we have added what course a Christian should take to grow in grace, how he may be preserved from falling, how he should

Should recover after his fall, and of what privileges the godly are or may be partakers in this life. And in the last place, the blessedness of the Saints after this life is ended, is touched in few words; whereby the sufficiency of the means is manifested. For as it is a way prescribed of God, so it leadeth us unto God, the first, chief, and all-sufficient good. Our desire herein is to teach the simple Christian, how he may grow from grace to grace, and from faith to faith: and to further such godly householders as desire to instruct and train up their children and servants in the information and fear of the Lord, but want leisure or ability to furnish themselves out of larger and more learned Treatises. For their sakes we have ventured to compile this poor Treatise and make it common, that they might have some help at hand, whereby they might be confirmed in the truth, against the vain cavils of the Papists, and the better enabled to inform them that be committed to their charge. If any such shall vouchsafe to make use of this book, we would desire him to mark and observe these few things; First, that...

the letters a, and b, and c, &c. set in the Answer, do direct what part of the Answer the Testimonies of Scripture allaged do serve to confirm. And these directions, || †* do intimate what words, or which part of the Answer are explained in the Exposition. Secondly, in teaching the Questions and Answers, take the pains to search into the proofs which are allaged for confirmation of the matter; and if the same things, word for word, be not found in the Verses of Scripture cited, then be pleased further to enquire what reasons or arguments may be drawn from the place, to prove what is intended. This we commend, because it is a course behooveful for the obtaining of well grounded knowledge, the gaining of stedfast and assured faith and comfort, and growing to be familiarly acquainted with the Word. Thirdly, in reading the Exposition of every Answer, take notice what is delivered by way of explication or confirmation, and what reasons, and how many, are brought to prove any point. Thereby a man shall be enabled to refer that which he heareth in the publick assembly, or readeth in godly and learned Books, to some head, apply it to right purpose, treasure it up safe in memory for use in the time of need, and have in readiness to answer the gain-sayers.

Thus heartily desiring and hoping (good Reader) that thou wilt make use of these directions given, profitably to guide thee through this small work; we commit thee to God and the word of his grace, who is able to direct and safely lead thee unto eternal happiness; craving that if thou receive benefit from God upon the perusal of this simple Treatise, thou be careful to pour out thy soul unto God for us, that he would enrich us with his grace more and more, for the glory of God, the good of his Church, and the comfort of our own souls.

Whereas many of Mr. Ball's Manuscripts were lent unto friends, and not restored, it is desired that those who have any of them in their hands, would be pleased to send them unto Mr. Sawbridge Stationer at the signe of the Bible on Ludgate-hill in London, to be delivered by him unto Mr. Aithe (to whom Mr. Ball committed the care of all his written Books) that such of them may be published, as shall by him be judged fit for publick use.

Q. When is God said to glorifie himself?

A. God is said to glorifie himself, when he maketh his excellency to appear, Numb. 14. 21. Psalm 72. 19. Ezek. 43. 2.

Q. When do angels and men glorifie him?

Q. What is it then to glorifie God?

A. To glorifie God is inwardly in heart, Rom. 4. 20. 1 Cor. 6. 20. and outwardly in word and action, Matth. 5. 16. 1 Pet. 2. 12. to acknowledge God to be such a one as he hath revealed himself, Rev. 4. 9. 11. Psalm 29. 1, 2. and 50. 23.

Q. What is it to take care of our salvation?

A. To take care of our salvation, is so to live here, that we may live with the Lord hereafter, Phil. 2. 12. 2 Pet. 3. 11, 14.

Q. Why should man take care of his salvation?

A. 1. Because the salvation of the soul is most precious, Psal. 49. 8. (2) It cannot be obtained without care, Acts 2. 37. 1 Cor. 9. 24. Matth. 7. 13. Luke 13. 24. (3) He is ever mindless of God's glory, that is careless of his eternal happiness, Ephes. 2. 12. John 5. 44.
and 7. 18. (4.) Eternal life is a durable treasure, Luke 12. 33. and 16. 9, 10. 1 Tim. 6. 17, 18. (5.) All worldly things are vain, uncertain and transitory, Matth. 6. 19. Psalm 73. 18, 19. (6.) The soul came from God, and is after a restless manner carried to seek and desire communion with God. (7.) A desire to be happy is naturally planted in the heart of all men by God himself. (8.) God is infinite in goodness, the highest of all things that are to be desired; Therefore we should earnestly set our affections upon things that are above, Col. 3. 1. 2 Phil. 3. 3, 12, 13, 14. and infinitely desire the enjoying of God's presence in heaven.

Q. Whence must we take direction to attain hereunto?

Expos. || Q. Why must we take direction out of the word of God to obtain salvation?

A. (1.) Because God only can give the Crown of glory, 2 Tim. 4. 8. James 1. 12. (2.) He also is the author, object and end of true Religion, Gen. 18. 19.
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. How may it be proved that God is the Author of Religion?

A. 1. Because the nature of God is incomprehensible, his will and works are unsearchable, Heb. 11:6. Deut. 4:4, 6. and 29:29. Heb. 11:3. (2.) No man hath known the Father but the Son, and he to whom the Son hath revealed him, John 1:18. Matth. 11:27. And (3.) The Gospel is an hidden mystery, 1 Cor. 2:7, 10. Rom. 16:25, 26. so that we can know nothing of God, until God himself manifesteth it unto us, Psal. 103:7. and 147:19, 20.

Q. What understand you by the word of God?

A. By the word of God we understand the will of God revealed unto man, being a reasonable Creature, teaching him what to do, believe, and leave undone, Deut. 29:29.

Q. What call you the Word of God?
A short Catechism.

A. The holy Scripture immediately inspired, which is contained in the Books of the Old and New Testament, 2 Tim. 3. 16.

Expof. Q. Hath not this word been diversly made known heretofore?

Q. How is this word revealed in writing called?

A. This word so revealed is by excellency called, 1. The Scripture, Gal. 3. 22. John 10. 35. And 2. The holy Scripture, Rom. 1. 2.

Q. Why is it called the holy Scripture?

Q. Why was this truth delivered to the Church in writing?

A. The truth of God was delivered to the Church in writing, Deut. 31. 9. Hos. 8. 12. Rev. 2. 1. (1.) That it might be preserved pure from corruption, 2 Pet. 1. 12, 13, 15. (2.) That it might be better conveyed to posterity, Jer. 36. 27, 28. Deut. 31. 19, 24, 25, 26. (3.) That it might be an infallible standard of true doctrine: and (4.) That it might be the determiner of all controversies, Isaiah 8. 20. Mal. 4. 4. Deut. 17. 11. (5.) That our Faith might be confirmed, beholding the accomplishment of things prophesied, 1 Kings 13. 2. with 2 Kings 23. 16. Act. 17 10, 11. (6) For the more full instruction of the church, the time of the Messiah either drawing on, Mal. 4. 4. or being come, Luk. 1. 2, 3.

Q. What is it to be immediately inspired?

A. To be immediately inspired, is to be as it were breathed, and to come from the Father by the Holy Ghost, without all means.

Q. Were the Scriptures thus inspired?

A. Thus the holy Scriptures in the Originals were inspired both for matter and words, Luk. 1.70. 2 Pet. 1.21.

Q. What are the Books of the Old Testament?

A. Moses and the Prophets, Luk. 24.27.

Expos. † Q. What mean you by the books of the Old Testament?

A. All the Books of holy Scripture, given by God to the church of the Jews.

Q. How are they called?

Q. Why were they called the prophets?

A. Because they were written by holy men, stirred up, sanctified, and inspired of God for that purpose, 1 Pet. 1.11. Heb. 1.1.

Q. Under what heads be they ordinarily comprised?

Q. Why is Moses distinctly named?

A. Moses
With an exposition upon the same.

A. Moses is distinctly named from the rest, because he was the first and chief of the Prophets.

Q. Whereas we read them distinguished into Moses, the Prophets, & the Psalms, why are the Psalms distinctly named?

A. The Psalms are mentioned particularly, Luke 24.44, because they are the choice & flower of all other Scripture.

Q. Which are the Books of the New Testament?

A. Matthew, Mark, Luke, and the rest, as they follow in our Bibles.

Q. How may it be proved that those books are the Word of God immediately inspired by the holy Ghost to the Prophets and Apostles?

A. ||First, by the testimony of the church; ||Secondly, constancy of the saints; ||Thirdly, miracles wrought to confirm the truth; and Fourthly, by the antiquity thereof 2 Pet. 1. 19. g Rev. 6. 9. h 1 King. 17. 24. Joh. 3. 2. i Jer. 6. 16. Heb. 13. 8.

Expos. || Q. Is it expedient to know that these Books are the Word of God?

A. It is very expedient and necessary that all Christians of age and discretion, should know that the Scriptures ptures are the very word of God.

Q. What is it to know them to be the word of God?

A. It is to know them to be the immediate and infallible truth of God that is to be received, obeyed and believed.

Q. Why is that expedient to be known?

A. 1. Because thereby we are the better fitted to hear, read and receive the word with attention, joy, reverence, submission, Acts 10. 33. and assurance of Faith: which being a divine grace, must have a divine foundation, 2 Tim. 3. 15, 16, 1 John 5. 13. and being certain, must have a sure ground, even the word of God, John 5. 46. Eph. 2. 20. Rom. 4. 18.

2. Also it ministers no small comfort in affliction and temptation, that we know whom we have trusted, 2 Tim. 1. 12. Acts 5. 29.

Q. How must this be known?

A. This must be known, not by opinion, or probable conjecture, which may deceive, but by certain and distinct knowledge.

Q. What is certain and distinct knowledge?

A. That...
With an exposition upon the same.

A. That whereby we conceive of things certain certainly as they are, and are assured that we conceive of them no otherwise then as they are.

Q. Why is such knowledge requisite?

A. That we may be able to stop the mouths of Atheists and Papists, who carp against the truth, 2 Cor. 13.3.

Q. How come we to the knowledge hereof?

A. We come not to the understanding hereof by sense or discourse of reason: But this matter is to be discerned and believed by Faith.

Q. What Rules are to be observed for the better clearing of this matter?

A. For the fuller clearing of this point, sundry rules are to be observed, both concerning Faith, and concerning the Scripture itself.

Q. What is the first Rule?

A. 1. Distinction must be made between certainty of Faith, and certainty of sense or light.

Q. How are they distinguished?

A. 1. Things believed in themselves are more certain then things seen, but they are not always so apprehended by us.
2. Certainty of sight excludes doubtings, so doth not certainty of Faith, it is sufficient that it prevail against them, Gen. 15. 6, 8. 1 Cor. 13. 9, 12. Judges 6. 36, 37, 38.

Q. What is the second Rule?

Rule 2.
A. 2. Implicit Faith is to be distinguished from explicite Faith.

Q. What is Faith implicit?
A. Implicit Faith is that by which we confusedly believe that such Books are the word of God, not understanding the sense of them.

Q. What is Faith explicite?
A. Explicite Faith is ever joined with a distinct and certain understanding of the thing believed, John 3. 2, 10.

Q. What is the third Rule?
A. 3. Historical Faith must be distinguished from justifying and saving Faith.

Q. What is Faith Historical?
A. Historical Faith stands in the certainty of the minde, and believes God speaking in his Word.

Q. What is Faith justifying?
A. Justifying and saving Faith contains the perswasion and confidence of the heart, whereby we not onely be-believe the Word of God to be the chief truth, but also to imbrace it as containing the chief good of man, Jam. 2. 19. John 5. 35. Heb. 6. 11. and 10. 22. Eph. 3. 12.

Q. Why are they to be distinguished?
A. Because all things in Scripture are not alike to be believed, neither do the same Arguments serve to beget each faith.

Q. What is the fourth Rule?
A. 4. Concerning the Scripture, we must put difference between the Doctrine therein contained, and the writing.

Q. Why is this to be observed?
A. Because the writing is for the signifying of the sense; and the knowledge and faith of both is not alike necessary. The Doctrine was ever necessary to be believed, the manner of revealing was not always, John 8. 24.

Q. What is the fifth Rule?
A. 5. Of Doctrines some are simply necessary to salvation, containing the main Grounds and chief Heads of Christian Religion; others are Expositions or Amplifications of the same, very profitable, but not of such necessity, 6 Rule.

Q. What is the sixth rule?
A. 6. A distinction is to be put between the Scripture generally considered, in respect of the manner of revealing, and between the number and order of the Books.

Q. Why is this to be noted?
A. It being one thing to believe that the will of God is now fully and wholly committed to writing; another that this is the distinct order, and precise number of Books.

7 Rule.

Q. What is the seventh rule?
A. 7. A difference is to be made between the chief Author of a Book, and the Instrument thereof; 1 Cor. 12. 3.

8 Rule.

Q. Why is this to be noted?
A. Because it is one thing to believe that God is the Author of this or that Book: another to believe that it was written by this or that Scribe, or Amanuensis.

Q. What is the eighth Rule?
A. 8. The substance of doctrine necessary to salvation contained in Scripture, is to be believed with an express,
With an exposition upon the same.

press, Historical and saving Faith: but the number and order of Books is to be believed with Faith Historical.

Q. What is the first argument to prove the Scriptures to be the Word of God?

A. The testimony of the Church.

Q. What understand you by the church?

A. By the Church we understand not the Pope, whom the Papists call the Church virtual; not his Bishops and Cardinals met in general Council, whom they call the Church representative; but the whole company of Believers, who have professed the true Faith; whether those who received the Books of holy Scripture from the Prophets and Apostles, or those who lived after.

Q. Under the name of the Church, do you comprehend the Prophets and Apostles?

A. Under the name of the Church we comprehend not the Prophets and Apostles, as they were immediately chosen and called to be the pen-men of holy Scripture.

Q. Why so?

A. Because they wrote not as men in in the Church, but above the Church.

Q. How is this testimony of the Church considered?

A. This Testimony of the Church is considered, 1. Of the Jews. 2. Of the Christians.

Q. What Books did the Jews receive?

A. The Church of the Jews professed the Doctrine, and received the Books of the Old Testament, and testified of them that they were divine.

Q. What things give force to this testimony?

A. To the testimony of the Jews these things give force.

1. To them were committed the Oracles of God, Rom. 3. 2.

2. In great misery they have constantly confessed the same, when as by the only denying thereof they might have been partakers both of Liberty and Rule.

3. Notwithstanding the high Priests and others persecuted the Prophets while they lived, yet they received their writings as Prophetic and divine.

4. Since obstinacy is come to Israel,
With an exposition upon the same.

Israel, notwithstanding their great hatred to the Christian Religion, the holy Scripture of the Old Testament is kept pure and uncorrupt amongst them, even in those places which do evidently confirm the truth of Christian Religion, Isaiah 53:3, 4, 5, &c.

Q. What Books did the Christian Church receive?

A. The Christian Church hath embraced the doctrine of God, and received the Books both of the Old and New Testament.

Q. What things give weight to this testimony?

A. To the testimony of Christians, two things give force, 1. Their great constancy. 2. Their admirable and sweet consent: for in other matters we may observe differences in Opinions, in this singular and wonderful agreement.

Q. How many ways is this testimony of the Church considered?

A. This testimony of Christians is considered three ways, 1. Of the universal Church, which from the beginning thereof until these times, professing the Christian Religion to be divine, doth also profess that these Books Books are of God. 2. Of the several primitive Churches, which first received the Books of the Old Testament, and the Epistles written from the Apostles, to them, their Pastors, or some they knew, and after delivered them under the same title, to their successors and other Churches. 3. Of the Pastors and Doctors, who (being furnished with skill, both in the Tongues and matters Divine) upon due trial and examination have pronounced their Judgement, and approved them to the people committed to their charge.

Q. Of what force is this Testimony?

A. This Testimony of the Church is of great weight and importance; 1. It is profitable to prepare the heart, and to move it to believe. 2. It is of all humane Testimonies (whereby the Author of any Book that hath, is, or shall be extant, can be proved) the greatest, both in respect of the multitude, wisdom, honesty, faithfulness of the witnesses, and the likeness, constancy and continuance of the Testimony itself. 3. But this Testimony is only humane. 4. Not the onely, nor the chief,
With an exposition upon the same. chief, whereby the truth and Divinity of the Scripture is confirmed. 5. Neither can it be the ground of divine faith and assurance.

Q. What is the 2. argument to prove the Scriptures to be the word of God?

A. The constancy of Saints.

Q. What things give weight to this Argument?

* A. (1.) The Saints of God of all sorts and conditions, noble, base, rich, poor, learned and unlearned, old, young, married, unmarried, have acknowledged them Divine. (2.) They have suffered the most grievous torments, usual, unusual, speedy, slow, even what Hel could invent or man's malice finde out, for the defence of his truth. (3.) All these things a number numberless endured: (4.) And that with great constancy and joy, even with a cheerful heart & merry countenance, so that none can think they suffered out of weakness, pride, vainglory, or discontent.

Q. What is the force of this argument?

A. This patient suffering of the Martyrs is not testimony meerly humane, but partly divine: for that courage and cheerfulness which they shewed
3. Argument.

Q. What is the third argument to prove the Scriptures to be the word of God?

A. Miracles wrought to confirm the truth.

Q. What things give force to this argument?

A. 1. Many 2. and great wonders. 3. Such as Satan himself cannot imitate. 4. Such as exceed the power of any, yea of all the Creatures in the world. 5. Such as the most malicious enemies of God's truth could not deny to be divine, hath the Lord openly wrought by the hands of Moses, the Prophets and Apostles, for the confirmation of this truth, Numb. 11. 9. and 20. 10. Exod. 19. 16. 1 Kings 17. 24. Mark 16. 20. Heb. 2. 4. John 5. 36. and 9. 30, 33. Acts 5. 12.

Q. What is the strength of this Argument?

A. These miracles were sufficient to confirm the Divinity of this truth and writing, to them who were eye-witnesses thereof, Heb. 2. 3. John 20. 20. Judg. 2. 7, 10. The undoubted and clear narration of them, is to us an invincible argument thereof.
Q. What is the 4th Argument to prove the Scriptures to be the Word of God?
A. The antiquity thereof.

Q. How doth this prove the Scriptures to be the Word of God?
|| A. That which is most ancient, is most true and divine.

Q. Why so?
A. 1. The purest Religion is before all others. 2. There must needs be a Law before Transgression: and 3. A commandment given unto man before there could be place for the Devil to tempt him.

Q. How may the antiquity of the Scripture be proved?
A. The Religion taught in Scripture is of greatest antiquity, because the doctrine of the creation and fall there handled, in all other stories whatsoever is omitted.

Q. How else?
A. By the k Bible, f 16 efficacy, 7 sweet m consent, 8 admirable doctrine, 9 excellent of end, and 10 the witness p of the Scripture itself, k Gen. 17.1. Psal. 50.1. Isa. 44.24. Exod. 20.1, 2. 1 Cor. 11.23. John 3.36. 1 Cor. 1.23. Joel 1.1, 2. 1 Psal. 19.8. C 3 Rom.

5 Argument.
The style of the scriptures

Q. What is the fifth argument to prove the Scriptures to be the Word of God?
A. The style thereof.

Expos. || Q. What understand you by the style?

A. By the style of the Scripture we understand not the external superfluities of words, but the whole order, character, frame & comprehension which fitly agreeth, (1) To the dignity of the speaker. (2) The nature of the Argument. (3.) And is tempered according to the capacity and condition of them for whose sake it was written.

Q. Had not every Prophet and Apostle a peculiar style?
A. Every Prophet and Apostle almost had a peculiar style; Isaiah is eloquent, sweet, and more adorned; Solomon accurate; Jeremy vehement and more rough; Amos simple, but all are divine.

Q. What
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. What things declare the majesty of the style?
A. These things declare the Majesty of the style.

1. The titles that the Author of the holy Scripture doth justly challenge unto himself; the which import, 1. Independence of nature, Exod. 3. 14.
2. Supereminency of power and sovereignty, Psal. 50. 1, 2. 3. And excellency both of properties and works, Gen. 17.
1. Isaiah 42. 5. and 40. 22, 26.
2. The manner used in teaching, commanding, promising and threatening.

Q. What manner is used in teaching?
A. Things above reason, hidden mysteries, such as exceed all humane capacity, are unfolded, without all argumentation or furniture of persuasion, 1 Cor. 2. 7. and we are required to understand and believe them, relying upon the truth and credit of the revealer.

Q. What manner is used in commanding?
A. In giving the Law, no proem is used, but, Thus said the Lord; no conclusion, but The Lord hath spoken, Exod.
Exod. 20. 1, 2. Commandments of which no reason can be rendred, are enjoyned, Gen. 2. 17. and that which a natural man would account foolishness, is peremptorily and with great severity required, John 3. 36. 1 Cor. 1. 23, 24. no argument being brought to perswade or confirm the equity of those commands, but onely the will of the Commander.

Q. What manner is used in promising and threatening?

A. Promises above likelyhood are made; to assure of performance no reason is alledged, but, I the Lord have spoken, Isa. 51. 22. and 52. 3, 4. and to encourage against difficulties and dangers present, divine assistance is promised both as necessary and sufficienient, Exod. 4. 12. Josb. 1. 9. Jer. 1. 8. Isaiah 43. 5. In the maner of threatening also, the like notes of the Divinity of the stile may be observed.

Q. What further particulars may be observed in the majesty of the stile?

A. (1) That without respect of persons, he doth prescribe Laws to all men, private persons and publique Magistrates, whole Kingdoms and severall Estates. (2) Com-
With an exposition upon the same.

(2) Commanding what is distasteful to their nature, and forbidding what they approve.
(3) Promising not terrestrial honor, but life everlasting if they be obedient.
(4) Threatening not with rack or gibbet, but eternal death if they disobey, Joel 1. 1, 2. John 3. 16. 1 Sam. 12. 25.
(5) That the Ministers of the Lord of Hosts do require attention, Faith and Obedience, to whatsoever they speak in the name of the Lord, whether it were prophesie, commandment or rebuke; whether they called to repentance, and reformation of things amiss, or exhorted to obedience, 1 Cor. 11. 23. Mich. 1. 1, 2.

Q. Is not the manner of speech in Scripture low and humble?
A. Yes, but the low and humble manner of speech, used in holy Scripture, cannot justly offend any man.

Q. Why was it penned in so humble a manner?
A. (1) It was penned to the use and behoof both of the learned and unlearned, Rom. 1. 14.
(2) Though the Phrase be plain, the matter is high and excellent, profound

(3.) Easiness and plainness doth best be seem the truth: A Pearl needs not painting, nor truth to be underpropped with foreign aids, it is of it self sufficient to uphold and sustain it self.

(4.) It becomes not the Majesty of a Prince to play the Orator.

(5.) And though the Scripture be simple in word, it is great in power: no writings of Man, though never so well set forth, with wit, words, order or depth of learning, can so enlighten the minde, move the will, pierce the heart, and stir up the affections, as doth the word of God.

(6.) Neither do the Scriptures want eloquence, if the matter be well weighed: no writing doth, or can equalize them in pithiness of prophecying, or ferventness of praying.

Q. Give an example hereof.

A. The song of Moses, and the beginning of Esay, in variety and force of eloquence, do far exceed all authors, Greek and Latin; if comparison be made betwixt those places, and and whatsoever is most excellently indited by man, either in Greek or Latin, you may easily discern, the one was written by a Divine, the other by a humane Spirit.

Q. What is the sixth argument to prove the Scriptures to be the Word of God?

A. The Efficacy thereof.

Q. How doth the efficacy of this word demonstrate the Divinity thereof?

A † The efficacy of this Doctrine doth powerfully demonstrate the Divinity thereof: (1.) For it converts the soul. (2.) Enlightens the eyes, Psalm 19.7, 8. (3.) Discovers sin, Rom. 7. 7. (4.) Convinces the gainsayer, 2 Tim. 3.16. (5.) Killeth and terrifieth, 2 Cor. 3.6. (6.) Rejoyceth the heart, Psalm 19.8. and 119. 103. (7.) Quickneth, Psal. 119. 50, 93. (8.) Comforteth, Rom. 15. 4. (9.) Manifesteth the thoughts, 1 Cor. 14. 25. (10.) Overthows false Religions. (11.) Casteth down strong holds, and the whole Kingdom of Satan. (12.) Stoppeth the mouth of Oracles. (13.) Destroys Idols, 2 Cor. 10. 4. Zeph. 2. 11. Zach. 13. 2. (14.) And remains invincible notwithstanding all opposition, Acts 5. 38, 39.

Q. What
Q. What things commend the efficacy of this Word?

A. These things commend the efficacy of this Word.

1. The nature thereof is opposite to the wisdom and will of a natural man, 1 Cor. 1. 21. and 2. 14. Rom. 8. 7. and yet it hath prevailed.

2. It hath prevailed, not only with the gross and sottish Gentiles who served other Gods, Galatians 4. 8. but even with the most fierce and bitter enemies thereof, Acts 9. 5, 6, 20. 21.

3. The enemies who did oppose this truth were many, mighty and subtil.

Q. Who was the principal enemy of this truth?

A. The Devil out of his hatred against Gods glory, and mans salvation, Eph. 6. 12. Apoc. 2. 10.

Q. Who were his instruments?

A. (1) The Roman Emperors were his Instruments. (2) The rest of the world furthering: and (3) The Jews stirring them up.

Q. What moved them to persecute this truth?

A. (1)
With an exposition upon the same. 29

A. (1) Their love to falsehood and idolatry: and (2) Their malice against the Christian Religion.

Q. How did they persecute it?

A. 1. They did with incredible fury, 2. and vigilancy, labor the utter abolition of this truth, Act. 4. 27. and 9. 2. Mat. 10. 18, 22. John 16. 2. Act. 13. 50. and 14. 2, 5, 19. 1 Thes. 2. 15, 16.

(4) The persons whom the Lord did choose to be publishers of this heavenly Doctrine, were (1) In number few. (2) In outward appearance simple, rude, base and weak. And (3) Sometimes also negligent, Mat. 4. 18, 19, 20. Luke 6. 13. 2 Cor. 4. 7, 8. Mark 13. 25.

(5) These simple and weak men subdued the world by preaching the Cross of Christ, and prescribing long suffering and patience, 1 Cor. 2. 4. 1 Thes. 3. 4. Act. 9. 16. 2 Tim. 3. 1, 2.

(6) The number of all sorts, ages, conditions, sexes and nations, who gave credit to this Doctrine, and confirmed the fame with the loss of their lives, lives, was innumerable, Apoc. 6. 9, 10.

(7) In short time a great part of the habitable world was converted, and brought to the obedience of Faith, so that Paul filled all places from Jerusalem to Illyricum with the sound of the Gospel, Col. 1. 6. Rom. 15. 19.

(8) The more the truth was persecuted, the more it did prevail, Acts 3. 3, 4. Phil. 1. 14.

(9) Though the Jews were wasted with many and great slaughters, yet the Scriptures did still remain safe and entire in their custody, when the Hebrew Language did lie almost unknown and had perished altogether, had not the Lord provided for Religion; then by the Jews, the deadly Enemies of Christ, was the doctrine of Christian Faith preserved.

(10) To these we may adde the dreadful Judgements of God, which fell upon the persecutors of the Christian Faith; amongst whom, some were forced at their last gasp to acknowledge the Divinity of this Word: All which things do strongly confirm the propagation, defence and conservation of this truth and Doctrine, to be admirable
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. What is the 7th argument to prove the Scripture to be the Word of God?
A. The sweet consent thereof.

Q. How doth this consent prove the Scripture to be of God?
A. The sweet and admirable consent which is found in all and every part of Scripture, cannot be ascribed to any but the Spirit of God; each part so exactly agreeing with itself, and with the whole, John 5. 46.

Q. By what instances may this be declared?

ledge and finding out, until they were revealed.

Q. What considerations give Weight to this Argument?

A. These considerations give Strength to this Argument.

(1) The length of time in which this writing continued; viz. from Moses until John, which prevented all conceits of forgery, since they were not written in one, nor yet in many ages.

(2) The multitude both of Books that were written, and of Writers who were employed in that service.

(3) The distance of place, in which they were written, which did hinder that the Writers could not confer together, Jer. 2. 1, 2. and 36. 5. Ezek. 1. 1.

(4) The silence of the adversaries, who in all that long space mentioned, whiles the Scripture was in writing, could never detect anything in those Books as false or erroneous.

Q. What things give weight to this silence of the adversaries?

A. This silence is of great weight in this case, because they were eye-witnesses of those things which our Savio tour taught; did, and suffered, accord ing as it was prophesied of him. So that they (1) Knew the Prophecies:

(2) Saw the accomplishment of them:
And (3) were acquainted with that which the Apostles had written.

Q. The Prophets and Apostles who write the same History, dissent one from another.

A. If the Prophets or Apostles who wrote the same Histories, do seem to dissent in any circumstances, this doth nothing derogate from their autho-

Q. Why so ?

A. For 1. In themselves they dif-er not; the fault is our ignorance and apprehension. 2. By a right and just interpretation, they may easily be reconciled. 3. The dissonancy which seems to be amongst them in small things, doth free them from all suspi-tion of fraud, and their sweet conser in all matters of importance, doth convince that they wrote by the guidance of the same Spirit.

Q. Declare this more particularly.

A. 1. If they had all written one thing,
thing, they might seem superfluous.
2. If each a new History, there could appear no steps of consent. 3. When they relate the same story with the same circumstances, they have their use, one sometimes speaking more plainly than the other. And 4. when they agree in matter, but seem to differ in circumstances, the truth is the more confirmed, an argument of fuller credit may be drawn out of that different: for as the Heathen man observeth, too exact diligence is neither approved of all, neither doth it want suspicion.

Q. Doth not the Doctrine of the Scripture agree with all other truth whatsoever?

A. To this sweet agreement of holy Scripture with itself it might be further added, that it agreeth with all other truth whatsoever: there is nothing true in Divinity, which is false in Philosophy, nothing in Philosophy is repugnant to the truth in Divinity, but it may be overthrown by the principles of right and true Philosophy.

Q. What is the eight argument to prove the
With an exposition upon the same.

the Scriptures to be the Word of God?

A. The excellent matter thereof.

Q. How doth this prove the Scriptures to be of God?

A. Because the matter treated of in holy Scripture, is divine & wonderful.

Q. Declare this by some particular instances.

A. 1. It explicates unto us the nature, properties and high acts of God, purely and holily.

2. It describes the person of Christ, so fitly, excellently and conveniently, that if the minde of man consider it attentively, of necessity it must acknowledge, it doth exceed the reach of a finite understanding.

3. It discovers unto us the misery and corruption of man by nature, the incomprehensible love of God in Jesus Christ towards man, that happy reconciliation (if we may so speak) of his justice and mercy by his infinite wisdom, ordaining Jesus Christ to be our Mediator.

4. And it unfolds the Covenant of Grace, which God made with man after his fall; all which can be drawn from no fountain, but Divine Revelation.
5. The Scripture also contains the Law of God, which teacheth the duty of man, and that is wise and just, the Gentiles themselves being Judges, Deut. 4. 5, 6, 7.

Q. What notes of Divinity may be observed in the precepts?

A. In the precepts divers Notes of Divinity may be observed: As (1) the surpafting excellency of the act, requiring that we should deny our selves, and lead our lives according to the appointment of the Lord, Mat. 16. 24, 25. Rom. 8. 12, 13. (2) The wonderful equity that doth appear in every commandment. (3) The admirable strangeness of some acts, which a natural man would count foolishness, yet prescribed as necessary, John 3. 36. and 8. 24. (4) The manner how obedience is required; viz. that it proceed from a pure heart, a good conscience, and faith unfained, Deut. 6. 5. 1 Cor. 13. 2. 1 Timothy 1. 5. (5) The perfection of the Law, commanding and allowing all good, but forbidding and condemning all sin and wickedness.
With an exposition upon the same.

of what kinde foever.

Q. What example may be given hereof?

A. Take a brief view of the ten Commandments; are they not, (1) Plain. (2) Pure. (3) Brief. (4) Perfect. (5) Just. (6) Extending to all. (7) Binding the conscience; and (8) Reaching to the very thoughts.

Q. What do these things commend to us?

A. All these things commend unto us, 1. The Justice. 2. The Wisdom. 3. The Holiness. 4. The Omnipotency. 5. The Omnisciencete. 6. The Perfection. And 7. the absolute sovereignty of the Law-giver.

Q. What notes of Divinity may be observed in the promises and threatnings?

A. The promises and threatnings annexed to the Law, will suffer us to acknowledge none other Author of them, but the Lord alone. For 1. none can make them but he, because he onely can give eternal life, and inflict eternal condemnation. 2. These are so set together with the commandments, as they can move none, but only the conscience of him, who doth acknowledge the commandments to be divine.
Excellent end.

Q. What is the 9th argument to prove the Scriptures to be the Word of God?
A. The excellent end thereof.

Q. What is the end of the Scripture?
A. The end of the Scripture is divine, viz. 1. The glory of God: and 2. The salvation of man; not temporal but eternal.

Q. How may it appear that the glory of God is the end of the Scripture?
A. Because the Doctrines, Precepts, Prohibitions and Narrations, are all referred to the setting forth of God's praise.

Q. How doth this prove that they are of God?
A. It shews that they are from above, John 7. 18. and 5. 41. and 8. 50, 54. Gal. 1. 10. For what is more equal, then that all things should return thither whence they had their beginning.

Q. How doth it appear that the salvation of man is the end of the Scripture?
A. Because this word doth point out unto man, 1. What true blessedness is: And 2. How he may be reconciled unto God, being lost by sin.

Q. How doth this prove them to be divine?
A. It
With an exposition upon the same.

A. It is a firm demonstration to prove unto us the Divinity thereof: For (1) What is more agreeable to the wisdom, bounty, mercy, grace and power of God, then to restore man fallen, and to make him partaker of eternal happiness? And (2) Who can shew unto man, how he may be admitted unto God's favor, having offended, or direct and lead him forward in the path of Life, but the Lord alone.

Q. What is the force of these Arguments?

A. These Arguments are of great force whether they be severally or joyntly considered, and do as strongly prove that the Christian Religion is onely true, as any other reason can, that there was, is, or ought to be any true Religion.

Q. What is the 10th argument to prove the Scriptures to be the Word of God? Argument.

A. The testimony of Scripture itself.

Q. What are the properties of this testimony?

* A. This testimony of Scripture itself, is (1) most clear: (2) Certain.
Q. Why so?
A. It being the testimony of the Lord himself, who is in all things to be believed.

Q. Is this testimony of force to open the eyes, or assure the heart?
A. No, for the external light of arguments, and testimonies brought to confirm and demonstrate, must be distinguished from the inward operation of the holy Ghost, opening our eyes to see the light shining in the Scripture, and to discern the sense thereof, 2 Cor. 1. 22.

Q. These reasons may convince any, be never so obstinate: but are they sufficient to persuade the heart thereof?
A. No, the testimony of the spirit is necessary and only all-sufficient for this purpose, q 1 Cor. 2. 14. r 1 John 2. 20, 27.

Expos. Q. Why is the testimony of the Spirit necessary?
A. Because by nature we are blinde in spiritual things, 1 Cor. 2. 14. Mat. 15. 14. though therefore the Scripture be a shining light, Psalm 119. 105. yet unless unless our eyes be opened, Psalm 119. 18. Acts 26. 18. we cannot see it, no more then a blinde man doth the Sun, John 1. 5.
With an exposition upon the same. 41

Q. Why is the testimony of the Spirit all-sufficient?

A. (1.) Because the spirit is the author of supernatural light and faith, 1 Cor. 2. 8, 9. Eph. 1. 17. 1 John 5. 6, 10.

(2.) By the inspiration thereof were the Scriptures written, 2 Pet. 1. 21.

(3.) The secrets of God are fully known unto, and effectually revealed by the Spirit, 1 Cor. 2. 10.

(4.) The same law which is written in the Scriptures, the Spirit doth write in the hearts of men that be indued therewith, Isaiah 59. 21. Heb. 8. 10. For which reasons it must needs be that the testimony of the Spirit is all-sufficient to perswade and assure the heart that the Scriptures are the word of God.

Q. What Rules must be observed to prevent mistaking herein?

A. To prevent mistaking herein, observe these Rules;

(1) The Spirit of God doth assu- redly redly perswade our conscience that the Scriptures are of God; (1.) By enlightening our eyes to behold the light. (2.) By writing the Law in our hearts. (3.) By sealing up the promises to our Consciences. And (4.) Causing us sensibly to feel the effects thereof, 1 Cor. 2. 12. Luke 24. 45. 1 Cor. 14. 37. Jeremiah 31. 33. 2 Cor. 12. 2. 1 Thes. 1. 5. with 1 Thes. 2. 13. Acts 16. 14.

2 Rule. (2.) This perswasion of the Spirit is more certain then can be proved with reason, or expressed in words.

Q. Why so?

A. For things doubtful may be proved, but things in themselves most clear and certain, be above all proof and reason, as the shining of the Sun needs not to be confirmed by argument to him, that hath his eyes open to see the light thereof.

3 Rule. (3.) This testimony of the Holy Ghost is certain and manifest to him that hath the Spirit but private, not publique; testifying onely to him who is endued therewith; but not convincing others, nor confirming doctrines to others.

(4.) This
(4.) This testimony of the Spirit is not to be severed from the word which is the instrument of the Holy Ghost, and his publique testimony.

Q. Is it not injurious to try the Spirits?
A. It is not injurious to try the Spirit by the word of God, 1 John 4. 1. seeing there is a mutual relation between the truth of the party witnessing, and the truth of the thing witnessed: and the holy Spirit, the Author of the Scripture, is every where like unto, and doth every where agree with himself.

(5.) The testimony of the Spirit doth not teach or assure us of the letters, syllables, or several words of holy Scripture, which are onely a vessel to carry and convey that heavenly Light unto us, but it doth seal in our hearts the saving truth contained in those sacred Writings into what language soever they be translated, Eph. 1. 13.

(6.) The Spirit doth not lead them in whom it dwelleth, absolutely and at once into all truth, but into all truth necessary to salvation, and by degrees, John 16. 13. with Acts 1. 6. and 11. 2.

Q. What
Q. What follows hence?
A. Hence it follows, that holy men, partakers of the same Spirit, may err in many things, and dissent one from another in matters not fundamental.

Q. What are the properties of the Scripture?
A. It is of Divine authority.
2. The rule of faith and manners.
3. Necessary, pure, perfect, and plain.

First property of the Scripture. Its Divine authority.

Q. What is the Divine authority of holy Scripture?
A. Such is the excellency of the holy Scripture, above all other writings whatsoever, that it ought to be credited in all narrations, threatenings, promises or prophecies, and obeyed in all commandments.

Q. Whence hath it this authority?
A. From God the Author thereof, he being of incomprehensible wisdom.

Psalm 147. 5. great goodness, Exod. 18. 9.
With an exposition upon the same. 45

18. 9. Psal. 34. 8. Rom. 11. 22. absolute power and dominion, Gen. 17. 1. Psal. 50. 1, 2. and truth that can neither deceive nor be deceived, Rom. 3.4. Tit. 1. 2. Heb. 6. 18.

Q. Doth the authority of the Scripture wholly depend upon God?

A. The authority of the Scripture doth onely and wholly depend upon God the Author of it.

Q. May not one part of Scripture be preferred before another?

A. Though one part may be preferred before another, in respect of excellency of matter and use, Can. 1. 1. 1 Tim. 1. 15. yet in authority and certainty every part is equal.

Q. Is any other writing of equal authority to the Scripture?

A. Onely Scripture is of Divine authority, Gal. 1. 8. Mat. 17. 5. 1 Cor. 11. 23.

† Q. How may it be proved that the Scripture is the rule of faith & manners?

A. Because the Scriptures are, 1. The word of Christ, Col. 3. 16. whose word is upright, Ecc. 12. 10. Phil. 3. 16. 2. The first truth, Heb. 13. 8. 3. Received by immediate, divine Revelation, 2 Pet. 1.

Isaiah 8. 20. 8. Without which, error in doctrine and manners is unavoidable, Matth. 22. 29.

Q. How is the Word necessary in respect of substance?

* A. In respect of substance the word of God was always necessary, Eph. 2. 20. without which, we could
1. Neither know, 2. Nor worship God aright, Heb. 11. 3. 6. Matth. 22. 29. John
20. 31. 2 Tim. 3. 16. Rom. 15. 4. Luke
24. 26, 27.

Q. How is it necessary in respect of the manner of revealing?

A. In respect of the manner of revealing in writing, the Scriptures were necessary, ever since it pleased God after that manner to make known his will,
Deut. 17. 18. Jos. 1. 8. Rom. 15. 4. Luke 1. 3. Jude v. 3. and so shall be to the end of the world, 1 Cor. 10. 11. Rev. 22. 18.

Q. How is the Scripture pure?

* A.
With an exposition upon the same.

A. This blessed word of God is free from all, even the least stain of folly, error, falsehood or injustice, Psalm 119. 138, 140. Prov. 30. 5. John 17. 17. all things being laid down holily and truly, both for substance, circumstance and manner of speaking, Psal. 51. 1. Mat. 1. 25.

Q. What is the perfection of the Scripture?

A. Whatsoever was, is or shall be necessary or profitable to be known, believed, practised or hoped for, that is fully comprehended in the Books of the Prophets and apostles, Luke 16. 29, 31. John 5. 39. Rom. 15. 4. Gal. 1. 8, 9. 2 Tim. 3. 15, 16, 17.

Q. What things are to be observed, that the perfection of the Scripture might more easily appear?

A. The perfection of the Scripture will more plainly appear, if we consider, (1) That Religion for the substance thereof, was ever one and unchangable, Heb. 13. 8. Eph. 4. 5. Jude 3. Acts 26. 22. Tit. 1. 1, 2.

(2) The Law of God written by Moses and the Prophets, did deliver whatsoever was needful for, and behooveful

(3) Our Savior, 1. Made known unto his Disciples the last and full will of his heavenly Father, John 14. 26. and 15. 15. and 16. 13. and 1. 18. and 2. What they received of him, they faithfully preached unto the world, Acts 20. 27. 1 Cor. 15. 1, 2, 3. Gal. 1. 8. 1 John 1. 3. 3. And the sum of what they preached, is committed to writing Acts 1. 1, 2. John 20. 31. 1 John 5. 13. with Acts 8. 5, 1. 1 Cor. 2. 2. Rom. 10. 8, 9, 10.

(4) There is nothing necessary to be known of Christians, over and above that which is found in the old Testament, which is not plainly, clearly and fully set down, and to be gathered out of the writings of the Apostles and Evangelists.

Q. Is the whole Scripture perfect, or the particular Books thereof?

A. In the whole body of the Scripture, all doubts and controversies are perfectly decided, Isaiah 8. 20. Mat. 22. 39, 40. Deut. 17. 8, 9, 10, 11, 12. 2 Tim. 3. 16, 17. and every particular Book
With an exposition upon the same book is sufficiently perfect for the proper end thereof.

Q. What use is to be made hereof?
A. Unwritten traditions, 1 Cor. 4. 9. new articles of faith, Jer. 7. 31. & 19.5. & new visions & revelations, are now to be rejected, Heb. 1. 1. Joh. 4. 25. Joh. 15. 15. & 16. 13. with Mat. 28. 19. 2 Cor. 3. 6, 8, 11. with Heb. 8. 13.

Q. How is the Scripture easy?
A. In themselves the whole Scripture is easy, Psal. 119. 105. 2 Pet. 1. 19. Prov. 14. 6. for such excellent matter could not be delivered in more significant and fit words, Acts 1. 16. with Eph. 1. 17. But all things in Scripture are not alike manifest, 2 Pet. 3. 16.

Q. What Rules are to be observed touching the plainness of Scripture in respect of us?
A. 1. The Gentiles by nature have the Law written in their hearts, Rom. 2. 14. 2. But to a natural man the Gospel is obscure, accounted foolishness, 1 Corinthians 1. 21. and 2. 14. 3. Things necessary to salvation are so clearly laid down, that the simplest indued with the Spirit, cannot be altogether ignorant of the same, Isa. 54.

Q. Why are many things in Scripture obscure and dark to them who be in part illightened?

A. (1.) To tame the pride of mans nature, 2 Cor. 12. 7. (2) To work in us a reverence to the Scripture, 2 Pet. 3. 16, 17, 18. (3) To stir us up with care and diligence to read, pray, hear, &c. and use Gods means to grow in knowledge, Prov. 2. 34. 5. (4) And to enforce acknowledgement that all heavenly wisdom doth come from above, Prov. 2. 6. Jam. 1. 5. 1 King 3. 9. Job 28. 23.

Q. For what end was the Scripture written?

A. To 2(1) Teach || (2) Instruct. (3) Convince. (4) Correct. And (5) Comfort, 2 2 Tim. 3. 16, 17. Rom. 15. 4.

Expos. || Q. In what doth the Scripture teach, instruct, convince, correct and comfort?

A. The Scripture doth (1.) Teach
With an exposition upon the same. found Doctrine. (2) Disprove error. (3) Correct iniquity. (4) Instruct to righteousness. (5) And comfort in the path of holiness, 1 Tim. 1. 10, 11. Tit. 2. 12. 1 Thes. 3. 3, 4. Heb. 12. 1, 2.

Q. How is it proved that the Scripture was written for these ends?
A. Because it was given to shew unto man the way of life and salvation.

Q. Why was the Scripture given to teach and instruct?
A. Because faith and obedience is the way to happiness, and the whole duty of man is faith working by love, which man could not learn of himself, Rom. 1. 5. Tit. 1. 1, 2. 2 Tim. 1. 13. Gal. 5. 6. & 6. 15.

Q. Why was it given to convince and correct?
A. Because the way to happiness is assaulted, (1) With ignorance. (2) Error. (3) Superstition. (4) And prophaneness, 1 Tim. 1. 6, 19, 20. 2 Pet. 2. 1, 2, 3.

Q. Why was it given to comfort?
A. Because the same way to happiness is beset with many afflictions, 2 Tim. 3. 12.
A Short Catechism.

Q. Doth the knowledge of the scriptures belong unto all men?

A. Yes, all men are not only allowed, but exhorted and commanded to read, hear and understand the Scripture, as John 5.39. Deut. 17.18,19. Rev. 1.3. Acts 3.30.

Expof. || Q. Why are the scriptures to be read and understood of all men?

but 8. Being neglected or contemned, they plunge men into all misery, Heb. 2. 3. Mat. 22. 29. Psalm 50. 16.

Q. What sorts of men ought to read the Scripture?

Q. What motives may encourage the weak, and the strong Christian also to read the word of God?

A. 1. Because it was given of God, for the benefit and behoof of all sorts, Rom. 15. 4. 2. It being milk for babes, and meat for strong men, 1 Cor. 3. 1, 2. Heb. 5. 13. 3. It being plain and easy to instruct the simple, Prov. 1. 4. Psalm 19. 7. and full of hidden wisdom to exercise the strong and satisfie the wise, Col. 2. 3. 1 Cor. 2. 7. Prov. 1. 5. 4. That both sorts may be able to try the Spirits, 1 John 4. 1. 5. That they might be wise unto salvation. 6. And we grow rich in all spiritual knowledge and understanding, Col. 1. 10. & 2. 2. and 3. 16.
Q. The Scriptures are written in Hebrew and Greek, how then should all men read and understand them?

A. They ought to be translated into known Tongues and interpreted, 1 Cor. 14.18, 19. e Neh. 8.8. Acts 8.35.

Expos. Q. Why are the Scriptures to be translated into a known tongue?

A. 1. Because the Prophets and Apostles preached their doctrines to the people and nations in their known languages, Jer. 36.15,16. Acts 2.6. 2. Immediately after the Apostles times, many translations were extant. 3. All things must be done in the congregation unto edifying, 1 Cor. 14.26. but an unknown tongue doth not edifie, Gen. 11.4. 4. And all are commanded to try the Spirits, 1 Thess. 5.21. 1 Cor. 10.15.

† Q. Why are the Scriptures to be interpreted?

A. Because the expounding of Scriptures is (1.) Commanded by God, 1 Cor. 14. 1,2,3, 4. and 3.39. 2. Praised by the godly, 1 Cor. 4. 16, 21. and 24. 27. Matth. 1.23. 1 Cor. 14. 19. 3. It is profitable both for the un-

Q. In what things doth it stand?

Q. Is the sense of the Scripture one, or manifold?
A. Of one place of Scripture, there is but one proper and natural sense, though sometimes things are so expressed, as that the things themselves do signify other matters, according to the Lords Ordinance, Gal. 4. 22, 24, 34. Exod. 12. 16. with John 29. 36. Psal. 2. 1. with Acts 4. 24, 25, 26.

Q. Are we tied to the Exposition of Fathers?
A. We are not necessarily tied to the exposition of Fathers or Councils, for the finding out of the sense of the Scripture, Rom. 3. 4. Mat. 5. 27, 28, 31, 32, 33, 34, 38, 39, 43, 44.

Q. Who is the faithful interpreter of the Scripture?

E 4 A. The
A short Catechism.

A. The holy Ghost speaking in the Scripture, is the only faithful Interpreter of the Scripture, Luke 1. 70. 1 Cor. 2. 10, 11. John 14. 26. Isaiah 55. 4.

Q. What be the means to finde out the true meaning of the scripture?

A. The means to finde out the true meaning of the Scripture, are 1. Conference of one place of Scripture with another, 2 Sam. 24. 1. with 1 Chron. 21. 1. Isaiah 28. 16. with Romans 9. 33. Isaiah 65. 1, 2. with Romans 10. 20, 21. Micah. 5. 2. with Matt. 2. 6. Matthew 26. 34. with Mark. 14. 30. 2. Diligent consideration of the scope. 3. And circumstances of the place, Mat. 22. 31, 32. Acts 2. 29. as the occasions and coherence of that which went before, with that which followeth after. 4. Consideration of the matter whereof it doth intreat, 1 Cor. 11. 24, 25, 26. 5. And circumstances of persons, times and places, Acts. 13. 36, 37. 6. Also consideration, whether the words be spoken figuratively or simply; for in figurative speeches, not the outward shew of words, but the sense is to be taken, John 15. 1, Mat. 26. 26. John

But always it is to be observed, that obscure places are not to be expounded contrary to the rule of faith set down in plainer places of the Scripture, Rom. 2. 18, 20. and 12. 6. 2 Tim. 1. 13. Acts 13. 33, 36, 37. Rom. 9. 7.

Q. What doth the scriptures especially teach us?

A. The saving knowledge || of God, † and Jesus Christ, f Joh. 17. 3. Col. 2. 1, 2.

Expos. Q. Why is knowledge necessary?

Isaiah 30. 21. 6. And without it, zeal is little worth, Rom. 10. 2. sacrifice was vain, Hos. 6. 6. and devotion was but superstition, Acts 17.22,23.

Q. When is knowledge saving?
A. When it is made by the work of the holy Ghost, to be effectual to sincere faith, love, fear and obedience, then it is saving, John 17. 3. Isa. 53. 11.

Q. Why must we know God?
A. We must know God, because otherwise, 1. We cannot desire, John 4. 10. 2. Obey, 1 John 2. 4. 3. Nor have communion or fellowship with him, 1 John 1. 5, 6, 7.

Q. Why must we know Christ?
A. We must know Christ, 1. Because sin hath made a separation between God and us, Isa. 59. 2. So that we cannot be received into God's favor, or have communion with him, without a Mediator, Eph. 1.3, 5. Rom. 3. 25. Eph. 2. 18. 1 John 2. 1, 2. Heb. 10. 21, 22. John 14. 6.

Q. How doth it appear that this knowledge is excellent?
A. (1)
With an exposition upon the same.

A. (1.) Because Christ is the image of the invisible God, Col. 1. 15. the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, Heb. 1. 3.

(2.) In whom, with open face we behold, as in a glass, the glory of the Lord, 2 Cor. 3. 18. John 14. 9.

(3.) In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge, Col. 2. 3.

Q. How may it appear that the knowledge of God and Christ is sufficient.

(A.) 1. Because the Apostles, who preached unto the world the whole counsel of God necessary to salvation, did preach nothing, Acts 8. 5. Rom. 10. 8, 9. Acts 28. 31. (2) Did desire to know nothing, but Jesus Christ and him crucified, 1 Cor. 2. 2. Phil. 3. 8. (3) Of him they wrote, that our joy might be full, 1 John 4. 1. (4) And the Lord, who forbids us to glory in any thing beside, doth command us to glory in this, that we know him in Christ, Jer. 9. 23. 1 Cor. 1. 30, 31.

Q. What be the properties of this knowledge?

A. This knowledge is, (1) Necessary. (2) Easie. (3) Excellent. (4) Sufficient.

Q. How may it be proved that there is a God?

A. By the works, and wonders which are seen, the testimony of conscience, the powers of the soul, and the practices of Satan, g Psalm 19. 1, 2. Isa. 41, 23. Rom. 1. 20. Acts 14. 17. Job 12. 7, 9. b Exod. 5. 19 & 9. 16. i Rom. 15. 13. 53. 5. k Zach. 12. 1. Psalm 94. 8, 9, 16. l Rev. 12. 7, 10.

Expos. || Q. What reasons may be drawn from the works of God, to prove that there is a God?

A. 1. The first creature was made of nothing, otherwise it could not be subject to change and alteration: and all creatures are finite, compound, imperfect, unable to make or sustain themselves, therefore of necessity there must be a first cause, in power infinite, most perfect and of itself, that gives Being and Continuance unto all things.

2. Reason. Nothing can be the cause of itself: for then it should be both the cause and the effect, both before and after after it self, therefore all things have their beginning from one first and supreme cause, which is God.
With an exposition upon the same.

3. Amongst things created we may observe a series of causes, and an order in the things themselves; but order is from one first, and leads us unto one first.

4. All things, even things without life, sense and reason, which cannot move voluntarily, or intend an end, are directed orderly unto an end; therefore there is one wise, good, and chief director of all things, which is God.

5. The greatness, perfection, multitude, variety and concord of things existing; the form and continual sustentation of the World, do shew that all things do depend upon some one, wise and perfect good, from whom they have their being and preservation.

† Q. What understand you by Wonders?

A. By wonders we understand visible and apparent works, extraordinarily wrought, not only above the ordinary course of nature, but simply above above the power of nature.

Q. How many ways may works be above the power of nature?

A. Two ways, 1. Either in respect of the work itself, 2. or the manner of doing.

Q. How do these wonders prove that there is a God?

A. These effects do convince, that there is an infinite power that is above, and doth over-rule all things: for every principal and primary cause is more excellent then the effects thereof.

3. Argument.

Testimony of Conscience.

Q. What are the acts of conscience in respect of things past?

A. The conscience doth 1. Register; 2. Bring to remembrance: And 3. Bear witness of the cogitations, words and actions of all men.

Q. What are the acts of conscience in respect of things well done?

A. It doth (1) Excuse; (2) And comfort in well-doing against the disgraces, slanders, and persecutions of the world.

Q. What are the acts of conscience in respect of things done evil?

A. It 1. Doth accuse: 2. And terrify rise for sin secretly committed, which never did, nor shall come into the knowledge of men.

Q. What are the acts of conscience in respect of things to be done?

A. 1. It doth incite to holiness: And 2. curb and bridle from iniquity.

Q. How do these acts prove that there is a God?

A. This is a manifest token and proof, that there is a suprem Judge, who hath given a Law binding the conscience, doth observe all our thoughts, devices, words and works, and will call us to an account and reckoning.

Q. What arguments may be brought from the powers of the soul to prove that there is a God?

A. 1. The soul is a spiritual, invisible and immortal substance, endued with power to understand and will; but the soul and the power thereof, is not of and from itself: therefore it must proceed from another cause, which is power, wisdom and understanding it self, and that is God.

2. In the understanding there are certain certain principle, whereby it discerneth truth and falsehood, good and evil; this gift man hath not of himself, therefore it springs from a supremum and most wise understanding, the principal cause being ever more excellent then the effect.

3. The minde is not satisfied with the knowledge, nor the will with the possessions of all things in this world; but still they seek, and earnestly thirst after some higher good: there is therefore a sovereign truth and chief good, which being perfectly known and enjoyed, will give contentment.

4. By the powers and faculties of the Soul, man is capable of happiness, or of the chief good: but in vain should he be made capable thereof, if there were not a chief good to be possessed and enjoyed.

5. Question:

Q. How do the practices of Satan prove that there is a God?

A. 1. By the assaults and suggestions of Satan we feel there is a Devil; may we not then certainly conclude that there is a God?

2. Satan labors by all means to extinguish the light of the Gospel, to lead lead men on in ignorance, error and prophaness, and to turn them out of the path of holiness: Now why should Satan war thus against God, his word, and Saints, why should he seek God's dishonor and mans destruction, if there were not a God, a law, and an everlasting life?
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. How else?

A. By the (1) consent of nations, (2) defence of the church; (3) comfort of the godly; (4) but principally by the (5) Scripture, (6) Psalm 9. 16. and 58. 11. (7) Jer. 33. 9. (8) Isaiah 42. 8.

Expos. || Q. How doth the consent of Nations prove that there is a God?

A. (1) All nations in every age, time and place of the world, have acknowledged that there was a God.

(2) The Gentiles could not endure him, who denied a divine power.

(3) They adored stocks, stones, bruit beasts, and the basest creatures, rather then they would have no Deity at all.

(4) They were zealous and forward in the worship of their Idols, which shews, that though they acknowledged not the true God, yet they knew there... there is a God to whom divine worship is due.

(5) Such as have studied to become Atheists, could never blot this truth out of their consciences; but the majesty of God hath affrighted, and his terrors made them afraid.

Q. How doth the defence of the church prove that there is a God?

† A. (1) The Devil with great malice and fury, and ungodly men with all their might, authority, malice and policy, have labored to finde out and extirpate all those that call upon the name of the Lord Jesus; but they have been miraculously hid, preserved and defended by the Lord.

(2) God hath wondrously frustrated all the devices of the wicked enemies of his Church; and by the means they practised to root it out, it was encreas'd.

(3) God fought from Heaven against the persecutors of his children, and executed upon them the fierce-ness of his displeasure: dreadful judgments did overtake many of them, and such horror fell upon some, that they were forced to leave their places of favor favor and rule, and oetake themselves to a solitary and private life.

Q. How doth the support and comfort of the godly prove that there is a God?

A. The Lord hath armed his children with invincible courage and fortitude to endure disgrace, contempt, poverty, death, and the most exquisite torments that hell could invent. 2) He hath supported them under the burden of an accusing conscience. (3) He hath inwardly refreshed them as it were suddenly with sweet peace and consolation. (4) And by the power, strength & comfort of the holy Ghost, he hath enabled them to sing Psalms in prison, and in the midst of the fire; which courage, strength and comfort of theirs doth plainly demonstrate that there is a God. (5) Especially if you compare it with that fear, faintness and uneasiness, vexation & deadness which is in men when they suffer any thing.

Q. What is God?

Q. How many Gods be there?

A. Only one God and three Persons, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, 1 Deut. 6. 4. 1 Cor. 8. 4, 6. 1 Mat. 28. 19. 1 John 5. 7.

Expos. || Q. How may it be proved that there is but one God?

A. 1. There can be but one, 1. Omnipotent, Dan. 4. 35. 2. Infinite. 3. Eternal. 4. Most perfect. 5. First cause. And 6. Director
With an exposition upon the same.

6. Director of all things. (2) All things are referred to one first, Rom. 11. 35. Apoc. 1. 8. and 4. 11.

Q. What is a person?
A. A person generally taken, is one entire substance, not common to many, endued with life and understanding, will and power.

Q. What is a person in Trinity?
A. A person in the Godhead, is the Godhead restrained, or distinguished by his personal property, John 14. 16. and 15. 1.

Q. Is the divine nature common to all three persons?

Q. What followeth hence?
A. Hence it followeth, that whatsoever doth absolutely agree to the divine nature, or is spoken of the divine nature by relation unto the Creatures, that doth agree likewise to every person.
on, in Trinity, John 1. 1. Prov. 8. 22.
Luke 1. 35.

(2) That every person in Trinity is equal in glory and eternity, John 10.
with John 1. 2, 14.

(3) And that there is a most near communion and union between them.

Q. Wherein stands this near union and communion?

A. Herein it stands; (1) each one is in the rest and with the rest, John 14. 10, 11. John 1. 1. (2) And every one doth possess, love and glorifie each other, Prov. 8. 22, 30. John 17. 5. working the same things, John 5. 19.

Q. What is the Father?

A. The Godhead considered with the personal property of begetting, is the Father, &c.

Q. What is the property of the Fa-

Expos. || Q. Doth the Divine nature
beget?

A. The Divine nature doth neither
beget,
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. How then doth the Father beget his Son?
A. The Father doth beget his Son by an eternal and necessary communication of his essence, wholly and indivisibly to his Son, which yet he wholly retaineth in himself, John 1. 1. Prov. 8. 22, 23.

Q. What is the property of the Son?
A. To be begotten of the Father, 1 John 3. 18.

Q. What is the property of the holy Ghost?
A. To proceed from the Father and the Son, 1 John 15. 26. x Rom. 8. 9. Gal. 4. 6.

Q. The nature of God is infinite and incomprehensible, how then may we conceive of him?
A. By his properties, and by his works, 1 Exod. 34. 6,7. 2 Psal. 19. 1. and 8. 1. Job 36. 24, 6c. and 37. 1, 8.

Q. What is a property in God?
A. A property in God, is that whereby his divine nature is known in itself, and distinguished from all other.
Q. Do the properties in God differ from the Divine Essence, or one from another?

A. The properties of God do not really differ from the Divine Essence, nor one of them from the other, but onely in our manner of conceiving.

Q. What followeth hereupon?

A. Hence it followeth, that every property in God is inseparable and incommunicable.

Q. What are his properties?

Ps. 56. 8. and 147. 4. Mat. 10. 30.

Q. What is Counsel?
A. Counsel is God's discerning a most wise reason of all things and actions, Eph. 1. 11. Prov. 8. 14.

Q. What is strength in God?
A. Strength is that whereby God doth work whatsoever he doth will, Dan. 4. 35. Is. 40. 28.

Q. In what manner doth God work?
A. 1. Most freely, Ps. 115. 3. and 135. 6. 2. And without resistance or weariness.

Q. What doth God?
A. Whatever he doth will.

Q. What
Q. What can the Lord do?
A. The Lord can do whatsoever he can will, Mat. 3. 9.

Q. What is goodness in God?
A. Goodness is that whereby God being the chief good, Mark 10. 18. sheweth him very good and bountiful to all his Creatures, Psalm 86. 5.
Gen. 1. 31. Psalm 33. 5. and 36. 6.
and 145. 9.

Q. How many ways is the goodness of God to be considered?
A. Two ways, 1. As it is in himself. 2. As it is exercised to all his Creatures.

Q. What is graciousness in God?
A. Graciousness is that whereby God being truly 1. Amiable in himself, Psalm 86. 15. and 111. 5. 2. Is freely bountiful unto his Creatures, Romans 3. 24. loving and cherishing them tenderly, without any deserts of theirs, Psalm 145. 8. and 36. 3, 7, 9. Luke 1. 30.

Q. How is graciousness in God considered?
A. 1. As it is in himself. 2. As it is exercised freely and bountifully unto his Creatures.

Q. What
Q. What is justice in God?

A. Justice is that whereby God is true in all his sayings, Eccles. 13. 1. Truth.
   10. Rom. 3. 4. 2. Righteous in all his doings, Genesis 18. 25. Deut. 32. 4. Righteousness.

Q. What be the parts of God's justice?

A. Two, 1. Truth. 2. Righteousness.

Q. What is mercy in God?

A. Mercy is that whereby God of his free grace and love, is ready to succor, 1. Such as are, Psalm 57. 10. and 108. 4. Psalm 103. 4. and 145. 14. 2. Or might be in misery by the condition of their nature.

Q. What are the kindes of mercy in God?

A. 1. Succoring in misery actual.
   2. Vindicating from misery possible.

Q. What is the perfection of God?

A. 1. Perfection is that whereby God is necessarily all-sufficient in and of himself, Gen. 17. 1. Job 22. 2. and 25. 5, 6, 7. Psalm 162. 2. And the cause of all perfection and goodness in every thing besides, James 1. 17. 2 Cor.
Cor. 3. 5. and 4. 7. 1 Cor. 8. 4, 6.
Rom. 11. 36.

Q. How is the perfection of God to be considered?
A. It is to be considered, 1. In respect of God himself. 2. In respect of the Creature.

Q. What is to be considered in the perfection of God as it is in himself?
A. God is necessarily all-sufficient in and of himself.

Q. What in respect of the Creature?
A. God is the cause of all perfection and goodness in every thing besides.

Q. What is blessedness in God?
A. Blessedness is that whereby God 1. Fully, 2. And essentially knowing and willing, that perfection which is in himself, hath all fulness of delight and contentment in and of himself, Gen. 17. 1. 1 Tim. 6. 15. and 1. 11. and is the cause and object of the blessedness of his Creatures, Psalm 16.11. and 17. 15. A Short Catechism.

Q. What be the properties of this decree?
   A. It is (1) Most wise, (2) Free, (3) Just, (4) Eternal, (5) And unchangeable.

Q. What is the object of this decree?
   A. Man.

Q. What is the end of it?

Q. What are the parts of this decree?
   A. Of this decree there be two parts: Election, and Reprobation, 1 Thess. 5. 9. Judg. 4. 5.

Q. What is Election?
   A. Election is the decree of God, of his free love, grace and mercy, choosing some men to faith, holiness and eternal life, for the praise of his glorious mercy, 1 Thess. 1. 4. 2 Thess. 2. 13. Eph. 1. 4, 5, 6. Rom. 8. 29, 30.

Q. What is the cause of Election?
   A. The cause which moved the Lord to elect them who are chosen, was none other but his meer good will and pleasure, Luke 12. 32. Rom. 11. 5. and 16. Eph. 1. 5. 2 Tim. 1. 9. 9. 11. What is the end of Election?

Q. A. The
With an exposition upon the same.

A. The end of Election is the manifestation of the riches of his grace and mercy, Rom. 9. 23.

Q. Was not Christ, faith, holiness, &c. the cause of Election?

A. No: The sending of Christ, faith, holiness, and eternal life, are only the effects of God's love, by which he manifesteth the infinite riches of his grace, John 3. 16. 1 John 4. 10. Acts 13. 4. Tit. 1. 1. Col. 1. 12. Rom. 6. 23.

Q. In what order are men elected to life?

A. In the same order God doth execute this decree in time, in which he did decree in his eternal counsel, 1 Thes. 5. 9. 2 Thes. 2. 13.

Q. What is Reprobation?

A. Reprobation is the wise, just and absolute decree of God, ordaining to leave some men unto themselves, to suffer them to fall, and to inflict upon them eternal punishment, deserved by their sins, for the praise of his unspeakable and great justice, Rom. 9. 11, 13, 22. Jude 4. Jer. 6. 30.

A short Catechism

A. The cause of this decree is the absolute will and good pleasure of God

Q. Was not man’s sin the cause of this decree?

A. Man’s sin is the cause why God will punish, but no occasion why he did ordain to pass by, or to punish man, Rom. 9.18, 20.

Q. How may it appear that this decree is just?

A. This decree is just because God hath power over man, as the Potter hath over his clay, to make one vessel to honor and another unto dishonor, Romans 9.21. Jeremiah 18.6. Matth. 20.15.

Q. What is the end of this decree?

A. The end of this decree is not the condemnation of the creature, but the manifestation of God’s Justice, Rom. 9.22.

Q. Is not sin the effect of this decree?

A. Sin is the effect of man’s free-will, and condemnation is an effect of justice, inflicted upon man for sin and disobedience, John 3.18 and 12.37, 38, 39, 40. 2 Thess. 2.9, 10. but the decree of God which is good, is the cause caused of neither, Psalm 5. 4.

Q. May a man be assured of his election or reprobation in this life?

A. A man in this life may be assured of his election, 2 Pet. 1. 10. 1 Thes. 1. 4. and eternal happiness, Mat. 24. 24. Job. 10. 28, 29. Rom. 8. 33, 34. 2 Tim. 2. 19. but not of his reprobation.

Q. Why cannot a man be assured of his reprobation?

A. Because he that is now prophane, may be called hereafter, Mat. 20. 5, 6.

Q. What is creation?

A. That whereby God made all things of nothing, in six days, Heb. 11. 3. m Exod. 20. 11.

Expos. || Q. Was the first matter of all things eternal?

A. The first matter whereof all things were made was not eternal, Gen. 1. 1. Prov. 8. 22, 23.

Q. Why so?

A. 1. For then it could not be subject to alteration, Psalm 102. 26, 27. (2) Neither should God be the fountain of all goodness, if any thing had a being, and not from him. (3) Then the word beginning could not be referred to all things.
Q. How was the first matter created?
A. It was made simply of nothing in time, Heb. 11.3.

Q. What things were made of it?
A. Other corporal things were made of it, Gen. 1.6. &c. by no less power and wisdom, then the lump itself, Jer. 10.12. Rev. 4.11. Job 38.4-5, 6, 7, &c.

Q. In what form or manner were all things created?

Q. For what end did God make all things?
A. For the praise of his great power, goodness, wisdom, perfection and freedom, p Rev. 4.11. Prov. 16.4.

Q. How doth he preserve all things in particular?

A. He doth preserve them both in respect, 1. Of their nature. 2. And of their qualities, Psal. 19. 1, 2. Job 39. 1, 2, &c. Exod. 23. 25. Deut. 28. 5.

Q. How doth God govern all things?

A. God governeth all creatures according to their several natures, Psal. 33. 13, 14, 15, and 135. 6, 7, and 101. 14, and 145. 15. Job 10. 8, 9, 10, 11. Prov. 12. 24. Psal. 119. 91.

Q. To what actions doth God's providence reach?

A. To all actions, Psal. 14. 2, and 32. 13, 14, 18. Eccles. 3. 1, 2, 3, &c. and 8. 6. Gen. 20. 6. and 50. 19, 20. even to those things which are most casual in respect of us, Exod. 21. 13. Deut. 19. 5.

Q. How doth it reach to the sinful actions of men?

A. Both in respect of entrance and after it is entered.

Q. What be the acts of God's providence in respect of the entrance of sin?

A. God in great wisdom and justice

Q. What be the acts of God's providence in respect of sin after it is entred?

Q. How doth God limit the sinful actions of men?
With an exposition upon the same.

1 Sam. 12. 13, 14.

Q. How doth God punish sin?

A. He doth punish one sin with another, 2 Chron. 29. 20. Rom. 1. 28. Exod. 7. 3. 2 Thess. 2. 9, 10, 11.

Q. How doth God direct the sinful actions of men?

Q. What are the special creatures made preserved and governed by the Lord?

A. Angels and men, Heb. 2. 7. Col. 1. 16.

Expos. * Q. What are the Angels?

Q. What are the kindes of angels?

A. Good and bad.

Q. What are the good angels?

A. The angels that abode in the truth are excellent, Job 8.44. Eph. 1. 20, 21. and 3.10.

Q. In what respects are they excellent?

Q. In what respects are angels and men most excellent creatures?

A. Angels and men are most excellent creatures in respect of their (1) Natures. (2) Gifts, Psal. 8.5. (3) And why they were created, Psal. 103. 20. Psal. 95.6.

Q. What was the state of man by creation?

A. Mar
With an exposition upon the same.

A. Marvelously holy, and happy, Eccl. 7. 29, or 31.

Expos. Q. What was man's holiness?

A. The whole man was made conformable to the will of God.

Q. What be the parts thereof?

A. 1. Man was made free from all impurity and sin. 2. And he was endued with all perfect righteousness.

Q. Was the righteousness of man every way perfect?

A. It was perfect, befitting such a creature.

Q. Why say you that man was holy?

A. Because he was created after the Image of God, in knowledge, righteousness, and true holiness, Gen. 1. 26. Col. 3. 10. Eph. 4. 23, 24.

Expos. Q. What is the Image of God?

A. The Image or similitude of God (for these two are one, Gen. 1. 26. with Gen. 5. 3. James 3. 9. 1 Cor. 15. 49. Col. 3. 10.) is a lively resemblance of God one in essence, Gen. 1. 27.

Q. How doth man resemble God?

A. Man doth resemble God, not in respect respect of his body, nor chiefly in respect of the immortal and spiritual substance of the soul, endued with reason and will: but in respect of the graces which God bestowed upon the soul, Eph. 4. 23, 24. Col. 3. 10.

Q. Is not the whole man said to be made after the image of God?
A. By reason of the union of the soul and body; the whole man is said to be made in the image of God, Gen. 9. 6.

Q. How did man resemble God in knowledge?
A. As God knows himself, John 8. 55. 1 Cor. 2. 10. and all things besides, Job. 16. 30. so man did know God, Rom. 1. 19, 20. his will, Rom. 2. 15. and works, Gen. 2. 20, 23. his own happiness in God, and his own present estate.

Q. In what manner did man know those things?

Q. What things did man know?
A. A man did know, 1. God. 2. His will. 3. His works. 4. His own happiness in God. 5. And his own present estate.

Q. Did man know his future estate?
A. No.
With an exposition upon the same.

A. No: He was ignorant of the future.

Q. How did man resemble God in holiness?

|| A. As God willeth himself as the chief good, Isaiah 42. 8. and can will nothing but what is good; so man will was able to choose God and all good, and to do what was required, 1 Chron. 28. 6. and 29. 9.

Q. What good was man able to choose?

A. Man was able to choose (1) God. (2) All good.

Q. What are the properties of willing?

A. Two: (1) Choice or Election, (2) Prosecution.

Q. How was man able to choose good?

A. Man was ready to choose good, (1) Freely, (2) Readily, (3) Orderly.

Q. What was the sanctification of his affections?

A. His affections were, (1) Subject to the rule of perfect reason: (2) Duly and with an holy moderation carried unto that which is good.

Q. What good were the affections carried unto?

A. They were carried unto all good respecting

Tit. 2.5,12. 1 Tim. 3.2. Mat. 22.37,38, 39. Deut. 6. 5.

Q. Wherein did man's happiness consist?

A. In the enjoying of || sweet peace and communion with the Lord, w Gen. 1. 29.

Expos. || Q. What were the acts of this communion on God's part?

A. God did (1) Love. (2) Favor. (3) And accept of man.

Q. What were the acts on man's part?

A. Man did 1. Behold. 2. Rejoyce. 3. And rest in the Lord with full delight.

Q. What further privileges did man enjoy in his estate of innocency?

A. He was placed in x Paradise, had liberty to eat y of every Tree in the Garden, except the Tree of † knowledge of good and evil, and was made a ruler of all earthly creatures, x Gen. 2.15. y Gen. 2.16. Gen. 2. 17. a Gen. 2. 19. Psal. 8. 6.

Expos. † Q. Why was it called the tree of good and evil?

A. The event of man's eating or forbearing of that fruit, did give the name
Q. Why so?
A. Because if man did obey, he should be happy, having experience of good: if he did eat thereof, he by experience should know what good he lost thereby, and what misery he brought upon himself.

Q. Were these things bestowed upon man that he might live as he list?
A. No: but that he might serve the Lord his Maker, who therefore gave man a law, binding him always to perfect obedience, and a special commandment to try him, b Rev. 4. 11. Psal. 95. 6. Rom. 2. 14.

Expos. || Q. In what respects was man bound to God in dutiful obedience?
A. 1. God being the Creator of man, Psal. 100. 3. and in that respect his supreme and absolute sovereign. 2. Having bestowed so great gifts, and main liberties upon man freely, might upon his own will and pleasure require at the hands of man, what obedience soever he had, or would enable him to perform, Deut. 11. 31, 32. Jer. 27. 5.

Q. In what respects might God try man's obedience by a special commandment?
A. God
A. God might injoy him to manifeft his loyalty and humility, by abstaining from some act in itself indifferent, for no other reason, but because he was so commanded, Dan. 4: 32, 35. Psalm 115: 3.

Q. What was that special commandment?

A. Of the Tree of knowledge of good and evil thou shalt not eat, for in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt die the death, Gen. 2: 17.

Q. Death we hear was threatened if he did disobey; what promise was made to encourage him to this duty?

A. The continuance e both of himself and his posterity in that good estate, Gen. 2: 9.

Expos. Q. How was man assured of continuance in that good estate if he should obey?

A. The Tree of Life seems to be a sign and seal of the continuance of his happiness, if he had obeyed, Genesis 3: 22, 23, 24. Proverbs 3: 18. Apoc. 2: 7.

Q. Why should that posterity have continued in that estate?

A. (1) Because all mankind was created created good in Adam, Eccles. 7. 31. Rom. 5. 12. 1 Cor. 15. 22. as other creatures were in their kinde, Gen. 1. 31. And (2) God did enter into covenant with our first Parents, Gen. 2. 17. as they were the root of all their posterity: so that what they had actually promised to them, we had promised to us also in them.
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. Did man continue in that good estate?

A. No: but he fell from God through the enticements of Satan, 1 Tim. 2. 14.

Expos. || How could man fall from God being created good?

A. Because though man was created good, yet he was mutable, so that he might fall, Genesis 2. 17. Eccles. 7. 31.

Q. Why did not God uphold him, but suffer him to fall?

A. God, 1. Not being bound to uphold him, Rom. 11. 35. Gen. 17. 1. did suffer him to fall: 2. Knowing how to order the same for the setting forth of his glory, Prov. 16. 4.

Q. Did not God know that man would transgress?

A. God
A short Catechism.

A. God knew before that man would transgress, Acts 15.18. Psal. 139.2. yet was he not therefore to forbear to give man a most wise, just, and easie precept, whereby he would shew forth his Soveraignty over man; 1 Sam. 15. 3, 9.

Q. How did he fall?

A. By sinning wilfully against God transgressing his law, 2 Eccl. 7. 29. or 31. Rom. 5. 12. 1 Joh. 3.

Expos. † Q. What was the principal outward cause of man's fall?

A. Satan was the principal outward cause of the sin of man, Gen. 3. 1. John 8. 44. Apoc. 12. 9.

Q. What moved Satan to tempt him?

A. His envy, 1. At the glory of God. 2. And the salvation of man.

Q. What instrument used he?

A. He did use the Serpent as his instrument to seduce the woman, Gen. 3. 1. 2 Cor. 11. 3. and the help of the woman to seduce the man, Gen. 3. 6.

Q. Was not the quality of the fruit a cause of man's fall?

A. The quality of the fruit, by accident was a cause to move them to eat thereof, Gen. 3. 6.
Q. Was not the Law of God a cause of man's sin?
A. No, but the just and good Law of God, forbidding that sin, may be said to be an occasion of the sin, as it did forbid an act in itself indifferent, that man could not commit it without sin.

Q. What was the principal inward cause of man's fall?
A. The principal inward cause of man's fall, was his own free-will, freely and voluntarily transgressing God's commandment.

Q. Had man liberty to observe the Law?
A. He might and ought to have obeyed, but would not, Gen. 2. 7, 17. and 3. 23, 24. Romans 5. 19. Eccles. 7. 31.

Q. What was the sin he did commit?
A. The eating of the forbidden fruit, Gen. 3. 6.

Expos. || Q. The tree of knowledge was good by nature, how could it be sin to eat thereof?
A. The tree of knowledge in itself was good, Gen. 1. 11, 12. 1 Tim. 4. 4. Gen. 3. 6. but the fruit thereof unlawful, to be eaten, because God had forbidden it to be eaten, I John 3:4. Genesis 2:17.

Q. Was this sin of Adam great or small?

A. This sin of Adam was exceeding great.

Q. In what respects was it so hainous?

A. 1. Because it was the breach of so easie a commandment, Genesis 1:29, with Genesis 2:17. 2. That Commandment God had given for the trial of his obedience. 3. It was committed by him that had received great favours from God, Genesis 1:26, 27, 28, &c. and 4. That in Paradise, Genesis 3:6, 23. 5. Also it was accompanied with an heap of other sins.

Q. What be they?

Q. Did all mankind sin in Adam?

A. Yes, I say we were all in his loynes, Romans 5:12. 1 Corinthians 15:22. Hebrews 7:9, 10.

Expos. Q. How may it be proved that all mankind sinned in Adam?
With an exposition upon the same.

A. Adam was not a private person, but the common parent of us all, and therefore as he received integrity for himself and us, so he lost it for himself and us.

Q. What is the state of all men by reason of Adams fall?

A. They are dead in sin, and bondslaves of Satan, k Eph. 2.1,2.

Expos. || Q. What is it to be dead in sin?

A. To be dead in sin, is to be utterly deprived of all life of grace, Eph. 2.2,3. so that we can move to nothing of our selves, that is truly acceptable in the sight of God.

Q. What is it to be a bondslave to Satan?

A. To be bondslaves to Satan is to be under the power and dominion of the Devil, so that we do, and cannot but do his will and command, 2 Tim. 2.25,26. Acts 26.18. 2 Cor. 4.4.

Q. How doth that appear?

A. In that they are altogether unable to good: and prove men to evil continually, 1 2 Cor. 3.5. mGen. 8.21.

Expos.
Expof. || Q. How is man defiled with sin?

A. Every faculty of soul and member of body, is defiled with sin, 1 Thes. 5.23. Rom. 5.6.

Qu. What are the faculties of the soul?

A. 1. The minde, 2. The memory, 3. The conscience, 4. The will, 5. The affections.

Q. How is the minde defiled?

Q. How is the memory defiled?

Memorie. Answ. The memory is (1) Feeble, (2) Apt to forget good, Luk. 24.6 7,8. (3) To remember evil; but neither good nor evil as it ought, Mat. 27.63. with Mat. 26.75. Deut. 8.10,11,19. Heb. 13.2. 2 Pet. 3.5.

Q. How is the conscience defiled?

An. The conscience is (1) Impure, Tit.
With an exposition upon the same. 101

Q. How is the will defiled?

Q. How are the affections defiled?
A. The affections are (1) Unruly, 5. Affection and (2) Disordered, Galathians 5. 24. Rom. 10. 2. 1 Kings 22. 8. and 21. 4. Lam. 4.1,2,5.

Q. How are the members of the body defiled?
A. The members of the body are tools to execute sin conceived, Rom. 6.13,19. and 3. 13. Psal. 52. 4. 2 Pet. 2. 14. and instruments to stir up sin in the soul, Genesis 3. 6. and 6. 2. 2 Sam.
A Short Catechism.

Qu. Is this proneness to sin ever present?

A. This proneness to sin is ever present, Jer.7.9. Gen.6.5, even then when the operations cease.

Q. How then doth a man finde himself less prone to one sin then to another?

Quest. Doth this corruption cause a proneness to all sin?

A. This corruption causeth an aptitude to every sin, if it be not hindered.

Q. What fruits do proceed from this original corruption?

Expos. \(\dagger\) Q. What are the thoughts of natural men?

Q. What are his words and actions?

Q. Are all the actions of natural men evil continually?

Answ. Pea: || for they p fail in many things, and as they come from them they are odious unto God, p Matt. 12. 35. q Proverbs 28. 9.

Expos. || Q. Can a natural man do no act that is good?

A. A man by nature may do an act that is good for the substance thereof, Dan. 4. 27. Rom. 2. 15. but never that which is truly and spiritually good, Mut. 7. 18. Jer. 13. 23. Rom. 3. 10. Pro. 15. 8. & 21. 27.

Q. Why so?

An. (1) Because his person is not accepted, Genesis 4. 4. 1 Pet. 2. 5. nor (2) Sanctified, and (3) So the good acts he doth, proceed not from 1. A good root, viz. Faith and the spirit of sanctification, 1 Tim. 1. 5. neither is it done in 2. A right manner, James 4. 3. nor 3. To a lawful end, viz. The glory of God, 1 Cor. 10. 31. Col. 3. 17. all which are required to the being of a good act.

Q. What things are required to a good act?

A. 1.
With an exposition upon the same. 105

Q. What punishments are due unto man by reason of these sins?

A. All woe and misery, temporal, spiritual, and eternal, 1 Lam. 3.39. Rom. 6.23. Gal. 3.10.

Expos. * Q. Why doth sin deserve death with all miseries accompanying the same?

A. 1. Because the least sin is a very vile breach of God's most holy Law, 1 Joh. 3.4. Deut. 27. 26. and so 2. An hainous offence against his infinite majesty, Psal. 51.4. 3. Also of its own nature it is always joined with impenitency, Acts 5.31. and 17.30. and therefore doth deserve death with all miseries accompanying the same.

Q. Which are the temporal miseries?

Q. What are the spiritual miseries?

A. 1. Blindness of mind, 2. The spirit of sloth, and 3. God's...

y Mat.27.3,4,5. z Exod.7.3. a Rom. 1.28. b 2 Thess.2.11.

Expos. || Q. What is it to be blind in mind?

A. To be blinde in minde is to be utterly destitute 1. Of the true knowledge of God, and 2. Of the life to come, and to be hastening to endless woes, and yet not understand it.

Q. What is the spirit of slumber?

† A. The spirit of slumber, is that which through a vain persuasion of a mans good and safe estate, lulleth him asleep in security, Deut. 29.19.

Q. What is horror of conscience?

* A. Horror of conscience, is when the conscience awakened, filleth the soul 1. With deep doubts, 2. With hellish and unrecoverable desperation, and 3. With remediless fears of everlasting damnation, Rev. 6.16,17.

Q. What is hardness of heart?

† A. Hardness of heart is a fearful judgement of God, whereby the heart (1) Is past all feeling and remorse, (2) Shut
With an exposition upon the same. 107

(2) Shut fast up, that neither the Word nor Works of God can kindly work upon it, Esaie 48. 4. Zach. 7. 11, 12.

Q. What is a reprobate fence?
* A. A reprobate fence or minde, is a minde destitute of judgement, and void of common reason.

Q. Wherein doth it specially stand?
Ans. 1. In taking evil for good, and good for evil; 2. Neither fearing God, nor reverencing man; 3. Regarding neither right nor wrong, Luk. 18. 4.

Q. What are strong delusions?
|| A. Strong delusions are when men are given over to take pleasure in believing lies, and idle fancies of vain heads.

Q. What may be added to these?
A. To these we may add, 1. Phrensie, 2. Madness, Deut. 28. 28. and 3. To be given over to vile affections.

Q. How are men given over to vile affections?
A. God withdrawing from men his grace, and in his secret, but just and dreadful judgement; giving them over to most fordid and loathsome, unnatural and inordinate lusts, Psalme 81. 12. Gen. 19. 5.

Q. Which
A Short Catechism.

Q. Which is the eternal misery?

A. Everlasting damnation, Rom. 6.23.

Expos. Q. Wherein doth this damnation consist?

A. (1) In an everlasting separation of soul and body, from the comfortable presence of God, Mat. 7.23. Rev. 22.15. and (2) An enduring of 1. Easelse, 2. Endless, 3. Remediless tortures with the Devil and his Angels, Matth. 25.41. Rev. 20.15. Luk. 16.24, 25.

Q. After a man doth know his misery, what must he learn in the next place?

Ans. The true means how he may escape the foresaid misery, and be restored to happiness, Acts 2.37. e Acts 16.30.

Expos. Q. Hath God prescribed means for the recovery of all creatures that fell?

A. No: God in justice passed by the Angels, who fell without the enticement of any other, 2 Pet. 2.4. Jude 6. Mat. 25.41.

Q. What moved the Lord to prescribe means for man's recovery?

Ans. God of his infinite love, free grace and mercy, Esa 43. 25. Ier. 31. 3. Hos.
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. What then are the parts of this recovery?

Q. By what means may we escape this misery and recover happiness?

Expos. Q. Why was it necessary that such means should be prescribed?

Q. For what end was the means prescribed?

A. 1. To satisfy Gods justice, Col. 1.20. and 2. To make way for mercy, Psal. 145.9.

Q. Who found out this means?

A. God in his infinite wisdom found out a means, Gen. 3.15.

Q. What
Q. What was that means?
A. Jesus Christ.

Q. Who laid this office upon Christ?
A. The Father laid this office of Reconciliation upon him, Psalm 40. 6, 7 Hebr. 5. 5. John 3. 17. and 5. 36,37.

Q. Christ was innocent, how then could this office be laid on him?
A. He willingly undertook it, Hebr. 10.7,9. and did faithfully discharge it, Hebr.10.5,6,7.

Q. What is Jesus Christ?
A. The eternal Son of God, who in time became man for his elect, Gal. 4.4,5.

Expos. || Q. Why did the Son of God become man?
A. The Son of God by nature became the Son of man: 1. That he might make us the Sons of God by adoption, who were by nature the children of wrath, Eph.2.3.

Q. How many things are we to consider in Christ?

Q. What is his person?
A. It is both God and man, united together into one person, John 1:14. 1 Tim. 7:14. Romans 9:5. Cor. 8:6.

Expos. Q. Why say you that Christ is God and Man?

Q. How are these two natures united?

Q. Are there not then many Christs?
A. No, there is but one Christ, not many Christs, Cor. 8:6. Tim. 2:5.

Q. Why so?
A. Be-
A. Because the Godhead did assume the humane nature to itself, Philip.2.7. Heb.2.16. so that the manhood subsisteth in the Godhead, Matth.3.17. & 17.5. and they are so inseparably united, that the self-same person which is God is also man, John.3.13. Eph.4.10.

Q. Being God before all time, how could he be made man?

A. He was born conceived by the holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, according to the prophets, Luke 1.35. Gen. 3.15. Esa. 7.14. and 11.1.

Expos. * Qu. What is Christ's conception?

Q. What are the properties of his conception?

A. It was 1. Miraculous, 2. Supernatural.

Qu. By what power was his humane nature formed?

A. By the power of the holy Ghost, Matt. 1.18,20. who did perfectly sanctifie it in the very first moment of conception.
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. What things are to be considered in the conception of Christ?
A. Two. 1. The forming of his humane nature. 2. The sanctifying of it, and that 1. Both perfectly. 2. In the very first moment of conception.

Q. Why was Christ conceived by the holy Ghost?
A. That he might be pure, without sin, wherewith all are stained, who are conceived after the ordinary manner, p Luk. i. 35. q Joh. 3. 6.

Q. Why was he God?
A. 1. That he might bear the weight of God's wrath without sinking under it. 2. Overcome death. 3. be the head of the Church. 4. Repair his Image in us. 5. Conquer the enemies of our salvation, and defend us against them.

Expos. || Q. Why was it necessary that the Head of the Church should be God?
A. (1) Because the dignity of being head of the Church is so great, that it cannot agree to any other man, Eph. 1. 21. Phil. 2. 9, 10, 11. Heb. 1. 6.
(2) Because the offices of an Head, and the benefits thereof, he that is man onely only cannot bestow upon the Church.

Q. What are the offices of the Head?

A. The offices of the Head, are

1. To give the power of life, feeling, and moving, to the body, Joh. 1:4, Rom. 8:2.

2. To direct by his power, the inward and outward functions of the body, Eph. 5:23, 24.

Q. Why was he man?

A. 1. That he might suffer death for us.

2. Sanctifie our nature.

3. And we might have access with boldness to the throne of grace, Heb. 2:14.

Expos. Q. Why was it necessary that Christ should be man that he might suffer?

A. (1) The divine nature could not suffer, Jas. 1:17, Mal. 3:6, Rom. 9:5.

And without shedding of blood there could be no remission of sins, Heb. 9:22.

Christ therefore took our nature that he might suffer death, Phil. 2:7,8.

(2) It being no waies meet, that one having no special communion with another, should endure punishment for another's fault, Heb. 2:16, 17.
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. How doth Christ as man sanctifie our nature?

A. Fulnesse of all graces above measure, were poured into the humane nature of Christ our Saviour, Matth. 3.16. John 1.16. & 3.34. Col. 2.9. & 1. 19. and we being united to him, and having communion with him, do receive in measure of his fulnesse, Eph. 4.7, 16.

Q. How is fulnesse of grace in Christ?

A. 1. All graces. 2. Above measure are in Christ.

Q. How are we partakers of Christ's fulnesse?

A. By being united to him, and having communion with him.

Q. What is his office?

A. To be a Mediatour to reconcile God and man, 1 Tim. 2.5.

Expos. Q. What is a Mediatour?

A. A Mediatour or an Advocate, is a third person that takes upon him to agree and reconcile two that be at variance, as Christ being both God & man, did set at one God and man, Eph. 1.10. Col. 1.20. 1 John 2.1. who before were separated by sin, Essay 59.2. Jer. 5.25.

Q. Is Christ our Mediatour as man only?

A. No
A short Catechism.

A. No, but Christ is our Mediator both as God and man, John 1. 26-34. & 3. 14,16. Rom. 3. 8. 1 John 1. 7. Phil. 2. 6.

Q. How may that be proved?
A. (1) Because in the work of our redemption he performed many divine works, Heb. 2. 14. John 10. 18.

(2) As Mediatour, he is the King and Head of his Church, Luke 1. 33. Joh. 3. 35. Act. 2. 36. Phil. 2. 10,11. Mat. 28. 18, Heb. 1. 6. & 2. 7.

(3) And the special offices of Christ our Mediatour, do necessarily require, that the divine and humane nature joyntly do concur in the execution of them, John 1. 18. Mat. 11. 27. John 3. 12,13. 2 Cor. 5. 18,19,20. Rom. 5. 10,11. Heb. 9. 14. & 7. 25.

Q. Is this office peculiar to Christ?

Q. When was Christ given to be a Mediatour?
A.
With an exposition upon the same. 117

A. (1) In the degree of God Christ was a Mediatour from eternity, Eph. 1. 5, 6.

(2) In the vertue and efficacie of his mediation, he was given to be a Mediatour, so soon as necessity required, Rev. 13. 8. Gen. 3. 15.

(3) In the fulnesse of time, he was manifested in the flesh, Gal. 4. 4, 5.

Q. How did he reconcile God and man?

A. Wt. by his fulfilling || the law, 2. And by his || x sufferings, w Mat. 3. 15. x Heb. 9. 15. Rom. 5. 10, 11.

Expos. || Q. Why was it necessary that Christ should fulfill the law?

A. It became him who was our faithfull high Priest to fulfill all righteounnesse.

Q. Why was it necessary that Christ should suffer?

† A. 1. The justice of God must be satisfied, and the debt of sin must be paid, before God, who is true, just, and unchangeable, could be pleased with us, 1 Joh. 2. 2. Heb. 9. 14, 15. 1 Pet. 1. 18, 19. Rev. 1. 5.

Q. What understand you by his sufferings?
A Short Catechism.

A. His voluntary humiliation both in soul and body, his a crucifying death, burial, and abiding under the dominion of death for a time, y Phil. 2. 5, 6, 7, 8. z Esay 53. 10. Mat. 26. 38. Heb. 9. 14. a Luke 23. 33. b 1 Cor. 15. 3, 4. c Acts 2. 27.

Expos. * Q. How may it be proved that Christ did suffer in soul?

Q. || What was the death of Christ?

A. The death of Christ was the separation of the soul and body, Matth. 27. 50. Luk. 23. 46.
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. Was the soul or body of Christ separated from his Godhead?

A. No, but they both continued still united to the Godhead, Matth. i. 23, Job. i. 14. 1 Pet. iii. 18. 1 Cor. ii. 8.

Q. Why was it necessary that Christ should die?

Q. What difference may be observed betwixt the death of Christ, and of the Martyrs?

A. Betwixt the death and suffering of Christ and of the Martyrs, we may observe these differences.
1. Christ his passion was an accursed punishment, Gal. 3. 13. The sufferings of the Martyrs and holy men, are only chastisements or trials.

2. Christ's passion was a meritorious sacrifice, Heb. 9. 14. The passions of the Martyrs are of no value to merit anything, Rom. 8. 18.

3. Christ bore all the Martyrs sufferings, and that in his own strength, but the Martyrs bore not others sufferings, nor were left to their own strength in bearing their own; and therefore they were not forsaken, though they were not delivered out of the hands of their persecutors.

Q. How was the punishment of the Elect laid upon Christ?

A. As the sins of the Elect were laid upon Christ, Lev. 16. 21. Esay 53 11. Heb. 9. 28. so was the punishment of their sin for substance and kind, though not for circumstance of place or continuance, Heb. 4. 15.

Q. Did Christ suffer every particular punishment that every particular sinner meeteth withal?

A. He suffered both in soul and body the wrath of God, which was due
With an exposition upon the same.

due unto us for sin, though he suffered not every particular punishment of sin, which every particular sinner meeteth withall, Rom. 5. 19. Heb. 10. 14.

Q. What is the fourth difference betwixt the sufferings of Christ and the Martyrs?

A. 4. Christ was in himself pure and innocent, but he suffered for our sins, 2 Cor. 5. 21. The Martyrs were not free from sin, neither did they suffer for the expiation of sin.

Q. * How long did Christ remain under the dominion of death?

A. Untill the third day death had power and dominion over Christ, for so long death kept asunder soul and body, Luke 24. 7. Matth. 17. 23. Acts 10. 40,

Q. Did Christ alwaies abide under the power and dominion of death?

A. No, for the power of death being y subdued, the third day he rose again, aascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of the Father, Acts 2. 31. 2 Cor. 15. 4. a Mark 16. 19.

Expos. || Q. What is the resurrection of Christ?

A.
A short Catechism.

A. The resurrextion of Christ is the first degree of his exaltation.

Q. What are the parts of this resurrection?

A. 1. His soul was joined to the same flesh that died. 2. He was raised up to life, 1 Cor. 15. 4.

Q. Why was it necessary that Christ should rise again?

A. It was necessary that Christ should rise again, (1) In regard of the excellency of his person, Acts 2. 24. (2) In regard of the Covenant which he had made with the Father, Psalm 2. 6, 7. Isaiah 53. 10. (3) In regard of the dignity of his high office of eternal mediation, Psalm 110. 6, 7. Romans 4. 25. (4) And that the truth of those things, which were foretold concerning the glory of the Messiah, might be fulfilled.

Q. By what power did he rise again?

Q. Did he rise as a private or a public person?

A. He arose, not as a private, but as a public...

since his ascension into heaven?
A. After his ascension our Saviour doth doth teach his Church by his Apostles and Ministers, Eph. 4. 11, 12. Acts 10. 41, 42.

Q. How were the Apostles prepared for this office?

A. The Apostles being (1) fully and perfectly instructed by Christ himself, in those things which concern the Kingdom of God, Acts 1, 3. John 15, 15. & 17, 8. (2) and extraordinarily furnished with gifts. (3) And infallibly assisted by the Spirit; Acts 2. 3, 4. John 14, 26. & 16, 13. were sent forth to preach.

Q. What did the Apostles preach?

A. The whole counsel of God, so far as concerns man, and the means of his salvation, Acts 20, 27. Mat. 28, 20. 1 Cor. 2, 9, 10, 11. 1 John 1, 3. Rom. 1, 16.

Q. To whom were they sent to preach?

A. Unto all Nations, Mat. 28, 18, 19. Mar. 16, 15.

Q. How did they confirm their doctrine?

A. Their doctrine they confirmed (1) Both by the Prophets of the old Testament, Acts 26, 22. & 28, 23. 2 Pet. 1, 18, 19. (2) And by divers signs and wonders.
With an exposition upon the same. 129 wonders which God wrought by them, Heb. 2.3,4. Mark 16.20.

Q. How doth Christ teach his Church since the death of his Apostles?
A. In the daies, and since the death of the Apostles, our Saviour doth execute his Prophetic office by his ordinary Ministers, whom he hath commanded us to hear.

Q. How far are we to hear them?
A. So long as they preach according to the Scriptures, Ephes. 4. 11,12. Luke 10.16.

Q. What difference is there betwixt the Ministry of Christ and his Ministers?
A. Christ is the Author of the Doctrine which he taught, Ministers are the Instruments of Christ, to teach, not their own, but his doctrine, 2 Cor. 5.20. Job 33.23.

Q. What is the fruit of this office of Christ?
A. The fruit of this office is, (1) The restoring of knowledge decayed in the first fall of man. 2. And the manifestation of divine mysteries unknown to the world, Rom. 16.25,26. Ephes. 3.2. Col.1.26,27.
A short Catechism.

Q. Why was Christ a Priest?
A. To purchase for us righteousness and life eternal, Heb. 5.9. Expol. Qu. Is Christ our high Priest after the order of Aaron?
A. Christ is our high Priest, not after the order of Aaron, but after the order of Melchisedec, Psal. 110.4.

Q. What difference is there betwixt the Priesthood of Aaron and of Christ?
A. The differences are these, (1) In the person. (2) In consecration. (3) In the Priesthood. (4) In the Sacrifice. (5) In the place whither they entered. (6) Aaron was a Priest only, Christ is both King and Priest. (7) Aaron was a Minister, but Christ is the Author.

Q. How do they differ in person?
A. Aaron was (1) Of the tribe of Levi, Heb. 7.4. but Christ of the tribe of Juda, Heb. 7.14. (2) His stock and lineage was known, Exod. 6.16, 18, 20, but Christ was without father, touching his humanity; without mother, touching his Deity, Heb. 7.3. (3) He was compassed with infirmities, and was immortal, but Christ immortal, and continuing for ever. (4) Aaron was a sinner, and had need to offer for himself, himself, and for his own sins, Heb. 7. 28. & 5. 2, 3, 4, & 9. 7. But Christ was holy, harmless, undefiled, having no need to offer for himself, but offered himself for the people onely, Heb. 7. 25, 26, 27.
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. How do they differ in consecration?
A. (1) Material oil was poured upon Aaron at his consecration, Lev. 8. 12. but Christ was anointed with the holy Ghost, Acts 10. 38. (2) Aaron was instituted without an oath, but Christ with an oath, Heb. 7. 20, 21, 28. Psal. 110. 4.

Q. How do they differ in the Priesthood?
A. (1) The Priesthood of Aaron was typicall, Hebr. 10. 2, 3. but the Priesthood of Christ is true and real, containing the very Image and body of things themselves. (2) The Priesthood of Aaron was not available to take away sin, Hebr. 9. 14, 15. But Christ's Priesthood was perfect to abolish sin, and to obtain eternal redemption, Heb. 10. 1, 5, 11. Heb. 9. 12, 14. (3) The Levitical Priesthood was to be abrogated, Heb. 8. 13. but Christ's Priesthood is to continue for ever, Hebr. 7. 24. (4) Aaron died and had successors.
Q. How do they differ in the Sacrifice?

A. Aaron and his successors (1) offered the bodies and blood of beasts, Heb. 9.12,14. but Christ himself is both the Priest and Sacrifice, Eph. 5.25. Heb. 9.26. and 10.10. (2) They offered oftentimes one manner of Sacrifice, but Christ hath offered himself once for all, Heb. 7.27. and 9.25,26. and 10.12,14. 1 Pet. 3.18.

Q. How do they differ in the place whither they entered?

5. In the place whither they entered.

A. Aaron and his successors entred into the Tabernacle made with hands, Heb. 8.5. & 9.6. but Christ is entred into the very heavens, Hebr. 9.11,24. and 4.14.

Q. How else do Christ and Aaron differ?

A. Moreover Aaron and his successors were priests only, but Christ is both King and priest, Hebr. 7.1,2. (2) Aaron and his successors were but Ministers
With an exposition upon the same. 133

Ministers, but Christ is the Author of salvation, Heb. 5. 9.

Q. What doth all this shew?
A. All this doth shew, (1) The absoluteness. (2) The perfection. (3) And the excellency of Christ his priesthood.

Q. What are the functions of his Priestly-office?
A. Offering up himself a sacrifice once for all, and making request for us, Heb. 5. 1. and 9. 26. and 7. 25.

Expos. || Q. Who offered up himself?

Q. What was the Sacrifice that he offered?
A. He offered up his soul and body, as a sweet smelling sacrifice to the Father, Eph. 5. 2. whereby he was consecrated, and did enter into Heaven, presenting himself before the Father for us, Heb. 9. 24. and 10. 20.

Q. How often is this sacrifice offered?
A. Once for all, Heb. 10. 12.

Q. What be the parts of this oblation?
A. Two
A short Catechism.

A. Two: (1) Expiatory. (2) Presentatory.

Q. What is Christ's intercession?
   A. Christ's intercession is his most gracious will, frequently and unmoveably desiring, that all his Members for the perpetual virtue of his Sacrifice, may be accepted of the Father, Rom. 8. 34.

Q. What are the properties of his intercession?
   A. It is, 1. Universal and Particular. 2. Heavenly and Glorious. 3. Ever effectual. 4. No way reciprocal. 5. And tended onely for the virtue of his sacrifice.

Isaiah 33. 22. by his word and spirit, for their salvation and glory of God.

Q. What are the properties of Christ's dominion?

A. It is, 1. Spiritual. 2. Eternal. 3. Absolute.

Q. Who appointed him to this office?

A. God the Father.

Q. What is the dominion whereunto he is appointed?

A. To be Lord of all things in Heaven and earth, and peculiarly King, and Head of his Church.

Q. What are the Functions of his Kingly office?

A. Two, 1. In respect of his Enemies. 2. In respect of his Elect.

Q. What in respect of his Enemies?

A. He doth confound and destroy all his enemies.
Q. What in respect of his Elect?
A. He doth gather and govern his Elect.

Q. How doth he gather and govern his Elect?
A. By his word and spirit.

Q. For what end?
A. For their salvation and the glory of God, Isaiah 32. 15. and 59. 21.

Q. Who are the enemies of Christ?
A. The enemies of Christ, are 1. Satan and all his Angels. 2. And all their works.

Q. What are the works of Satan?
A. 1. Sin. 2. And death, Gen. 3. 15. Eph. 2. 2. 2 Cor. 4. 4. 2 Cor. 6. 15.

Q. Who else are Christ's Enemies?
A. All wicked men who be the Instruments of Satan, John 8. 44. 1 John 3. 8.

Q. Among wicked men, who is the chief enemy of Christ?
A. The Antichrist of Rome is chief, 2 Thess. 2. 3.

Q. How doth Christ subdue these Enemies?
A. These enemies Christ hath already overcome in his own person, Eph.
Q. How doth he bridle and repress them daily in respect of his Members?
A. He doth daily bridle and repress them, 1. By his wisdom. 2. Power. 3. Word. 4. And spirit, Luke 10.18,19, and 2.34 Rev.12.5. and 2.27. 2 Cor. 10.4,5.

Q. When will ye perfectly subdue them in respect of his members?
A. He will perfectly subdue them at the day of Judgement, 1 Corin. 15.25.

Q. How will he subdue them?
A. He will subdue them, 1. By adjudging some: 2. By abolishing others.

Q. Whom will he adjudge?
A. He will adjudge the Devil and all his partakers to eternal condemnation, Mat. 25.46.

Q. Whom will he utterly abolish?
A. He will abolish sin and death, 1 Cor. 15.26.

Q. What is further to be noted in the execution of his Kingly office, in respect of his enemies?
A. Further it is to be noted, That Christ as a Mediator in the execution

Q. What are the functions of his Kingly office in respect of his elect?

A. Two, 1. Vocation. 2. Government.

Q. What is Vocation?

† A. Vocation is that whereby Christ doth not only by his word call his Elect to Faith, Repentance, and the participation of the Covenant of Grace, Mark 1. 14, 15. Matth. 11. 28. but he doth effectually move them by his Spirit to repent and believe, Psal. 110.

3. 2 Thess. 2. 13, 14. Eph. 3. 16, 17.

Q. Which be the parts of it?

A. Two, 1. Outward. 2. Inward.

Q. What
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. What is outward vocation?
A. It is Christ's calling his Elect by his word, to faith and repentance.

Q. What is the inward vocation?
A. It is Christ's effectual moving his Elect by his Spirit, to repent and believe.

Q. What are the functions of Christ's Kingly office appertaining to the government of his Elect?

A. The functions of Christ's Kingly office appertaining to the government of his Elect are three, (1) The prescription of Laws, according to which his Subjects ought to believe and live.

Q. Wherein stands this, &c.
A. It stands not only in 1. Appointing the faithful by the Ministry of his word to live godly, justly and soberly. 2 But also in writing his Law in their hearts by his holy Spirit, and enabling them by the same Spirit to do in some measure what he requireth. Tit. 2. 11, 12. Jer. 31. 33. Zech. 36. 27. John 1. 16.

Q. What is the second?
A. The communication and bestowing of all good things upon them.
appertaining to this or a better life, so far as he knows it needful or profitable.

Q. What comprehend you under the communication of all good?

Q. What is the third function of Christ's Kingly office in governing his Elect?

A. The receiving of his Elect unto himself, and the giving of eternal life unto them, having pronounced sentence on their side, Matt. 25. 46.

Q. What benefits do we receive by the death and resurrection of Christ?

A. We are redeemed from the guilt, punishment and power of sin, and shall be raised up at the the last day, [Col. 1. 14. m Luke 1. 74. Tit. 2. 14. 1 Cor. 15. 13.]

Exp. || Q. How are we redeemed from the guilt of sin by the death of Christ?

A. 1. Christ hath paid our Debts, and answered whatsoever the Law did require at our hands, [Pet. 2. 21, 24.]
so that the Law hath nothing against us, [Col. 2. 14.]

2. And he laid down his life according to the will of his Father, [John 10. 15.]
so that Christ's death must needs be acceptable, [Eph. 5. 2.]
and consequently we are not bound over to punishment.

Q. How may it be proved that we are delivered from the whole punishment of sin temporal, and eternal by the death of Christ?

being freed from sin, we are not liable to Judgement, [Sam. 12. 13. Jer. 4. 14. Ezech. 18. 32. 2.]
It stands not with the Justice of God, being once fully satisfied, to require a second payment at our hand, [Gen. 18. 25. Matt. 3. 17.]

3. Neither will it stand with his glorious mercy. 4. Nor with the honor of Christ who is a perfect Redeemer, Tit. 2. 14. 5. Nor with the price of his Blood, 1 Cor. 6. 20. 6. Nor with our Faith in praying for full pardon of all our Debts, Matth. 6. 12. 7. Nor with our peace with God, Rom. 5. 1. 8. Nor yet with right reason, that the guilt of sin should be removed, and yet punishment for sin inflicted.

Q. How are we redeemed from the guilt and punishment of sin?

A. God the Father accepting the death of Christ, as a full ransom and satisfaction to his justice, doth freely discharge & acquit us from all our sins, Rom. 3. 24, 25. Col. 1. 14. Eph. 1. 7.

Q. How are we redeemed from the power and tyranny of sin?

A. Christ by his death killeth sin in us, and by his resurrection doth quicken us to newness of life, Rom. 6. 3. 4.

Expof. || Q. How doth the death of Christ kill sin in us?

A. Christ by his death did conquer sin, and the old man in us, is truly said to
With an exposition upon the same.

To be crucified, dead & buried, with the body of Christ, we being grafted into the similitude of His death, Col. 2.12, 20.

Q. How doth Christ's resurrection quicken us to newness of life?

† A. Having communion with Christ in his life, we are raised up to a spiritual life, Rom. 8.11. and have our conversation in heaven, Phil. 3.20.

Q. Is the life of grace perfected in us in this life?

A. No, the life of Grace is, 1. Only begun here. 2. And growth by degrees. 3. Being perfected in Heaven.

Q. What are the benefits of Christ's ascension?

A. 1. The leading of captivity captive. 2. The giving of gifts unto men. 3. The pouring of his spirit upon his people. 4. And preparing a place for them, p Eph. 4. 8, 11. q Acts 2. 16, 17. r John 14. 3.

Q. What are the benefits of his intercession?

A. 1. The persons of the faithful do always remain safe. 2. And their Works acceptable in the sight of God. 3. Hereby also they are defended against the accusation of of all their enemies, 1 Per. 2.5. Gen. 4. 4. Exod. 28. 38.

Q. How will the knowledge of these things work in the heart of him whom God saves?

A. 1. It brings him to a serious consideration of his own estate:
2. To grieve for sin, and the fear of God's displeasure, whereby w
3. The heart is broken and humbled, Jer. 8. 6, 7. Luk. 15. 17. u Acts 2. 37. w Acts 9. 6.

Expos. § Q. When is the heart broken?

A. The heart is broken and humbled, when it is cast down with the sight of sin, Psalm 51. 17. bruised with the weight of God's wrath, and melted away for fear, Psalm 119. 120.
2 Kings 22. 19. knowing that God hath advantage against him, and that he is worthy to be condemned.

Q. What else will this knowledge work?

A. It will bring a man to confess his sin. 5 Highly to prize Christ, and to hunger after him, until he obtain his desire, Luke 15. 18. y Matthew 13. 44.
z Isaiah
With an exposition upon the same.

Expos. || Q. In what manner will this humbled soul confess his sin?
A. He will acknowledge his sins to God. 1. As particularly as he can, 1 Tim. 1. 13. 2. And with sighs and groans for pardon and forgiveness, Rom. 8. 26.

Q. What are the properties of this hungering after Christ?
† A. Hunger after Christ; must be,
1. Fervent, as a thirsty man longeth for drink. 2. And continual, never giving over till the desire be obtained.

Q. What doth accompany this hungering after Christ?
A. With this desire there is always joined. 1. An high prizing of Christ; 2. And an advised willingness to forgo all things for Christ's sake, Phil. 1. 22, 23. with 3. 7, 8.

Q. How are we made partakers of Christ with all his benefits?

Expos. † Q. How may it be proved that we are made partakers of Christ by faith alone on our part?

A short Catechism.

A. 1. By faith alone we are ingraft-ed into Christ, Rom. 11. 20. (2) By faith alone we receive him, John 6. 56. (3) By faith alone we have communication with him, Rev. 3. 20. and so are made partakers of all his benefits, John 3. 36. (4) Also faith is the condition of the Covenant of grace, Acts 16. 31. John 3. 18. Mark 16. 16. John 20. 31. Rom. 4. 3, 5.

Q. What is faith?

Expos. || Q. Why do you not define faith by an assent?
A. Because bare assenting to the truth of God's promises, upon the credit of the revealer, is not true and justifying faith, Mat. 21. 32. John 2. 23. Luke 24. 25. and 8. 13.

Q. When doth the poor soul believe unto justification?
Q. What are the properties of this faith?

Q. Why do you not define Faith to be a full persuasion?

A. Because a full persuasion seems rather an effect of a strong faith, Rom. 4. 21. then the nature of true faith.

Q. Is not joy an individual companion of faith?

A. Joy is a fruit of Faith, 1 Pet. 1. 8. Acts 8. 6, 7, 8. Rom. 5. 3. but not an inseparable companion thereof; a man may have true Faith, and feel little or no comfort, Psalm 22. 1. and 31. 10. and 77. 2.

Q. What is the ground of faith?

Sings, &c. the grounds of faith, together with the promises of God?

A. Temporal blessings, Eccles. 9. 1, 2. Civil virtues, Luke 18. 12, 13, 14. A general notice that Christ will save the elect, Mat. 13. 20, 21. Sense, reason, experience, feeling, Psalm 10. 1. and 51. 12. are not the grounds of faith; but onely the promises.

Q. What is the cause of the promises?

A. God of his grace hath made them unto us in Christ, which ought to be received.

Q. Why ought they to be received?

A. Because God that cannot lie hath spoken them, Tit. 1. 2. 2 Tim. 2. 13.

Q. How is faith wrought in us?

A. Inwardly by the spirit as the Author, outwardly by the preaching of the word, and Catechising, as the instrument thereof, Acts 16. 14. e Rom. 10. 14. Heb. 5. 11, 12. and 6. 1, 2.

Expos. || Q. How may it be proved that faith is the work of the spirit?

A. Because faith is (1) The gift of God, Phil. 1. 29. 2. And a grace supernatural; a man of himself can no
Q. What is Catechising?
   A. Catechising is an instruction of people in the chief grounds of Christian Religion, 1 Corinthians 2. 4. 1 Cor. 3. 1. 1 Pet. 3. 15. Heb. 6. 1, 2. Rom. 6. 17.

Q. What are the properties of it?
   A. It must be, 1. Pure. 2. Plain. 3. Brief. 4. And orderly.

Q. What is the end of Catechising?
   A. 1. That the people may clearly and manifestly see the way unto salvation. 2. That they may know how to make use both of the Law and of the Gospel, for their humiliation and comfort. 3. And understand how one thing dependeth upon another, goeth before, or followeth after.

Q. What are the special benefits of Catechising?
   A. Hereby Christians are enabled (1) To refer that which they read to some head. (2) Readily to apply what they hear to fit purpose. (3) To try it. (4) To have it in readiness in the time of need. (5) To profit by the public lique Ministry, Hebrews 5. 11, 12.
(6) To know how to go forward in godliness, in an holy method. (7) It is profitable to inform the judgement.
(8) To reform the affection. (9) And to quicken to the duties of a godly life.

Q. How doth the word work Faith in us?

A. 1. By shewing us our missery, and the true g means of our recovery. 2. Encouraging us h

Q. How else may the benefits of prayer be conceived?

A. Prayer
A short Catechism.

Q. How must we hear that we may get profit?

A. With reverence, 2. With meekness. 3. † Joy. 4. Longing || desire v to learn. 5. And w giving † credit to the truth, † Isa. 66.2. † Jam. 1. 21. † Mat. 13. 44. u i Pet. 2. 2. w Heb. 4. 1, 2.

Expos. || Q. What is reverence?

A. Reverence is an affection of the heart, arising from an apprehension of God's majesty, and our own vileness.

Q. What are the effects of reverence?

With an exposition upon the same.

Q. What is meekness?
A. Meekness is an affection, whereby we are contented, 1. To bear the rebukes of the Law. 2. And to have the duties of the word to be pressed upon us, 1 Sam. 3. 17. 2 Kings 20. 19. Psalm 25. 9, 12. Heb. 13. 22.

Q. What is joy?
A. Joy is a delight of the soul for some good thing that is present, Acts 8. 8. Exod. 6. 9.

Q. What is a longing desire to learn?
A. A longing desire to learn, is an eager appetite to be further acquainted with the knowledge of the truth, that we may reap fruit and benefit by the same, Prov. 27. 7. Prov. 2. 3, 4, 9. Psal. 119. 34, 35, 40.

Q. What is it to give credit to the truth?
A. To give credit to the truth, is to believe the whole truth and every part of it, as true and certain, both to others and to ourselves, so as we expect the benefit promised therein, and the effecting and making good of whatsoever is there spoken, 2 Chr. 20. 20. Isa. 7, 9.

Q. How
Q. How else?

A. 1. We must meditate of that we hear. 2. Apply it to our selves. 3. Confer of it with others: And 4. with diligence set about the practice of what is required. 1 Sam. 119. 114, 15. 1 John 4. 53. Isa. 2. 3. Luke 2. 51.

Expos. || Q. What is the profit of meditation?

A. Meditation is the very life of reading and hearing. i Tim. 4. 15.

Q. What is meditation on the Word?

A. It is a separation of our selves purposely from other matters, that we may seriously think of what hath been taught. Gen. 24. 63.

Q. What is the end of this meditation upon the Word?

A. 1. That it may be settled in the minde. 2. And work upon the affections. Jer. 8. 6.

Q. What must accompany meditation for the attaining of these ends?

† Q. What is it to apply the Word to our selves?

A. To
With an exposition upon the same. 157

A. To apply the word to our selves, is to lay it to our heart as concerning us; 1 Cor. 11. 28. 2 Cor. 13. 5.

Q. What are the parts of the Word?
A. 1. The Commandments. 2. The Threatnings. 3. The Exhortations; 4. The Promises.

Q. How are the Commandments to be applied?
A. That they may guide us.

Q. How are the threatnings to be applied?
A. 1. That they may humble us for our sins past, 2 Sam. 12. 12, 13. and 24. 10. 2. That they may affright us from sin to come.

Q. How must we apply the exhortations?
A. That they may incite us to our duty with cheerfulness, Eccl. 12. 11.

Q. What use is to be made of the promises?
A. The promises may be, 1. For our support. 2. For our comfort, whether they be in plain speeches, or mystical prophecies, Psal. 119. 71, 72, 52.

Q. How must we confer with others?
A. 1. For instruction. 2. For edification in holiness and comfort.
Q. How for instruction?
A. 1. We must communicate to others what we have learned. 2. And learn of others, 1. What we are ignorant of. 2. Do not well understand. 3. Or have forgotten.

Q. How for edification in holiness and comfort?
A. We must, 1. By admonition. 2. Exhortation. 3. And comfort, help to strengthen and edifie one another, Heb. 3.13. Job 16.4, 5. Rom. 1.11, 12. Levit. 19.17. Prov. 27.5, 6. 1 Thess. 5.11, 14. Jude v. 20.

Q. How must we practise that which is taught?
A. 1. Inwardly we must heartily desire and strive; 2. And outwardly we must be, 1. careful, 2. without delays to take all opportunities of doing the good that God requireth, 2 Chro. 17.6. and 19.3. and 27.6. Luke 8.15.

Q. What must accompany this practise?
A. 1. We must be humbled for negligence and sin past. 2. Watching. 3. And fighting against corruption for the time to come, 1 Corin. 9.26, 27. 4. Che-
With an exposition upon the same. 159

4. Cherishing one another with befitting comforts, Isaiah 40. 1.

Q. What is prayer?

A. It is a calling upon God in the name of Christ with the heart and sometime with the voice according to his will for our selves and others, as Exod. 14. 15. 1 Sam. 13, 15. b 1 John 5. 14.

Expos. Q. What reasons or motives be there to induce us to prayer?

Q. For what ends is it lawful to use the voice in prayer?

A. It is lawful to use the voice in prayer: 1. To quicken our dulness. 2. To inflame our devotion. 3. To prevent rovings. 4. And to edifie our brethren, Zeph. 3. 9. Psalm 88. 1.

Q. To whom must we pray?

A. To God, alone in the name of Christ, c John 6. 23. Colossians 3. 17.

Expos. || Q. Why must we pray to God alone?

A. (1) God onely is every where present, Jer. 23. 23, 24. (2) He knoweth all hearts, 1 Kings 8. 39. Jer. 17. 9, 10. Psalm 94. 9, 10. (3) He heareth all prayers, Neh. 1. 6. Psalm 65. 2. and 66. 19, 20. (4) He is most able to help, Psalm 57. 2. Eph. 3. 20. (5) Prayer is a divine Worship, Psalm 50. 15. and 44. 10, 21. (6) It is a spiritual Sacrifice, 11. 1. 11. Psalm 141. 2. Rev. 8. 4. and 1. 3. Ezek. 22. 20. (7) And in God onely we ought to believe, Job. 14. 1. therefore he onely is to be called upon, Rom. 10. 13, 14. (8) As the very heathen saw by the light of nature, Jonah 1. 5.
Q. What is it to pray in the name of Christ?

† A. To pray in the name of Christ, is, not rudely and customarily to say these words, Through Jesus Christ our Lord, &c. but in the confidence of the merit and intercession of Christ, to call on our heavenly Father, Dan. 9.17.

Q. Why must we pray in the name of Christ?

A. Because since the fall of man,
1. None are called to come to God;
2. Or have promise to speed but in the name of a Mediator, John 14.6. Heb. 4.16. 1 Tim. 2.5. 1 John 2.1. Rom. 8.32. Heb. 7.25. 3. In Christ alone we have access to the throne of Grace, Eph. 2.18. and 3.12.

Q. Do not angels or saints departed, present our prayers unto God?

A. Angels or Saints departed, do not present our prayers before God:
For 1. Christ onely is our Mediator and High Priest. 2. He onely getteth our Prayers acceptance before God, Heb. 1.3. and 4.14. Rev. 8.3. 3. And to present our prayers before God, and to procure them acceptance with God, is in phrase of Scripture all one,
Q. Ought we not in prayer to make particular confession of our sins?

A. Yea, so far 1. As we can come to the knowledge of them.
2. And this we must do e with grief. || 3. Hatred. And * 4. Shame.
5. Freely accusing. And 6. condemning our selves before God, with g broken and contrite hearts, f Neh. 9. 33. g Zach. 12. 10.

Expos. † Q. What sorrow for sin is required?

A. Sorrow for sin must be, 1. Hearty. 2. Continual. 3. And as much as may be particular, Psal 102. 4. especially for the sins which have made great breaches in the soul, Psal 51. 1, 2, 4.
4. Yea, sin should be our chief sorrow:

Q. Why should the soul abhor sin?

|| A. The soul should abhor sin especially for the loathsomeness of it, Psal 97. 10. and 119. 163. Job 42. 6. Amos 5. 15v

Q. How doth the loathsomeness of sin appear?

A. 1. It darkneth Gods glory;
With an exposition upon the same.

Genesis 39. 9. 2. It breaketh his Law.
3. It soileth all it toucheth, 2 Cor. 7.1.

Q. Why should we confess our sins with shame?

* A. Because God is infinite in Majesty, Psalm 86. 10. and of pure eyes, Hab. 1. 13. a man therefore should blush at the remembrance and confession of sins before God, Isaiah 9. 6. Dan. 9. 7. seeing his face would be covered with shame, if a man should know them.

Q. What are the parts of prayer?

A. Petition and Thanksgiving.

Q. What is Petition?

A. It is a Prayer, wherein we desire the preventing of removing of things hurtful, and the obtaining of things needful, either for this life, or that which is to come, Isaiah 37. 20. Mat. 6. 13. 1 Psal. 6. 1, 2, 3, 4.

Q. How may we make our requests that we may be heard?

A. 1. With understanding, 1
A short Catechism.

Q. Why should we pray with understanding?

A. Because blind devotion is not pleasing to God, Prov. 19. 2. Acts 17. 22, 23, 24. John 3. 22. who requireth to be served with the minde, Mat. 22. 37. Luke 10. 27. We must therefore know the will of God.

Q. How is the will of God known?

A. The will of God appears, 1. By his Commandments. 2. By his Promises. 3. By Threatnings. 4. And by the approved practices of the Saints.

Q. Must we pray for nothing, but only according to the will of God?

A. 1. We must desire and pray for that, 2. And only for that which we know God's word doth warrant us, 1 John 5. 14.

Q. What is meet to be understood in prayer?

A. 1. Our words. 2. Matter. And 3. Meaning in prayer, are meet to be understood.

Q. With what feeling should we pray?

A. 1. In prayer we should feel sin as a bura burthen, Jer. 31, 18. Isaiah 63, 17.

and be pinched with our want of Grace, Psalm 51. 10, 11, 12. James
1. 5.

Q. Whence ariseth this sense and feeling?
A. It ariseth from, 1. A consideration of Gods judgements due to sin,
Ezra 9. 6. 7. 2. And of the necessity of saving Grace, Luke 17. 5. 2 Cor.
12. 9.

Q. What fervency is required?
A. As the things we beg are more or less excellent, and of fit use for us, so we must be more or less eager to obtain them, Psalm 51. 1. 2. 3. 9.
and 80. 1. 2. 3. 4.

Q. Whence ariseth this fervency?
A. It ariseth from a consideration of the 1. Necessity. 2. And excellency of what we desire, Psalm 79. 8. 9. and 86. 1. and 102. 13. 14. 3. As also from a burning zeal of Gods glory. 4. And hearty love of our brethren, Isa. 62. 1.
Psalm 122. 6. 7. 8.

Q. What is opposite hereunto?
A. Opposite hereunto is hypocrisie and vain babling, Mat. 6. 5. 6. 7.

Q. Why must we pray with reverence?
A Short Catechism.

|| A. Considering God's excellent Majesty, we may not rashly conceive or utter any thing before him, but with reverence, Genesis 18. 27, 30. 32.

Q. What is this reverence?
A. It is an unfained abasement of the minde.

Q. Whence proceedeth it?

Q. Why must we pray with hope to speed?
† A. Having 1. A promise from God that he will grant our requests, Psal.34.19. Isaiah 30.19. and 58.9. we must believe his word, for he is true and faithful, Heb. 11. 2 Tim. 2.23. (2) If hope to speed accompany not our prayers, they are vain, James 1. 6.

Q. Is not this hope many times weak?
A. This hope is weak, feeble, and many times seem to be overwhelmed in the godly, Psalm 13.1,2. and 31. 22. and 77. 7,8.2.

Q. What
Q. What is meant by love?
A. By love is meant, 1. That we must forgive our enemies. 2. And carry an hearty affection to the children of God, Eph. 4. 32. Col. 3. 12, 13.

Q. What is thanksgiving?
A. It is a prayer wherein we render thanks to God for his general goodness, and also particular favours, 1 Sam. 2. 1. Psal. 136. 1. and 103. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5.

Expos. Q. What motives be there to this duty?
A. Motives to this duty there be many. (1) It as an excellent, Psalm 92. 1. (2) An ancient, Job 38. 7. (3) A spiritual duty, Heb. 13. 15. Col. 3. 16. 1 Pet. 2. 5. (4) It is to be continued in heaven when other duties cease, Rev. 19. 3, 4, 5. (5) It is acceptable to God, 1 Thess. 5. 18. Psalm 147. 1. (6) It is comely for the Saints, Psalm 33. 1. and 147. 1. (7) It is practised by the Angels, Luke 2. 13. (8) It lets on work all the graces of God in us, Psal. 103. 1, 2, 3. (9) It is the end of God's benefits, Psal. 136. & 118. 29. (10) Of our life. (11) And of all our services, Isaiah 8. 19. (12) And it is the ready way way to obtain what we stand in need of, Psal. 50. 23.

Q. What be the means of true thankfulness?

A. The means of true thankfulness, are (1) A due consideration of our own vileness. (2) And a serious meditation and remembrance of Gods benefits, 2 Sam. 7. 18. 1 Chron. 16. 16, 17. Q. How then do we obey as the angels do?

N  A. When
A Short Catechism.

A. When we obey with sincerity, Gen. 5. 24. and 17. 1. Mich. 6. 8. as the Angels do, though not in the same degree, 1 Cor. 1. 13, 9, 10.

Q. Which is the fourth Petition?
A. Give us this † day * our daily † bread.

Expos. Q. Who must pray, Give us?
A. All both poor and rich must pray, Give us.

Q. Why so?
A. 1. Because we have nothing but by God's free gift, 1 Cor. 4. 7. James 1. 17. (2) We have title to nothing, but in Christ Jesus, Heb. 1. 2. with Rom. 8. 32. (3) We can keep nothing but by the Lords license, Job 1. 12. (4) Neither can any thing prosper with us, but by his blessing, Deuteronomy 8. 16. Prov. 10. 22. Psalm 127. 112. Hag. 1. 6. Isa. 3.

† Q. Seeing we pray but for a day, may we not provide for the time to come?

A. We may provide for the time to come. 1. In a lawful manner. 2. And when God gives opportunity, Eph. 4. 28. Gen. 41. 34, 35, &c. and 50. 20. 2 Cor. 13. 14. Acts 11. 28.

Q. What
With an exposition upon the same. 167

Q. What then is required of us in this particular?

A. We must ever wait upon God's providence, 1 Pet. 5. 7. Psalm 55. 22. both 1. When we have the means, Prov. 3. 5, 6. 2. And when we want them, Isa. 28. 16.

Q. What cares for the things of this life is to be abandoned?

A. We must cast off, 1. Distrust, 2. Excessive, 3. Disturbing, 4. Unprofitable, 5. And needless cares, Mat. 6. 25. &c. to the end.

* Q. When is bread said to be ours?

A. Bread is said to be ours, when it is, 1. Gotten by just and lawful means, Eph. 4. 28. (2) In a good and honest calling, Gen. 3. 19. (3) Our persons being accepted of God in Jesus Christ, 1 Cor. 3. 22, 23.

Q. Why is this bread ours?

A. Because that which we so possess is given us of God in love and mercy.

Q. What is meant by daily bread?

A. By daily bread, is meant bread, 1. For the supply of our present necessity. 2. Or rather that which is fit for us, or agreeable to our present condition, Prov. 30. 8, 9.
Q. What doth the word bread signify sometimes in Scripture?
A. The bread of life which is Christ, John 6. 48.

Q. What doth it signify in this Petition?

Q. Which is the fifth Petition?
A. And 2. Forgive us our trespasses as we || forgive them 1 that trespass against us.
A Short Catechism.

Expos. † Q. _What is it to forgive sin?_

_A._ To forgive sin, is, 1. To cover it. 2. To put it away out of sight. 3. And not to impute it. 4. Or not to call to a reckoning for it, Psalm 32. 1, 2.

* Q. _Why are sins called trespasses or debts?_

_A._ Sins are called trespasses or debts, Mark 18. 25. because we are bound to make satisfaction for them, by suffering the just judgement of God Luke 11. 4. Gen. 2. 17. if the divine justice be not satisfied by another, Col. 1. 20.

|| Q. _Is our forgiving others, a cause why God forgives us?_

_A._ Our forgiving others, is not a cause why God forgives us, Matt. 18. 32, 33. Col. 3. 13. 1 John 4. 10, 11. but a sign whereby we are assured that God hath pardoned us, Matt. 6. 14, 15. and 5. 22, 24. Mat. 7. 11.

† Q. _Are we ever to forgive the trespass that is done against us?_

_A._ The wrong that is done unto us (though not always the damage, 2 Chron. 19. 6. 1 Tim. 5. 8. Eph. 29. Exod.
With an exposition upon the same. 183

Exod. 22. 1. 15. Acts 16. 37. comp.)
we ought to forgive, Mark 11. 25.

Q. Every trespass is a sin, how then can we forgive it?

A. The sin being the breach of the divine law, God only can pardon,
Psalm 51. 1, 4.

Q. What desire you of God in this Petition?

A. That || God in his free a mercy in Jesus Christ, would fully b pardoning all our sins, as c we do pardon the wrongs and injuries we receive from others, Isaiah 43. 25.
b Psalm 51. 2. c Luke 11. 4.

Expos. || Q. What do we acknowledge in this Petition?

A. In this Petition, 1. We acknowledge our selves to be miserable sinners,
That we have no power to satisfie for 16. 45. 3. That God is patient, bearing with us so long, Lam. 3. 22. Psalms 145.
8. Psalms 86. 5, 15. and 103. 8. 4. And merciful, not giving leave onely, Dan. 9.
18, 19. 2 Chron. 7. 14. but commanding us also to pray for pardon, Hos. 14.
1, 2.
Q. What is the effect of the consideration of God's mercy in this particular?

A. Hereby he gives us hope of forgiveness, and hence we are drawn to flee to the throne of grace, Psalm 86. 15, 16. Joel 2. 12, 13.

Q. What do we pray for in this Petition?

A. For the full forgiveness both of guilt and punishment, Psalm 51. 1, 2.

Q. Why must we beg the pardon of sin every day?

A. 1. Every day we sin, Ecclesiastes 7. 21. Job 14. 4. and therefore every day we must pray for pardon, Psalm 55. 17. and 2. Our faith is weak, Luke 24. 21, 22, 33. Romans 14. 1. we must therefore pray daily, that we may have greater assurance of our salvation, Luke 17. 5. 2 Samuel 12. 13. with Psalm 51. 1, 2.

Q. Which is the sixth Petition?

A. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Expos. Why must we pray, not to be lead into temptation?

A. Because forgiveness of sins, and grievous temptations are inseparable com-

Q. What is temptation?
A. Temptation is any tryal, whereby the heart is incited to sin by Satan, the world, or the flesh, 1 Thess. 3. 5. James 1. 14. Mat. 26. 41.

Q. Who are said to tempt?
A. 1. God. 2. Satan, the world and the flesh.

Q. Why doth God tempt his servants?
A. God is said to tempt his servants, to try and humble them.

Q. How doth God tempt them?
A. 1. By offering occasions of sin, 2. Sending afflictions. 3. And deferring to help, Deut. 13. 3. and 8. 2. Gen. 22. 1.

Psalm 10. 1.

Q. Is not God then the author of sin?
A. No: This in respect of God is ever good, Mat. 19. 17. Hab. 1. 13. Jam. 1. 13.

Q. How are Satan, the world, and the flesh said to tempt?
A. Satan, the world, and the flesh are said to tempt, by inciting always unto sin.

Q. How doth Satan tempt?
A. Satan doth tempt, 1. By inward suggestions, 1 Chron. 21. 1. John 13. 2. 2. And
(2) And by outward objects, 2 Sam. 11. 2, 3. Mat. 4. 3, 4, 8.

Q. How doth the world tempt?
A. The world doth tempt, 1. By bad examples, Jer. 44. 17. 2. Or by wicked persuasions, alluring or terrifying, Gen. 3. 6. and 36. 7. and Job 2. 9. 1 Kings 13. 8. Matth. 16. 22. Acts 21. 12.

Q. How doth the flesh tempt?
A. The flesh tempteth when we are incited of our own corruption, Obad. 3. James 1. 14. 1 Pet. 2. 11.

Q. What be the degrees of temptation?

Q. What is to be lead into temptation?
A. To be lead into temptation, is to be overcome of temptation; so that Satan doth prevail against us, and get the victory, Matth. 26. 41. 1 Chron. 21. 1.

Q. How is God said to lead into temptation?
A. God is said to lead into temptation, 1. When in any tryal he doth forforfake man. 2. Doth with-hold or withdraw from him his grace. 3. Doth suffer him to fall, 2 Chronicles 32. 31. (4) Doth harden his heart, Exod. 7. 3. 5. And doth give him wholly up into Satans power, and the full sway of his own corrupt heart, Romans 1. 24, 25, 28.

Q. What is it to deliver?

|| A. To deliver, is either 1. To support under. 2. Or else to protect and defend from evil, 2 Cor. 12. 9.

Q. What is meant by evil?

A. By evil, the power and poison of sin, Satan, and the world is understood, Mat. 5. 37.

Q. What desire you of God in this Petition?

A. To be freed from * trials themselves, so far as it will stand with Gods good pleasure, and always from the evil thereof, e that we faint not under them, or be foiled by them, d Mat. 26. 39. e Rom. 8. 28. 1 Cor. 10. 13.

Expos. * Q. What do we acknowledge in this Petition?

A. Here we acknowledge, (1) The Lords power over our enemies that tempt tempt us, Zach. 3. 2. Jude 9. 2. And our own frailty, Psalm 103.14,15.

Q. What do we bewail?
A. We bewail our proneness to evil and corruption, Rom. 7.24.18.

Q. What do we desire in particular?
A. We desire God, (1) To bridle Satan, 2 Cor. 12. 7, 8. (2) To kill sin, Psal. 19. 13. (3) To support us by his grace, Eph. 3. 16. 1 Thess. 3. 13. (4) To stir us up to be watchful in prayer. Eph. 6. 18. To give us, 1. Hope. 2. Patience. 3. Consolation, Col. 1.11. 2 Thess. 2. 17. And 4. A good issue out of all tryals, Psalm 6. 4. that we neither 1. Presume. Nor 2. Dispair, Prov. 30.9. And to free us from misery so far as may stand with his good pleasure.

Q. Which is the thanksgiving in the Lords Prayer?
A. For thine is the || kingdom, the † power, and the * glory, for ever and ever.

Expos. || Q. How do these words, Thine is the kingdom, prove that all blessings must be asked of God?
A. (1) Because God is the right owner, and supreme and absolute ruler over all things in heaven and earth,
With an exposition upon the same.

earth, Gen. 14. 19. 1 Chron. 29. 11. Psalm 24. 1, 3. all blessings therefore are to be craved at his hands, Psal. 145. 14, 15, 16. (2) Whither should subjects flee, but to their King? Psal. 70. 5. Psalm 2. 9, 10, 11, 12.

Q. How do these words, Thine is the power, prove that all blessings must be craved of him?

† A. (1) Because God can give whatsoever we stand in need of, Mat. 7. 7. and 8. 2. (2) He can strengthen us against any sin, 2 Tim. 4. 18. Jude 24. and unto any duty, Heb. 13. 21. And (3) we have no strength but from him, 1 Chronicles 29. 15, 16. 2 Corin. 3. 5. therefore we must call upon him alone.

Q. How do these words, Thine is the glory confirm it?

* A. 1. Because God ought to be glorified by us in all things, Col. 3. 17. 2. He gaineth glory by hearing the prayers of his people, Psalm 79. 11. Psalm 50. 15. and 30. 11, 12. 3. And for his glory he will not deny them any thing that shall be good, Mat. 7. 11. Luke 11. 13.

Q. Do not these words contain a reason also, why we beg the former blessings at the hands of God?

A. Peace, for seeing the kingdom, power and glory, are the Lords, we should call upon him in all our necessities.

Q. Which is the conclusion of the Lords Prayer?

A. Amen, which is a witness of our faith, and desire of the things prayed for, Jer. 11. 5.

Q. What doth Amen signify?

A. So it is, or so be it, 1 Kings 1. 36. Jer. 28. 6. and 1. 15.

Expos. || Q. What doth Amen signify in Scripture sometimes?

A. Amen, (1) Is sometimes a title of Christ, Rev. 3. 14. because of his faithfulness and truth in performing all promises, 2 Cor. 1. 20. (2) In the beginning of sentences, it is an earnest assurance, John 6. 26. Mat. 24. 47. Luke 12. 44.

Q. What doth it imply when its added in the end of Blessings, Prayers or Imprecations?

A. When its added in the end of Blessings, Prayers or Imprecations, it implyeth, (1) A desire of the thing so
With an exposition upon the same. to be.(2) And confidence that so it shall be, Numb. 5. 22. Deut. 27. 15. I Cor. 14. 16.

Q. What learn you hence, that Christ teacheth us to end our Prayers with Amen?

A. Christ teaching us to end our prayers with Amen, doth thereby admonish us, 1. To desire grace of God. 2. And to believe.

Q. What must we believe?

A. That God presently heareth, and will certainly in due time grant our request, I Cor. 14. 16.

Q. What things then are to be striven against in prayer?

A. 1. Coldness, 2. Doubting, 3. distrust, are to be striven against, 1 Tim. 2. 8. James 1. 6.

Q. What must we do after we have prayed?

A. Observe how we speed, and what answer we receive, Psal. 3. 4. and 85. 8.

Expos. Q. What rules are to be observed touching the success of our prayers?

A. 1. We must know, that God sometimes doth hear and grant our requests.
requests, when yet he doth defer to give us the sense thereof, Isa. 64. 24. 2 Sam. 12. 13. with Psal. 51. 1, 2. Dan. 9. 22, 23. and 10. 12, 13. 2. Also he doth not alway give the particular thing we ask, but what he knows best for us, Rom. 10. 2 Cor. 12. 7, 8, 9. Heb. 5. 7. 3. Further we must take heed that we limit not the Lord to our own time, Isaiah 28. 16. 4. Nor yet receive Satans answer for the Lords.

Q. How may Satans answer be discerned?

A. Satans answer is either, 1. Contrary to the word of truth, 2. Or if he speak the truth, it is to a wrong end, viz. 1. Despair. 2. Or prophane-ness.

Q. When do we speed well in prayer?

A. We speed well, 1. When God giveth us the same thing that we crave, being good, Lam. 3. 57. Gen. 30. 19, 22. and 20. 17. Psal 21. 2. 4. Exod. 17. 11. Josh. 10. 13. 2. Or another as fit, or more fit for us, Gen. 17. 18, 19. Mark 14. 35. with Heb. 5. 7. 3. Or more patience and strength to wait, 2 Cor. 12. 7, 8, 9. Psal 40. 1.

Q. What
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. What benefit shall we gain thereby?

A. 1. It will stir up the heart to g thankfulnesse, 2. Remove h fulness, 3. And * negligence. 4. Strengthen || our i faith, 5. And inflame || our hearts with k zeal, joy and love, g Psal. 31. 21, 22. h Psal. 88. 13. and 4. 1, 2. i Psal. 4. 3. and 116. 1: k Psal. 28. 6, 7.

Expos. || Q. How doth it stir up the heart to thankfulness?

A, 1. The hearing of our holy prayers is a pledge of God’s love. 2. And a sweet and comfortable testimony of his mercy, Psalm 31. 21, 22. provoking the heart cheerfully to praise God, Psal. 30. 8; 10; 11. 12.

Q. How doth observation of success in prayer, serve to remove dullness?

† A. When God answereth our prayers, the light of his countenance shineth upon us, and this reviveth the dull spirits, Psalm 116. 6, 7, 9. 2 Sam. 7. 27.

Q. How doth it remove negligence?

* A. Experience of good received from God, and begged in prayer, doth quicken us thereto, Psalm 68. 6, 7. and 116. 1, 2.
A short Catechism.

Q. How doth it strengthen our faith?

A. God is unchangeable, so that former mercies given do assure us of future blessing, Psal. 61. 5, 6.

Q. How doth it enflame our hearts with zeal, &c.

A. Though our hearts are cold by nature, yet the sight of God's love doth move us effectually to love the Lord again, Psalm 105. 18, 19, 20, 21.

Q. What must we do if God answer us not the first or second time?

A. 1. Examine how we pray and 2. Continue fervent there-in: 3. Waiting upon the Lord until we speed, James 4. 3. in Luke 18. 1, n Hab. 2. 3. Psal. 5. 3.

Explof. * Q. Why must we examine how we pray if we speed not at the first?

A. Because sometimes we ask and receive not, because we ask amiss.

Q. How do we ask amiss?

2. In
With an exposition upon the same.

2. In the matter, asking 1. Things not good, Mat. 20.21, 22. Luke 9.54-55. or 2. Not fit for them for whom we pray; 3. Or to a wrong end.

Q. What rules are to be observed herein?

A. Here observe, That 1. They pray well that take notice of their wants in prayers, Psalm 31.22. 2. And sometimes the childe of God prayeth best when he knoweth not that he prayeth at all, Rom. 8. 26. 3. Also God sometimes giveth us what we pray for, when we pray but coldly, Mark 9. 22, 24, 25. that he might encourage us to pray; and denies us sometimes when we pray fervently, that we might not trust to our prayers, Psal. 22. 2.

Q. Why must we continue fervent in prayer if God deny us at the first?

A. Because God for a time may deny what we ask, Psalm 6. 3. and 13. 1.

Q. Why doth God for a time deny us what we ask?

A. (1.) That he may exercise our humility in regard of our wants, Lam. 2.44. Judges 10. 13, 14. (2) Our faith, (3) And
(3) And our patience in waiting, Matt. 15: 22, 23, 24, 26, 27, 28. (4) And try our obedience, whether we will in conscience obey, though we want the comfort promised, Psalm 44. 17, 18, 19, 20. Moreover he deferreth to help for a season, to quicken us to prayer. (6) To make us know our selves. (7) That we may carefully preserve his graces, when once we have them. (9) And that he may do us good in the latter end, Judg. 20. 26. Therefore we should not be faint-hearted, but hold out unto the end.

Q. How is a man supported to persevere in prayer?

Q. Who ought to pray?

Q. Who can or may pray with hope to speed?

A. None but they q that depart from iniquity, Psalm 66. 18.

Expos.
With an exposition upon the same.

Expos. || Q. Why must be that prayer-eth depart from iniquity?

A. 1. Because such onely as feel the burthen of sin, and have a desire to be eased, are called to come unto Christ.

2. And they onely have a promise to finde good success, Isa. 55. 1. Mat. 11. 28.

3. Others do but mock God, Psal. 78. 34, 35, 36.

4. Neither can they pray with the graces required; as faith, reverence, fervency, love, &c. so long as they love wickedness, Zach. 12. 10. 2 Tim. 2. 19.

5. Prayer is not a work of nature, but of the spirit of sanctification, Rom. 8. 15, 26. Gal. 4. 4, 5. and he cannot fulfil the lusts of the flesh, that hath the spirit of grace dwelling in him, Gal. 5. 16.

Q. Is our departing from sin perfect in this life?

A. Our departing from sin is at the first very rude and imperfect, John 21.
A Short Catechism.

15. 1 Pet. 2. 1. but we must pray daily to be renewed, Col. 1. 9. Phil. 1. 9, 10, 11. 1 Thess. 3. 13.

Q. For whom must we pray?

A. For all sorts of men now living, or that shall hereafter, but not for the dead, 1 Timothy 2. 1. John 17. 20. 1. Luke 16. 24. 25.

Expos. Q. Why must we pray for all sorts of men?

A. (1) The Commandment of God, James 5. 16. Eph. 6. 18. Col. 4. 3. Rom. 15. 30. (2) Our love to our brother. 1. Who is of our flesh. 2. And may appertain to the Kingdom of grace: Rom. 10. 1, 2. John 5. 16. do require that we pray for all sorts of men living.

Q. What sorts of men must we pray for?

With an exposition upon the same.

Col. 4. 12. 2 Cor. 1. 11. Heb. 13. 18, 19.

(9) Such as stand. 2 Thess. 3. 5. (10) Or be gone astray, Cant. 8. 8. Exod. 32. 31, 32. Rom. 10. 1.

Q. Why is it our duty thus to pray for all sorts?

A. (1) All need the prayers one of another, James 5. 16. (2) Satan seeks to molest and trouble all men, Luke 22. 31. Job 1. 9, 10. Eph. 6. 12. 1 Pet. 5. 8. (3) The fall of any man is a dishonor to God, Rom. 2. 23, 24. (4) A sinner's conversion brings glory to his Name, Apoc. 16. 9. Mal. 2. 1, 2. (5) The prayer of the weakest Christian is available with God, Psalm 65. 2. and 145. 18. Psalm 102. 17. (6) At least, it shall return into his own bosom, Psalm 35. 13. Ezek. 14. 14. (7) It is a special act of love, Matt. 5. 44. (8) A means to reconcile our enemies unto us, Rom. 12. 20. (9) Or to prevent danger or hurt, that otherwise we might receive from him, Psalm 109. 4.

Q. Why must we not pray for the dead?

Q 4

Heb.
A short Catechism.

Heb. 9. 27. (2) Neither can a prayer for them be a work of faith.

Q. Why cannot prayer for the dead be a work of faith?

A. 1. Because there is not any commandment to do it. 2. Or promise of good to come by it. 3. Or approved example to warrant it in Scripture.

Q. What is the foundation of these prayers?

A. Superstition did first hatch these prayers, and superstition now is the foundation of them.

Q. What pretence do the ignorant make to defend them?

A. Love is the pretence which the ignorant sort make to defend them.

Q. What are we to think of them indeed?

A. Indeed they are, 1. Vain, 2. Ignorant, 3. Rash, 4. And uncharitable.

Q. May men content themselves to pray in private only, or only in public?

A. No, but they must use both public and private prayer.

Expos. Q. What is public prayer?

A. Pub-
A. Publique prayer is that which is used in the publique meetings and assemblies of Gods servants.

Q. What reasons may shew the necessity and use of publike prayer?

A. This is (1) A principal part of Gods worship, Acts 3.1. (2) It is acceptable unto his Majesty.

Q. Why is it acceptable to God?

A. Because (1) We acknowledge him openly to be the giver of every good gift. (2) And speak of his free favor, to the praise of his grace, Psal. 22. 25. and 40.10. (3) It was ever used in the house of God, Matt. 21.12. (4) It sanctifieth every other duty, 1 Tim. 4.5. (5) It is commanded by Christ. (6) Christ hath promised his presence in a special manner in the congregation, Psalm 27.4. Matt.18.20. (7) Also hereby we are quickned to pray more fervently, Zach. 8.20,21,22. (8) We do testify our faith, hope, thankfulness. (9) We profess our selves to be the servants of Christ, (10) We stir up others by our example, Psal. 95.6. and 96.1,2,7,8. (11) And it is much to our comfort, that what we ask, is approved and sought with common common consent; publicke service being of more worth then private, as a society exceedeth the worthinesse of one man, Psal. 29. 9. and 87. 2. and 35. 18. and 111. 1.

Q. What is private prayer?

† A. Private prayer is that which is performed, 1. In a family; 2. Or by one alone, Zach. 12. 12, 13, 14.

Q. Why is prayer in the family necessary?

A. In the family prayer is necessary, 1. God by his commandment binding Parents and Masters to see it performed, Joshua 24. 15. Genesis 18. 18. 2. The faithful have followed the Lords direction herein, Job 1. 5. 3. Hereby the affairs of the whole family are sanctified, 1 Chron. 16. 43. Psalm 127. 1. 1 Tim. 4. 5. And 4. God will pour down a blessing upon that family, that joyntly seeketh his favor by hearty supplication, Acts 1. 14, 15. and 12. 5, 6.

Q. Why must we pray alone?

A. We must pray alone, Gen. 24. 63. and 32. 9, 10. Luke 11. 1. Mat. 6. 6. 1. That we may be more fit to joyn with others to our edification. 2. And have have comfort when we are alone, Psal. 30. 10, 11, 12. 3. Also we have private

1. Sins to confess: 2. Wants to bewail. 3. Crosses under which we should be humbled, Psalm 6. 2, 3, 6, 7. Matt. 14-31. 4. And favors for which we should be thankful, Lam. 3: 23. Psal. 71. 23, 24. and 66. 19, 20.

Q. What other means hath the Lord appointed to increase faith?

A. The due x administration, and receiving of the † Sacraments, x Gen. 17. 9, 10, 11. Rom. 4. 11.

Expos. † Q. What did the word Sacrament signify in ancient times?

A. The word Sacrament did in ancient times signify an oath, whereby Soldiers bound themselves to be true to their Captain, and the General in like manner did bind himself to the Soldiers.

Q. What is it now used to signify?

A. Now it is used to signify the Seals of the Covenant, whereby the Lord doth bind himself in Christ Jesus to be merciful to us, and we bind our selves to be true unto Christ.

Q: How
Q. How are the Sacraments special means to confirm faith?

A. The Sacraments are special means to confirm faith, because 1. Christ is after a special manner represented, 2. And offered unto all. 3. And effectually bestowed upon every worthy communicant.

Q. Who ought to administer the Sacraments?

A. Only they that are lawfully called thereunto by the Church, y Heb. 5. 4.

Expos. || Q. Who are lawfully called to administer the Sacraments?

A. Such are lawfully called to administer the Sacraments, who 1. Being furnished with gifts of knowledge and holiness. 2. Are set apart for that office by the Church, Deut. 33. 10. Mal. 2. 7. Matth. 5. 14, 15, 16. 1 Tim. 3. 2, 4, 5, 6, 7. Tit. 1. 7, 8, 9. Matth. 24. 45. Rom. 1. 1. Tit. 1. 5.

Q. What is a Sacrament?

A. A seal of the covenant of grace, y Rom. 4. 11.

Expos. || Q. Why are the Sacraments called Seals?

A. Sacraments are appointed, not only
With an exposition upon the same.

1. To help the understanding: and 2. The memory, 3. But also to persuade, and assure the heart that Christ is ours.

Q. Why call you the Sacrament a seal of the Covenant of Grace?

A. Because that Covenant is sealed in the Sacrament.

Q. What is the cause of that Covenant?

A. God of his mere grace and favor made it with us.

Q. In Whom is it made?

A. In Jesus Christ.

Q. With Whom?

A. With us being miserable sinners, Gen. 17. 7, 9, 10, 11, &c.

Q. In What Words is this Covenant expressed in Scripture?

A. I will be thy God, and thou shalt be my people, Jer. 31. 33.

Expos. || Q. What doth God promise in this Covenant?

A. In this Covenant God doth promise, 1. To be our Savior, King and Father. 2. To pardon our sin. 3. To sanctifie our nature. 4. To bestow all good things upon us. 5. And protect us from all evil, Genesis 17. 1, 2.
A Short Catechism.

Lev. 26.11,12. 2 Cor. 6.16,17,18. Heb. 8. 10, 11, 12.

Q. What do we promise to God?

A. We promise, 1. To choose God to be our God. 2. To trust in him. 3. To love. 4. To fear him. 5. And to walk in obedience before him, Exod. 15. 2. and 20. 19. and 24. 3. 7.

Q. What are the parts of a Sacrament?

A. Two: an outward visible sign, sanctified to represent and seal another thing to the minde and heart; and an inward grace, which is the thing signified.

Expof. Q. How is it proved that there be two parts of a Sacrament?

A. Of a sign there must needs be two parts, the understanding thereby conceiving one thing, and the sense another, Genesis 9. 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17. Isaiah 38. 7, 8. therefore of a Sacrament there must needs be two parts, one inward, another outward.

Q. What is a sign sanctified?

A. A sign sanctified, is that which is appointed by the Lord himself to signify, Exodus 49. 11, 13. and not by man upon any conceited analogy.
With an exposition upon the same.

logy or proportion.

Q. What is the inward grace?

A. The inward grace is the free and spiritual gift which God bestoweth upon the soul, Gen. 17:7. Matt. 26:28.

Q. Who is the Author of the Sacraments?

A. The Lord a onely † who made the Covenant, a Isaiah 7. 14. and 38. 7.

Expos. † Q. How is it proved that God onely is the Author of the Sacraments?

A. Because 1. God is the onely Lawgiver of his Church, James 4. 12. Mat. 23. 8, 10. Acts 3. 22. to teach it by word and sign.

2. And as to forgive sins, and receive unto grace, is proper to the Lord alone, Mich. 7. 18. Hose. 14. 1, 2, so it is his peculiar to institute a sign and seal for the confirmation there-of.

Q. How many Sacraments be there?

Expos
Expos. * Q. Why say you there be only two Sacraments in the New Testament?

A. In the Old Testament the Jews had many Sacraments, some ordinary, Gen. 17. 9, 11, 12, &c. Exod. 12. 1, 2, 3, &c. Some extraordinary, 1 Cor. 10. 1, 2, 3, 5. but the New Testament hath only two.

Q. How may that be proved?

A. Because there be no more Sacraments of the New Testament, then Christ did institute and receive before his death.

Q. Why was it necessary that Christ should receive the Sacraments of the New Testament?

A. It was necessary that he should receive both, 1. To sanctifie them in his own person, 2. And to seal that Communion which is between him and us.

Q. What say you of the five other Sacraments which the Papists adde to these two?

A. The nature of a Sacrament agreeth not to the five forged Sacraments of the Papists. 1. Because they are not proper to the Church. 2. Or are not instituted of God. 3. Or consist not of an outward visible sign, and inward grace: 4. The Covenant of grace is not sealed in any of them.
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. What is the properties of the Sacraments in the New Testament?

A. These Sacraments of the New Testament are perpetual, and never to be abrogated, Heb. 8. 13.

Q. What is Baptism?

A. A || Sacrament of our ingrafting into Christ, communion with him, and entrance into the Church, e Mat. 28. 19. Acts 8. 31.

Expos. || Q. Doth not Baptism make men Christian souls?

A. The seed of Abraham, Gal. 3. 7. or children of Christian parents are, 1. Within the Covenant. 2. Are Christians and Members of the Church, 1 Cor. 7. 14. Rom. 11. 16. Baptism therefore doth not make them Christian souls.

Q. What then is the use of Baptism?

A. It doth solemnly signify and seal, 1. Their ingrafting into Christ, 2. And that communion with the members of Christ, have with him their Head,
A short Catechism.

Head. 3. It doth confirm, that they are acknowledged Members of the Church, and entred into it, 1 Peter 3. 21.

Q. What is the outward sign?
A. Water, f wherewith the party baptized is g washed by dipping or sprinkling, h into the † Name of the Father, Son, and holy Ghost, f Acts 10. 47. g Mark. 3. 6, 11, 13, 16. Acts 16. 15. h Matthew 28. 19.

Expos. † Q. What is it to be baptized into the name of the Father, Son and holy Ghost?
A. To be baptized into the name of the Father, Son, and holy Ghost, is to be consecrated unto the worship and service of the Father, Son, and holy Ghost.

Q. What is the inward grace or thing signified?
A. Forgiveness i of * sins, and k sanctification, i Mark 1. 4. Acts 2. 38. k Tit. 3. 5.

Expos. * Q. How may it appear that the inward grace in Baptism is the forgiveness of sins and Sanctification?
A. Water
A. Water in Baptism doth signify
1. Christ's blood, by which all our sins are washed away. 2. And Christ's Spirit, by which we are regenerated,
Rom. 6. 3. Matth. 3. 11. John 1. 26. Col. 2. 12. Wherefore the inward grace in Baptism, is the pardon of our sins, and renewing of our nature, Tit. 3. 5.

Q. To what condition doth the party Baptized binde himself?
A. To believe in Christ, and to forslake his sins, Acts 8. 37. e Matth. 3. 12.

Expol. || Q. How is it proved that the party Baptized doth binde himself to repent and believe?
A. Gods promise to us, and our promise to God, implied in the Covenant, is sealed in Baptism, Acts 16. 14, 15, 31, 32, 33. so that we binde ourselves thereby to the performance of our duty.

Q. Infants baptized have not the use of reason, how then can they binde themselves to believe?
A. Infants Baptized have not the use of reason, much less faith to believe; but yet as they be in the Covennant, so they oblige themselves to believe in Christ, and depart from iniquity; which they are bound to perform, when they are come to years of discretion, Acts 2.39. with 2 Cor. 6. 17, 18.

Q. How oft ought a man to be Baptized?

A. It is enough || once to be baptized: for Baptism is a pledge of our new birth, f Act.7.8. g Tit.3.5. Expos. || Q. Why is Baptism to be administered but once to one man?

A. We never read that Christ or his Apostles did administer Baptism more then once to one man.

2. And Circumcision, the Seal of entrance into the Church of the Jews (in the place whereof Baptism is come) was onely once applyed by Gods appointment, Gen. 17. 23, 24, &c.

Q. Who ought to be Baptized?

A. Infidels h converted to † the faith, and * infants i of one, 02 both Christian || parents h Acts 8. 12. i Acts 2. 39. i Cor. 7. 14.

Expos. † Q. Why are not Infidels to be baptized before they be converted to the faith?

A. Be-
With an exposition upon the same.

A. Because all they who be within the Covenant, and such onely are to be received into Baptism.

Q. How is it proved that Infants of Christian Parents ought to be baptized?

* A. (1) Because Infants of Christian Parents are within the Covenant.
(2) To them appertaineth the promise of forgiveness of sins, and the Kingdom of God. (3) Circumcision among the Jews (which answereth to our baptism) was administered to infants. Gen.17.12. and 21. 1, 4. Luke 1. 59. and 2. 21.
(4) And when the faithful, which the Scripture faith, were converted with their whole household, and Baptized, it may probably be thought, there were some children amongst them of those households, who were not excluded, Acts 14. 14, 15.

Q. Who are to be acknowledg'd Christians?

|| A. Though we acknowledge such onely to be sincere Christians, who serve God with upright hearts, Rom. 21. 28, 29. yet those are not denied to be Christians, who make so much as a general profession of Christ, Acts.
A short Catechism.

II. 26. 1 Cor. 1. 2. with 5. 1, 2, 3. and 15. 12.

Q. What is the Lords Supper?
A. A k Sacrament of our continuance and growth in Christ, k 1 Cor. 10. 16.

Expos. Q. How is the Lords Supper proved to be a Sacrament of our growth in Christ?
A. Because there Christ is given to be spiritual nourishment unto the soul, that we might grow and increase in him, John 6. 33, 48, 50, 51, 52, 54, 56. as plants are not onely grafted, but do grow in the stock: and this is sealed in this Sacrament.

Q. Who is the author of this Sacrament?
A. The Lord I Jesus || in the same night † that he was betrayed, l 1 Cor. 11. 23, 24.

Expos. || Q. How may it be proved that Christ had authority to institute this Sacrament?
A. (1) Because Christ is the Lord and head of his Church, Acts 10. 36. Eph. 1. 22. Col. 1. 18. (2) He hath authority given from the Father to institute Sacraments, Matth. 28. 18, 19. (3) And
With an exposition upon the same. 215

(3) And power effectually to perform whatsoever is signified and sealed there in, John i. 4. Eph. 5. 1, 4.

Q. How did Christ institute this Sacrament?

A. He did in his own person institute and ordain it.

Q. What special things may be considered in the time when this Sacrament was instituted?

† A. 1. When Christ was preparing himself to the greatest work of love that ever was. 2. Having his thoughts wholly bent to procure the eternal good of his Elect; then did he out of his infinite love, 3. Even in the same night that he was to be betrayed, appoint this holy Sacrament.

Q. Why was it instituted before his death?

A. Because the institution and sealing of the Testament, ought to go before the death of the Testator.

Q. What use is to be made hereof?

A. This should stir us up, 1. With care and reverence to receive this pledge of Christ's love. 2. And to come unto it as unto a spiritual feast.
3. Being persuaded that Christ will respect us now he is glorified, seeing he did not forget us in his agony and passion.

Q. What is the outward sign?
A. Bread * and m Wine, with the actions pertaining to them, as || breaking, giving receiving, eating and drinking, m Matthew 26. 26, 27, 28.

Expos. * Q. Why were bread and Wine ordained to be outward signs of the Sacrament?
A. Because bread and wine (1) Are most usual, fit and necessary nourishments, Psalm 104. 15. (2) They do of all others best serve to express the Body and Blood of Christ, John 6. 33.

Q. Must the bread be leavened or unleavened?
A. Leavened or unleavened bread are of free use, Acts 20. 7. Mat. 26. 17, 26. but it is expedient that it be bread that hath substance in it.

Q. What think you of using the wafer cake?
A. The use of the wafer-cake is justly blamed as Superstitious, by our Church.
Q. What bread and wine for quality must be used?
A. Because the Sacrament is a spiritual feast, therefore the finest Bread and purest Wine is of most laudable use.

Q. What think you of mixing water with wine?
A. Out of niggardliness to mix water with wine, sauereth of an ill minde, Mal. 1. 7, 8.

Q. Why did Christ institute both bread and wine?
A. Christ being not onely the true, but the sufficient nourishment of the soul, intending to give us a full meal, appointed both bread and wine, and that severally to be used in the Lords Supper, 1 Cor. 11. 23, 24.

Q. Is it lawful to administer this Sacrament in one kinde onely?
A. It is Sacriledge to deliver this Sacrament in one kinde onely.

Q. Must the bread and wine be administered severally or together?
A. It is presumption not to administer them severally, seeing Christ intended to set forth his violent death, wherein his body and blood was separated.

Q. Why
Q. Why is the bread to be broken?
A. The bread is to be broken,
1. According to the example of Christ;
2. And of his Apostles: 3. Because this Sacrament was appointed specially to represent the death and passion of our Savior Christ, in which his body was crucified, and his blood shed, Mat. 26. 26, 27, 28. Acts 20. 7.

Q. What is the inward grace?
A. Christ with all the benefits of his Death and Passion, 1 Cor. 11. 24.

Expos.† Q. Why say you that Christ with all his benefits is the inward grace in this Sacrament?
A. Because not only Christ his benefits, but even Christ himself is offered unto us; for we cannot be partakers of the benefits of Christ, unless we be united unto him, John 15. 2. Eph. 4. 16. Col. 2. 19.

Q. How is Christ present in the Sacrament?
A. Christ is truly and spiritually present in the Sacrament, exhibited to the Faith of every worthy receiver, but not corporally united to the bread and wine in respect of place, Acts 3.
With an exposition upon the same. 219

Q. What doth the bread and wine, and the breaking of bread in this sacrament signify?

| A. The Bread signifies the Body of Christ, the Wine betokeneth his Blood; the breaking of the Bread setteth forth the crucifying of Christ, &c.

Q. What is the duty of the Minister in the Administration of the Sacrament?

A. To consecrate it by declaring the institution thereof, and prayer joined with thanksgiving; 2. As also to break the bread: 3. And afterwards to deliver the Bread and Wine to the people of God, 1 Cor. 11. 23, 24. Mark 14. 22. Luke 22.19.

Expos. * Q. What is it to consecrate?

A. To consecrate, is to set apart the bread and wine unto an holy use, 1 Timothy 4. 5. Exodus 13. 2. and 22. 29.

Q. Why is the institution of the Sacrament to be declared?

| A. Because if Christ had not instituted stituted this use of bread and wine, it could never have had the being, efficacy and virtue of a Sacrament; therefore the institution ought to be declared.

Q. Why must prayer be joyned with the exposition of the institution?

† A. Because though God is ever ready pref to bestow a blessing upon his ordinances, Mal. 3. 10. Psal. 81. 13. yet looketh to be sought unto, John 4. 10. Acts 6. 2, 4. and 4. 31. therefore the Minister must crave Gods blessing to sanctifie the bread and wine to their right ends.

Q. Why must Thanksgiving be added?

* A. The work of our Redemption being lively set forth in this Sacrament, praise to God for that benefit ought not to be omitted, Revel. 5. 9. Psal. 103. 4. Rev. 1. 5, 6. Zach. 9. 9.

Q. What is hereby signified?

A. The action of God the Father offering Christ to all, and bestowing him effectually upon the worthy receiver, 1 Cor. 10. 16.

Q. What is the duty of the receivers?

A. To receive the bread and wine
With an exposition upon the same. 221

wine delivered, and to eat and drink thereof, q Mat. 26. 26, 27. 1 Cor. 11. 23, 24.

Expos. || Q. How must the bread and cup be received?

A. It is most expedient to receive the bread and cup into the hand, and not superstitiously, or unseemly to have the bread put, or the wine poured into the mouth, Mat. 26. 26. 1 Cor. 14. 40.

Q. What doth eating import?

† A. Eating importeth more then to suffer a thing to melt in the mouth, for common bread fit for the nourishment, which should be used, shoud by chewing, &c. be prepared for the stomach.

Q. What is signified hereby?

A. Our receiving and feeding upon Christ by faith, 1 Cor. 10. 16.

Q. Is it sufficient to receive this Sacrament once?

A. No: but we must receive it † often, Acts 2. 42. and 20. 7.

Expos. † Q. Why is this Sacrament to be received often?

A. (1) Christ's Commandment, 1 Cor. 11. 26. (2) The Apostles practiced,
Q. What is our necessity?
4. And spiritual wants and decays in grace, Matth. 24. 12. Rev. 2. 4. and 3. 2.

Q. How often must we receive?
A. We must receive it as often as it is administered in that congregation where we live, unless we 1. Be justly hindered; 2. Or companies in great parishes be sorted for several days, because they cannot communicate all at once, Numb. 9. 13. 2 Chron. 30. 12. Acts 2. 42. Matth. 22. 5, 6. 1 Cor. 10. 16.

Q. For what end and use ought we to receive this Sacrament?
A. To 1. confirm our * Faith, communion with Christ, 2 and all saving graces in us. 2. To keep || in a remembrance the Lords death until he come again. 3. And to testify w our love one unto another,

other, I Cor. 10. 16. u I Cor. 11. 24, 26. I Cor 12. 13.

Expos. * Q. How is the receiving of the Sacrament profitable to increase faith?

A. The increase of faith, and of Communion with Christ, infer necessarily an increase of all graces, which spring thence as from the root, John 15. 4. Ephesians 2. 21, 22. John 7. 37.

Q. How doth it keep in remembrance the death of Christ ?

|| A. 1. This stirreth up a more serious thinking on Christ's love and goodness in his death, and so preserves the same more truly in memory.

2. And by eating this Bread and drinking this wine, men do profess, and after a sort preach unto others, unto the worlds end, the mystery of the Gospel, the sum and substance whereof consisteth in the death of Jesus Christ, and the fruits that flow therefrom, shadowed in the Sacrament.

Q. What is the danger of unworthy receiving ?

A. Unworthy x receivers † are guilty guilty of the body and blood of the Lord, and do eat and drink judgment to themselves, 1 Cor. 11. 27, 29.

Expos. † Q. Who are unworthy receivers?

A. Unworthy receivers are such who eat and drink unworthily, that is, who receive the bread and wine without reverence and due respect.

Q. How many ways may the Sacrament be received without due reverence or respect?

A. When we give not the due reverence and respect, 1. To the mystery contained in them, 1 Samuel 6. 19. 2 Samuel 6. 6. 2 Chron. 30. 20. 2. Or to the holy ends why they were ordained. 3. Or to the person by whose authority they were appointed, 1 Samuel 2. 29. with Rev. 3. 4. Luke 3. 8.

Q. What is it to be guilty of the body and blood of Christ?

* A. To be guilty of the Body and Blood of the Lord, is (1) To offer a special wrong and injury to the person of Christ and his sufferings. (2) And in a special manner to sin against the work of our Redemption, which is fully fully set forth in the Lords Supper.
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. Who are to receive this Sacrament?

A. 1. Such as know their || misery by sin, the remedy thereof in Christ, and z the † doctrine of the Sacrament; withal 2. Earnestly a longing * to be satisfied with the head of li. b, x Matthew 11. 28.
z Exodus 12. 26, 27. a Revelation 22, 17.

Expos. || Q. Why must such as come to this Sacrament know the benefits of Christ's death?

A. Because Christ's death is signified by the Sacrament. 2. And Christ, with all the benefits of his death and passion is offered herein. 3. Unless we know Christ, our misery without him, and the exceeding benefits of his death, we can never, 1. Desire, John 4. 10. 2. Or rejoice in thanksgiving for that mercy;
Rom. 7. 25. Eph. 2. 1, 4, and 5. 6. 1 Tim.

Q. Why must we know the doctrine of the Sacrament?

† A. This Sacrament is a sign and seal; therefore before we can, 1. Use it it well. 2. Or prepare to receive. 3. Or examine our selves how we receive. 1 Cor. 11. 28. we must have understanding, Exod. 12. 26, 27. Josh 4. 6. 2 Chr. 30. 22.

Q. Why must we thirst to be satisfied with the bread of life?

* A. Because the thirsty, who are ever lowly, are the only welcome guests unto the Lords Table, John 7. 7. Rev. 22. 15.

Q. How is this desire stirred up in us?

A. This desire is stirred up in us by a consideration, 1. Of the necessity of the Sacrament, 2. Of our own want thereof, Matth. 9. 12. (3) Of the benefits bestowed therein, Psalm 63. 1. 2, 3. Prov. 4. 7. (4) And of the helps we have thereby to quicken and confirm our faith.

Q. What else is required in them that come to this holy Table?

A. 3. Renewed || hatred of all b sin, an hearty endeavor c to overcome natural passions, and an utter and well-advised d forslaking of gross sin. 4. Willingness to e be strengthened in † faith. And 5. A long
With an exposition upon the same.

Expos. || Q. Why is it necessary that he that comes to the Lords Table, shou'd hate all sin?

A. 1. Because he that loves sin, can-not truly thirst after Christ, Matth. 11. 28. 2. Nor believe in God, Mark 1. 15. Acts 15.9. 1 John 3.3. 1 Cor. 15. 17. 3. Nor have communion with him, 2 Cor. 6. 14. Psalm 5.4. Amos 3. 3. 1 John 1. 6. 4. Sin is of a soiling nature, and doth defile Gods Ordinances unto us, Tit. 1. 15. Hag. 2. 13, 14. Heb. 10. 22. Numb. 9. 6. 2 Chron. 23. 19.

Q. Is it enough that we hate all sin?

A. It sufficeth not that we hate all sin, but this must be renewed by labor and care, Mat. 18. 3. Gen. 35.2. Amos 4. 12. Luke 3.12,13,14.

Q. How is this hatred to be renewed?

A. By striving, (1) To see more thoroughly the vileness and multitude of our particular sins, Revel. 3. 2, 3. Jer. 3. 13. (2) To purge the heart of them by self-judging and condemning, James 4. 8. 9, &c. (3) And to quicken the loathing of them in the heart, so that the very thought of them may be bitter, Jeremiah 31. 19. 2 Timothy 1. 6.

2. Why is faith required of all them that come to this heavenly banquet?

† A. We should desire to have our faith increased, before we come to the Lords Table: 1. Because faith was required of such who did desire to be baptized, Acts 8. 37. and 16. 33, 34. 2. It is the eye by which we discern, 2 Cor. 3. 18. John 3. 14, 15. and 8. 56. 3. And the hand by which we receive Christ, John 1. 12. and 6. 35. making this feast of the Lords exceeding sweet Psalm 119. 103.

2. Why must we come in love?

* A. Because when we come to the Lords Table, (1) We profess our selves to be children of the same Father, 2 Cor. 6. 18. (2) The redeemed of the same Lord, 1. Cor. 8: 6. (3) Such as be guided by the same Spirit, 1 Cor. 12. 13. (4) Ruled by the same word, (5) Fed
With an exposition upon the same.

(5) Fed at the same Table, 1 Cor. 16. 17. (6) Members of the same body, Eph. 4. 4, 5, 6. (7) And Heirs of the same Kingdom, Rom. 8. 14, 17. Should we not then heartily desire the good of one another both in soul and body? Eph. 4. 3. 1 Pet. 3. 8.

Q. What if a man finde himself weak in faith, and full of doubting?

A. He must bewail g his unbelief, pray for faith, seek to have his doubts resolved, and so receive to be further strengthened in believing, g Mark 9. 24. h Judges 6. 37, 38. Exodus 12. 1, 2, 3, 4.

Expos. || Q. Why must we bewail our unbelief?

A. Unbelief hinders the sweetness of the Lords Ordinances, John 6. 54, 63, 64. godly sorrow for it quickens a desire, and makes way for the increase of Faith, 2 Cor. 7. 10. wherefore doubtings are to be bewailed, but we must not thereby be kept from feasting with Christ.

Q. Why must not weakness of Faith hinder us from feasting with Christ?

† A. (1) Because the weak were admitted

(2) The Sacrament was ordained not only for the strong man, but even for babes in Christ, that they might wax stronger, Rom. 4. 11. 1 Cor. 3. 2. 3. they may therefore approach unto this Banquet.

(3) Such are invited by the Master of the Feast, Prov. 9. 6. Mat. 22. 9. Luke 14. 21, 23.

Q. How ought a man's heart to be affected in receiving the Sacrament?

A. With reverence, joy and comfort, meditating on the outward signs, and what they signify; the dainties prepared, and love of him that prepared them, our communion with Christ, his graces and faithful people, whereby the heart is stirred up to thanksgiving, 1 Exod. 3. 5. Gen. 28. 17. k Deut. 16. 15. 11 Cor. 11. 25. m 1 King. 8. 66.

Expos. * Q. How are we to behave ourselves in this heavenly banquet?

A. From that which was noted before touching the actions of the Minister,
With an exposition upon the same.

nister, and the people in the delivery and receiving of this Sacrament, we may learn how we ought to behave ourselves in this holy business.

Q. What is the exercise of the outward man?

A. We are to exercise, 1. The eye in seeing the Elements, and the actions belonging thereunto, Exod. 24. 8. 2. The ear in hearing the mysteries explained. 3. The hand in receiving the Elements. 4. And the taste in feeling the comfort of them.

Q. What is the exercise of the inward man?

A. We are to exercise, 1. The minde, 2. The heart.

Q. How is the minde to be exercised?

A. In meditating and remembering.

1. Of Christ's sufferings, 2. And the love of God.

Q. How doth the love of God appear towards us?

A. Not only, 1. In giving his Son to die for us, John 3. 16. 2. But also offering and sealing unto us our Redemption thereby.

Q. How is the heart to be exercised?

A. We
2. Of the heart.

A. We should stir up the heart,

1. To receive Christ, Isa. 64. 7. 2. To mourn for sin, Zach. 12. 10. 3. To desire God's favor, 4. To rejoice in his love, Neb. 8. 10. 5. To stand in awe before him, Psalm 5. 7. Fearing after an holy manner, lest by any unruly affections, or unfitting gesture, we shew the least want of due esteem, and joy in his presence, Psalm 2. 11. and 44. 1 Cor. 11. 10. and 14. 40.

Q. What must we do after we have received?

A. We must endeavor to finde an increase of Faith, Love, and all saving graces, abounding more and more in well-doing, Prov. 4. 18. Ezek. 47. 12.

Expos. Q. Why must we endeavor to abound in well doing after we have received?

A. (1) Because the receiving of the Lords Supper is a renewing of our covenant with God, Exod. 13. 1. Gen. 17. 11. 2 Chron. 30. 19. (2) Therein we feed spiritually upon Christ, 1 Cor. 10. 16. (3) We are refreshed by him, (4) And by Faith we draw vertue from him, Rom. 8. 2. Phil. 4. 13. therefore after
With an exposition upon the same.

after we have received, we must grow more in grace and knowledge.

Q. If we speed not well after we have received, what may be the cause?

A. If it speed not well after we have received, 1. Commonly our want of preparation was the cause thereof, 2. Or defects willingly admitted in the act of receiving, 2 Chron. 30. 19, 20. Judges 10. 14, 15.

Q. What rules are to be observed in this matter?

A. 1. Care must be taken, that out of dislike of ourselves, we do not dislike or deny that measure of grace which the Lord bestoweth upon us: 2. Neither must we be over-hasty.

Q. Why so?

A. Because the Lord doth not always pour his gifts upon us, the same day, that we come unto him in his holy Ordinances, Psalm 97. 11. Cant. 3. 4. and 5. 6.

Q. What order hath the Lord left in his Church to keep his Ordinances from contempt?

A. The unruly should be admonished, the obstinate percommunicated, and the penitent after their fall † restored, and q comforted, o I Thess. 5. 14. p I Cor. 5. 4. q 2 Cor. 2. 6, 7.
A short Catechism.

Expos. || Q. Who are unruly?

A. They are unruly, 1. Who are inordinate, 2. Who live dissolutely: 3. And such who are known by speech, gestures and deeds, not to walk according to the rule of the word, or busy-bodies, vain boasters, idle, &c. 2 Thess. 3. 11, 12. 4. Or such as be fallen into any outward sin, 1 Corin. 6. 9.

Q. How must the unruly be dealt withal?

† A. Such persons being members of the Church, 1 Cor. 5. 11, 12. should be reprehended.

Q. For what must reprehension be given?

A. 1. For their sin, 2. Certainly known both to be sin, 3. And to be committed by them, Lev. 19. 17.

Q. How must admonition be performed?

A. Admonition must be performed with 1. Meekness, 2. And discretion, Gal. 6. 1, 2. 2 Tim. 2. 25. 3. Sometimes also with zeal, 4. And with severity.
Q. What is the rule of discretion and zeal in admonition?

A. That it be fitted. 1. To the person sinning. 2. The sin committed. 3. And the manner of doing, Numb. 12. 9, 10.

Q. What if the sin be private?

A. If the sin be private, known to few, the admonition must be private, Mat. 18. 15. Luke 17. 3.

Q. What if it be known to part of the Church?

A. If known to part of the Church, admonition must be before them that know it.

Q. What if it be known to the whole Church?

A. If it be known to the whole Church, the admonition must be public-like, 1 Tim. 5. 20. unless it be known by their fault, that have published it without cause.

Q. What if the fault be published without cause?

A. (1) Always respect is to be had to the condition of the party offending, 1 Thess. 5. 14. (2) And that must be done, which tends most to the edification.

Q. What if admonition at first prevail not?

A. If admonition at the first prevail not, then it is to be doubled, until either the offender be reformed, or declare his obstinacy, Tit. 2. 10, 11.

Q. Who are to be held obstinate?

A. Such are to be held obstinate, 1. Who despise the Churches admonition, 2. And will by no means be reclaimed from their sin, notwithstanding the long-suffering which the Church hath used towards them, Mat. 18. 17. Tit. 2. 10, 11. 2 Tim. 2. 25.

Q. What is it to be excommunicated?

A. To be excommunicated is to be debarred from, 1. The publique ordinances of God, 2. And the society of the faithful, both publique and private, 1 Cor. 5. 3, 11, 12. 1 Tim. 1. 20. 2 Thess. 3. 6, 14.

Q. Is the excommunicant person to be debarred from all society of the faithful?

A. No: but so far as necessity will permit, either in respect of their general, or particular calling, 1 Corin. 7. 20.
With an exposition upon the same. 237

Q. What is the end of these censures?

A. The end of these censures is,
   (1) The humbling, (2) And the reforming of the sinner, 1 Cor. 5.5. 2 Thess. 3.14. (3) The terrifying of others, 1 Tim. 5.10. (4) And keeping the Ordinances of God in reverence, 1 Cor. 5.6,7.

Q. Why is the penitent to be restored and comforted?

† A. 1. Because the censures of the Church are medicines to cure, not poisons to destroy. 2. They are inflicted for to humble, and bring into the right way such as have gone astray.

Q. Who is to be esteemed penitent?

A. That sinner who doth, 1. Truly lament the evil of his life, 2. And is unfainedly sorrowful.

Q. Why is such one to be received again into the Church?

A. He is to be received again into the bosom of the Church, and comforted, lest Satan by his devices should bring him to disaster, 2 Cor. 2.10,11. 1 Thess. 5.14.

Q. Besides the forenamed means, are there there not some other, profitable for increase of faith?

A. Pea, reading || 02 || hearing the Scriptures read in publique and \(\text{c in * private || meditation, u and w conference,}||\) Revel. 1. 3. 1 Acts 13. 15. t Acts 8. 28. u Luke 2. 51. w Heb. 3. 13.

Expos. || 2. What is the benefit of reading, or hearing the Scriptures read?

A. The reading or hearing of the Scripture read, doth 1. Furnish the minde more with knowledge, 1 Pet. 1. 19. Prov. 1. 5. Dent. II. 19, 20. (2) And work upon the affections, Dent. 17. 18, 19. 2 Kings 22. 11, 19. Psalm 119. 93.

Q. How is the word to be applyed that it might work upon us?

A. We are to apply, 1. The Commandments for our direction. 2. The threatnngs to fear us from sin, or to humble us for it, 2 Chron. 34. 19, 27. (3) And the promises for our comfort and incouragement.

2. Why must the Scripture be read in publique?

† A. Because, 1. As God requires that that the Scripture should be read in publicque, 1 Thess. 5. 27. Col. 4. 16. 2. So thereby he hath promised, that his people may learn to fear him, Deut. 31. 12, 13.

Q. Why must we give attendance to private reading?

* A. Because private reading, 1. Makesthe publice Ministry more profitable, Acts 8. 30, 31. 2. It inableth us better to judge of the Doctrines taught, Acts 17. 11. 3. Thereby we are better fitted for the combate, 1 Tim. 4. 13, 15. 4. And many evils are thereby prevented, Isa. 8. 19, 20. Psal. 119. 9. Job 22. 21.

Q. What are the benefits of Meditation?

|| A. Meditation is available, 1. For the getting of grounded and settled knowledge, 2 Tim. 2. 7. Psalm 119. 99. 2. For the increase thereof, 1 Tim. 4. 13, 15. 3. It strengthneth memory, Psalm 119. 15, 16. 4. Enlargeth our delight in good, Psalm 104. 34. and 119. 16. 5. Discovereth corruption. 6. Purgeth the heart of idle and unprofitable wanderings. 7. Addeth life and strength to holy duties, Gen. 24. 63. Psal.
Psalm 143. 5, 6. (8) And hereby we grow more inwardly acquainted with God, Psal. 77. 10, 11, 12.

Q. When must this duty be practiced?
A. This duty must be practiced every day more or less, Psal. 119. 97.

Q. How must we confer?
† A. 1. With wisdom, Prov. 10. 32. and 15. 22. Psal. 37. 30. 2. With reverence, 1 Pet. 4. 11. 3. With love;

Q. What are the benefits of religious conference?
A. All such as do confer religiously shall thereby prevent, (1) Rotten speeches, Eph. 4. 29. (2) Hardness of heart, Heb. 3. 13. (3) And much other evil, Eccl. 5. 2. (4) They shall increase in knowledge, Prov. 1. 5. (5) Be resolved of their doubts, Coloss. 3. 16. 1 Thess. 5. 11. Job 16. 4, 5. (6) Be armed against falling, Acts 11, 23. Jude 20. Prov. 18. 8. Rom. 1. 11, 12. 1 Thess. 3. 2. Rom. 15. 32, 24. v.

Q. When must these duties be practi-

A. These duties must carefully be practised of every man, as he hath opportunity and means, Matth. 25. 27.
2 Cor. 8. 12.

Q. Hitherto of the ordinary means Whereby faith is increased: be there not

A. Yes: and these be holy x fasting, holy y feasting and religious z vows, x Luke 5. 35. y Esther. 9. 17.
z Psalm 50.14.

Q. What is meant by extraordinary duties?

|| A. By extraordinary duties are meant such, which be of more seldom and rare practice, though they must be used oft, as God giveth occasion, and when he calleth thereunto.

Q. What is an ho'y fast?
A. A religious a abstinence from all || b the labors of our calling and c i comforts of this life, so far as comeliness and necessity will permit, mit, that we might be more seriously and humbly before God, and more servant in prayer, a Hebr. 4. 16. b Lev. 23. 28. c Exod. 33. 5. d Dan. 9. 9, 11. Lev. 23. 27.

Expos. || Q. Why must we abstain from the labors of our calling in the day of a fast?

A. Because a fast is to be kept as a Sabbath unto God, Lev. 23. 28. Isa. 58. 13, 14. And therefore as upon the Sabbath, such business of this life must be avoided, that agree not with the Sabbath.

Q. What understand you by the comforts of this life?

† A. By the comforts of this life, we are to understand meat, drink, costly apparel, recreation, and all other delights, Dan. 10. 3. 1 Cor. 7. 5.

Q. What must be joyned with the exercise of fasting?

* A. With fasting must be joyned a serious meditation, 1. Of our sins, Ezra 9. 4, 6. Nehemiah 1. 6, 7. (2) Of Gods Judgements, Neh. 9. 35, 36, 37. (3) And of our special wants, Dan. 9. 11, 18.

Q. Who is a person fit for this exercise?

A. The
With an exposition upon the same. 253

A. The person meet for this exercise must be no novice in religion, Luk. 5. 36, 37. Mat. 9. 15, 16.

Q. How is a fast distinguished?

A. A fast is either, (1) Of one alone, 2 Sam. 12. 16. or (2) Of the whole family, Zach. 12. 12. or (3) Of a particular congregation, (4). Or of the whole Church in general, Judg. 20. 26.

Q. When ought we to fast?

A. When we 1. feel, or 2. e fear some grievous calamity upon us, or hanging over our heads, 3. want some special blessing, 4. are pressed with some special sin, 5. or go about some weighty matter, e Hest. 4. 16. Ezra 8. 21. f Acts 13. 2.

Expos. || Q. What call you grievous calamities?

A. Sword, famine, pestilence, strange unwonted sicknesses, unseasonable weather, &c. Ezikiel 14. 21. with Isa. 22. 12, 13.

Q. What judgements hang over our heads?

A. These judgements hang over our heads, which 1. Our sins, and the

Q. Why must we humble our soul in fasting, when we want some special blessing?

* A. Because notwithstanding the ordinary and daily prayers of his people, the Lord in great wisdom will suffer them to want some special good thing, that they may seek him more earnestly in the use of the duty of fasting, Judges 20. 28.

Q. What is an holy feast?

A. An extraordinary thanksgiving for some notable deliverance, out of some desperate danger; testified with fasting before God with joy and gladness, sending presents to our friends, and portions to the needy, 1 Chr. 16. 8. and 29. 10, 11. Neh. 8. 19. Hesb. 9. 22.

Expos. || Q. Why should the heart be prepared prepared to the extraordinary duty of thanksgiving?

A. Because in a day of extraordinary thanksgiving, there should be a serious remembrance of God's benefits, Psalm 116. 6. and 103. 2.

Q. How should the heart be affected with thanksgiving?

A. We should be stirred up, 1. After a fervent manner to yield praise to the Lord, Psalm 34. 3. and 35. 27. Exodus 15. 2. (2) And to rejoice before him heartily, Deut. 12. 12. (3) Tying our selves unto him by renewing our Covenant, John 2.9. Deut. 29. 3, 10, 11, 12, 13. 2 Chron. 15. 11, 12. (4) And learn to be more confident in him, having experience of his great goodness, Psalm 3. 5, 6. and 52. 9.

Q. What use of God's creatures is allowed on a day of thanksgiving?

† A. On the day of thanksgiving we may have a more liberal use of God's creatures, both in meat and apparel, then is ordinary, Neh. 8. 10. Hest. 9. 22.

Q. How must this be used?

A. This must be used in moderation.
on and sobriety, that men may be better fitted for the exercise of Religion, 1 Kings 8. 65.

Q. How must this exercise be performed, if it be publick?

A. This exercise, if it be publick, must be joyned with the preaching of the word.

Q. How if private?

A. If it be private, it must be joyned with the reading of the Scripture, or some holy exhortation, for the better stirring up of affection.

Q. What is a religious vow?

A. A solemn promise unto God, made by a fit person of some lawful thing, which is in his choice, to testify his love and thankfulness, Deut. 23. 21, 22. Prov. 20. 25.

Expos. || Q. What persons are fit to vow?

A. Such persons are fit to vow, who have knowledge, judgement, and ability to discern of a vow, and of the duties belonging to the performance of the same, Eccles. 5. 2.

Q. Why may not a man vow an unlawful, vile, or superstitious thing?

† A.
With an exposition upon the same. 247

† A. A man may not vow an unlawful, vile or superstitious thing, Deut. 23. 18. for 1. We are obliged to avoid all evil, yea all appearance of evil, 1 Thess. 5. 22. 2. It is presumption and rashness to vow that to God which he hath forbidden, and will not accept, Judges 11. 30, 31.

Q. Is it lawful to vow any thing to God that is impossible?

* A. What we are not able to perform either, 1. By reason of the common frailty of all men, Eccles. 5. 5. with 1 Cor. 7. 7. 2. Or by reason of our subjection unto others we may not vow, as the wife, child, servant, may not vow without the liberty of their superiors, Num. 30. 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 12.

Q. What things are to be held in our free choice, and what not?

A. That thing is not to be held in our free choice, which we are necessarily bound unto before our vow, Lev. 27. 26. Deut. 23. 22, 23.

Q. Is it not lawful to vow that which we are bound unto?

A. To quicken and stir us up the better to the performance of our duty, it is lawful to renew the Covenant and vow.
vow, which we made unto the Lord in Baptism, Psal. 119. 106.

Q. How were vows commonly made to God?

A. To God vows were commonly made with prayer, Gen. 28. 20. Psalm 61.5. and paid with thanksgiving, Psal. 65.1. & 66. 13,14. & 116.14. Job.2.9.

Q. When should vows be performed?

* A. Vows should be performed speedily, Eccles.5.5. Dent.23.23. Psal. 76. 11.

Q. What if we vow rashly?

A. If we vow rashly, the rashness is to be repented of, the vow otherwise lawful is to be performed.

Q. What if we vow an unlawful thing?

A. A vow should not in any wise be the bond of iniquity, Mat. 15. 5, 6. 1 Sam. 25. 22, 39. Acts 23. 21.

Q. Can faith, being wrought and confirmed in us, be fruitless and unprofitable?

A. No: for it worketh by love, Gal. 5. 6.

Expos. || Q. Why cannot faith be fruitless and unprofitable?

A. By faith we are knit unto Christ, Rom.
With an exposition upon the same.

Romans 11. 19, 20. Eph. 3. 17. and therefore it cannot be utterly fruitless, John 15. 5. seeing we receive the sap of grace from him, John 1. 16. Coloss. 1. 19.

Q. What is the principal work of faith?

A. It purifieth the heart, Acts 15. 9.

Expos. Q. What is it to purifie the heart?

A. To purifie the heart, is 1. To abate and crucifie the power of sin in the believer, 2. And by little and little to renew him in holiness and righteousness, Gal. 5. 24. and 6. 14.

Q. Who is the author of sanctification?

A. The Spirit of God is the author of sanctification, John 3. 5. 1 Cor. 6. 11. Gal. 5. 22. Rom. 8. 11.

Q. How doth faith purifie the heart?

A. Faith is the instrument of the holy Ghost, whereby the heart is cleansed, Col. 2. 12.

Q. What followeth thereupon?

A. Fighting * and combating against sin & corruption, Gal. 5. 17.

Expos. * Q. What is the cause of this com-combate in every regenerate person?

A. Because those that are sanctified, are sanctified in every part, Col. 2. 11. 1. Thess. 5. 23. Eph. 4. 24. Col. 3. 10. and yet but in part, Prov. 30. 2. 3. Phil. 3. 12. Rom. 8. 13. Col. 3. 5. so that grace and corruption are mingled together in the best, Romans 6. 13. and 7. 25.

Q. How many kindes of combates may be in a man. and which of them is peculiar to a true believer?

A. This spiritual combate, is not 1. Of the minde with the will, or the will with the affections onely, Numb. 22. 34. 2. Nor of divers desires onely, in respect of sundry and different considerations. 3. But of the part regenerate, with the part unregenerate, Gal. 5. 17. as of the minde regenerate, with the minde unregenerate, and so of the will, &c.

Q. What are the properties of this combate?

A. This combate is 1. Continual, 2. Against the first motions of sin, and not onely against outward gross evils, Rom. 8. 13. Eph. 4. 22. Romans 6. 17.
Q. What is the effect hereof?
A. The effect hereof is, that a man sanctified cannot do what he would, Gal. 5. 17. sometimes he is grievously foiled by the flesh, Matth. 26. 40, 41. but in the end, the Spirit shall get the victory, 1 John 4. 4. and 5. 4. Rom. 8. 2. Rev. 2. 26.

Q. What else?
A. A renouncing of all evil in affection and of * gross sin, in life and conversation, 1 Ams 2. 38. in Acts 19. 18, 19.

Expos. || Q. Why must a purged heart renounce all evil in affection?
A. A pure heart can no more delight in evil, then a clean fountain can send forth corrupt waters, Psalm 24. 4. Isaiah 32. 6, 8. Prov. 12. 5. therefore a purged heart must renounce all evil, Ezekiel 36. 26, 27. Jer. 32. 39, 40.

Q. Why must he renounce all gross sin in life and conversation?
* A. Because the will is the commander of the outward man, 2 Cor. 8. 11. if it be turned unto God, the conversation must needs be reformed, Jer. 3. 14, 17. 1 Sam. 12. 20, 21. 1 Kings 8. 48, 49.

Q. What
Q. What is a third thing that followeth hence?

A. Love not and delight in that which is good, joined with a sincere desire, purpose, and endeavor daily to amend whatsoever is amiss, and to plead a life according to the law of God, as Psal. 119. 97. 0 Phil. 3. 13, 14. Acts 1. 23. 0 Psal. 119. 6.

Expos. * Q. Whence comes it, that the believer doth love and delight in that which is good?

A. The same spirit which wrought the grace of faith, and cleanseth the heart, doth sweetly incline it both to long after, and to cleave with joy to that which is good, Ezek. 36. 27. and 11. 19, 20. Romans 6. 19. Psalm 86. 11.

Q. Why doth the believer daily endeavor to reform what is amiss?

|| A. Because the true believer hath laid aside the practice and desire of all sin, Psal. 119. 113, 128, 163.

Q. In what respect hath he laid aside the practice and desire of all sin?

A. Not only, 1. Out of a foresight of the ill consequences, and fearful evils evils that may fall, 1 Kings 8.47. Ezek. 18.28. Luke 15.17. (2) But even out of love to the chiefest good, and all goodness, 2 Cor. 5.14.
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. In what manner?

A. 1. With a true purpose, Psalm 119.106. Acts 11.23. (2) And a well-advised deliberation, Ruth 1.16. therefore he is willing to espie out and reform whatsoever is out of order, Psal. 119.59.

Q. Have all the like measure of grace?

A. All have not the like measure of grace, Rom. 12.3. neither can with like victory overcome their corruption, Rom. 14.1. and 15.1. Phil. 3.15.

Q. What use is to be made hereof?

Q. Why doth the believer resolve to lead his life according to the law of God?

* A. 1. The redeemed of the Lord do see that many ways they are bound to obey, Psalm 100.2,3. and 86.13. 1 Cor. 6.19,20. 1 Pet. 1.17,18. 2. And also that it is a blessed thing to bear the yoke, Matth. 11.29. 1 John 5.3.
Q. Wherein is the sum of the Law contained?

A. In the Ten Commandments, q Deut. 10. 4. and 4. 13.

Expos. Q. Where is the full exposition of the Commandments to be found?

A. These Ten Commandments are an abridgement of the whole Law, the full exposition whereof is to be found in the books of the Prophets, and Apostles, and holy men, who wrote by inspiration of the Spirit, Exod. 34. 27. 1 Kings 8. 9. Matt. 22. 40.

Q. What Rules are to be observed for the right understanding of the decalogue?

A. For the right understanding of the Ten Commandments, called the Decalogue, observe these rules.

1. The Law is spiritual, binding the soul and conscience to entire obedience, Romans 7. 14. Matthew 5. 21, 22, 27, 28.

2. The meaning of the precepts is to
With an exposition upon the same. To be drawn from the main scope and end thereof, Matthew 5. 33, 34, 35, 36, 37.

3. The Commandment which forbiddeth a sin, commandeth the contrary duty; and the Commandment which requireth a duty, forbiddeth the contrary sin, Psalm 34. 12, 14. Isa. 1. 16, 17. Mark 3. 4.

4. Under one vice expressly forbidden, all of the same kinde, and that necessarily depend thereon, as also the least cause, occasion or inticement thereunto are forbidden, Mat. 5. 21, 22, 27, 28. 1 John 3. 15.

5. Under one duty expressed, all of the like nature are comprehended, as all means, effects, and whatsoever is necessarily required for the performance of that duty.

Q. Is one and the same thing then commanded in divers precepts?

A. In divers, yea in all the Commandments, one and the same duty may in divers respects, be commanded, and one and the same sin may be forbidden.

6. Where the more honorable person is expressed, as the man, let the woman man understand that the precept concerneth her.

7. Where the duty of one man standing in relation to another is taught, there is taught also the duty of all that stand in the like relation one unto another.

Q. In what particular may this be explained?

A. As when the duty of one inferior towards his superior is taught, there is taught the general duty which all superiors owe to those that be under them, which inferiors owe to them that be over them, and which equals owe one another.

Q. How are they divided?

A. Into two.

Expos. Q. What may be observed from the Commandments, as they are set down together?

A. From the Commandments, as they are set down we may observe;

1. That the Law is most perfectly, 1. Wise, 2. Just, 3. Equal, 4. and strictly binding the consciences, 5. And that of all men without exception, 6. And that continually, Deut. 4.5, &c. Psalm 19.7, &c.
With an exposition upon the same.

2. For order of Doctrine, there is a perfect distinction of one Commandment from another; but as touching practice, they are so nearly knit together, that no one can be perfectly obeyed, unless all be obeyed, and he that breaketh one Commandment, transgresseth the whole law, Dent. 27. 26. Gal. 3. 10. James 2. 10, 11.

3. The love of God is the ground of our love to our neighbor, 1 John 4. 20. and 5. 1, 2.

4. Our love to our neighbor is a testimony of our love to God, Rom. 13. 8, 9, 10.

5. Such as be truly religious must have respect unto all Gods Commandments, Psalms 119. 6.

6. The duties of the first Table are most excellent; and the breaches thereof of more grievous then of the second, if equal proportion be observed, and comparison be made, 1 Sam. 2. 25. Isa. 7. 13.

7. If two Commandments cannot be performed at once, the lesser must give place to the greater: so the love of God must be preferred before the love of our neighbor, and moral duties.
duties before outward circumstances,
Hos. 6. 6. Matth. 12. 4.
8. The law is set forth as a rule of life to them that are in Christ, therefore our obedience is to be performed unto God in and through Jesus Christ,
Mat. 19. 17, 18, 19. Exod. 19. 6, 7, 8. with 20. 1, &c.
9. All sins here forbidden are to be shunned, and that both always, and at all times. The duties commanded are perpetual, to be practised when the Lord giveth opportunity, and calleth thereunto.

Q. Which are the Commandments of the first Table?
A. The four first, and they teach us the duty which we owe unto God immediately.

Q. Which are the Commandments of the second Table?
A. The six last, which instruct us in our duty towards our neighbour, Eph. 6. 2.

Q. Which is the first Commandment?
A. I am the Lord thy God, &c. Thou shalt have none other Gods before my face.

A. It is a special means to preserve from 1. Pride, 2. Security, 3. Hardness of heart, 4. And falling into sin, Heb.3.13. Psal.4.4.

Q. What good doth it procure?

A. 1. It doth quicken to prayer, Psal.19.12. (2) It is a good step to repentance, Psal.119.59. Hag.1.5. (3) It setteth in a Christian course, Psal.39.1. (4) It provokes forward in godliness, Psal.119.59,60. (5) And it makes us charitable toward others, Gal.6.4.
Q. What is it to judge a man's self?
A. To judge a man's self, is to passe an unpartial sentence against himself, agreeable to the word of God, according to the measure of that iniquity which by examination he findeth in himself, Ezek. 16. 61. & 20. 43. Dan. 9. 8. Luke 15. 18, 19.

Q. What benefits come thereby?
An. 1. This awakeneth the heart, Ezek. 36. 31. (2) It maketh us afraid of sin, Gen. 39. 9. (3) It spurreth us to sue to the throne of grace, 1 Kin. 8. 38. (4) And it preventeth the judgement of God, 1 Cor. 11. 31.

Q. What is watchfulness?
A. Watchfulness, is 1. A narrow, 2. A careful, 3. And a continual keeping, observing, and over-seeing of our hearts and all our ways, Prov. 4. 23.

Q. How is watchfulness necessary?
An. It is (1) Exceeding necessary, because 1. Of our selves we are apt to erre, Psal. 59. 10. 2. And have many occasions besides to draw us away from godliness, Luke 14. 18, 20. (2) And it is exceeding profitable.

Q. How may it appear to be profitable?
A. It is profitable, (1) To prevent or withstand Satan, 1 Pet. 5. 8. Mat. 26. 41. (2) To keep under lusts, (3) To avoid and cut off strayings and wandrings of minde and life, 2 Tim. 4. 5. 1 Cor. 16. 13. Psal. 101. 2. (4) To keep the heart in good order, (5) And to eschew dangerous, 1. Decays, 2. Falls, 3. And discomforts, which otherwise men shall run into, 2 Sam. 11. 2. 1 Tim. 2. 14. 2 Corinth. 11. 3.

Q. What is it to redeem time?
An. To redeem time, is so to husband it, that every moment thereof may be spent for our best advantage, Eph. 5. 16. 2 Cor. 11. 3.

Q. What is it to redeem time?
A. To redeem time is so to husband it, that every moment thereof may be spent for our best advantage, Eph. 5. 16. Col. 4. 5.

Q. Why is time to be redeemed?
An. 1. Because time is a precious thing, 2. Being lost it is unrecoverable, though God may pardon it to the penitent, Esay 1. 16, 18. therefore we must redeem it.

Q. What time is to be redeemed?

Qu. Why must the heart be stored with good?

† An. Because when mans heart is emptied of evil, it will quickly gather faith again (as garments will dust,) unless it be fraught with good, Mat. 12.
43, 44, 45.

Quest. Why must faith be preserved?

* An. Because if faith decay in us,
(as needs it must, unless it be carefully stirred up, preserved and exercised, 2 Tim. 1. 6.) godliness must needs with-ther, 1 Tim. 1. 5.

Qu. Why must godliness wither if faith decay?

A. Because (1) Faith is the victory whereby we overcome the world,
1 John 5. 4. (2) Thereby we wrestle against sin, by the Almighty power of Jesus Christ, Gal. 2. 20. (3) And our lives must needs be full of doub-ings,

ings, 2. Or security, 3. Drowned with carnal delights, 1 Kings 11. 4. and sinful pleasures, (4) The word will lose its efficacy, Heb. 4. 2. (5) And the exercises of religion their sweetness, if faith decay.

Qest. How is faith to be preserved?

A. To the end that faith might be preserved, we must, (1) Value it above Gold and Silver, 2 Peter 2. 1. (2) Often meditate upon the sweetness, Psalm 119. 103. and 139 17. 2. Constancy, Rev. 1. 5. 2 Corinthians, 1. 20. 3. And perpetuity of the most precious and free promises, which are the grounds of faith, Hosea 14. 5. Ezek. 36. 22. (3) We must walk according to the rules thereof, (4) learn to exercise it, living thereby, Hebr. 10. 38. Romans 1. 17. (5) And 1. Sincerely, 2. Constantly, 3. And Conscientiously use all those means, whereby faith is wrought or nourished.

Q. How else?

and constancy, use the means of grace before prescribed in one estate as well as another, Eph. 6. 13,14. Prov. 2.3,4,5. Col. 4.2. Job 27.10.

Expos. Q. Why must a Christian take unto him the Christian armour?

A. Because all Christians are called to be soldiers, Rev. 12.7. to fight under Christ Jesus their Captain.

Q. Against what enemies must we fight?

A. Against, 1. The flesh, Rom. 8.13. (2) The world, Job 2.10. (3) And the Devil, Pet. 5.8,9.

Q. What are the properties of this enemy?

A. He is (1) Spiritual, (2) Subtle, (3) And a malicious enemy, Eph. 6.12. Rev. 20.2. Mat. 13.28,39. (4) That can never be appeased: they had need therefore take unto them the whole armour of God.

Q. What is implied in this, that we must take unto us the Christian armour?

An. We must 1. Daily put it on, 2. Continually keep it on, 3. And at all times have it ready for use.
With an exposition upon the same. 315

Q. For what end must it be put on?
   A. 1. To repel, 2. And to quench the fiery darts of the Devil.

Q. What are the parts of this armour?
   A. The parts of this armour are,
      1. Sincerity, 2. Love of righteousness,

Q. How is it kept on?
   A. It is kept on, 1. By earnest prayer, 2. Watchfulness, 3. And by holy meditation.

Q. What privileges doth God afford unto his children in this life who labour according to his Will to grow in grace?
   A. 1. They may be assured of his favour, and 2. Fatherly care over them, 3. The direction of his spirit, 4. Their growth in grace, and 5. Perseverance to the end, 1 John 3.14. and 4. 13. John 1.12. 1 Tim. 4. 10. Matt. 10.30. 143. 10. 1 Col. 1. 9,10. Phil. 1.6.

A short Catechism.

A. It is first of all to be observed, that none of these privileges can be enjoyed without great strife and labour, 1 Cor. 16.30.

Q. What assurance of God's favour may be obtained?

† A. 1. Not only some uncertain hope, or dim light of God's favour, 2. But assurance thereof may in this life be obtained, Job 19.25. 2 Cor. 5.1. 2 Tim. 4.8. and 1.12.

Q. How is that proved?

A. Because 1. The Scripture exhorts us to make our calling and election sure, 2 Peter 1.10. 2. It layeth many sufficient grounds of assurance, 1 John 4.13. and 3.14. Philip. 1.6. 3. And proposeth divers examples of them, who have attained thereunto, Rom. 8. 34; 38, 39. Luke 2. 29. Hebr. 11.9, 10.

Q. How may it appear that this is a rare privilege?

Ans. This is a rare and precious privilege, 1. Because it may constantly be enjoyed, 2. With an increase thereof, Hos. 13.14. Mal. 3.6. 1 Thess. 4. 1, 10. 3. It is always accompanied with joy unspeakable, and sweet contentment.

tentment, Cant. i. 1. Psal. 4. 6, 7. John 8. 56. 1 Peter 1. 8. 4. The longer it is possessed the sweeter it is.

Q. * Is not God's favour most sweet when it is first apprehended?*

A. Dainty meats may become loathsome, but we cannot forfeit of God's favour, Psal. 17. 15.

Q. What particulars are comprehended in this, that God would have his children assured of his fatherly care?

* A. God would have his children know, (1) That in every state he will save and uphold them, Psal. 9. 10. and 32. 6, 7. even when his wrath doth burn against his enemies, Esa 33. 4, 5, 6. and 27. 7, 8. (2) That he will teach them the good way, which they ought to follow, Psal 25. 12, 14. Prov. 3. 3. (3) That he will give his Angels charge over them, (4) And carry them in his bosom, Psal 91. 11, 12, &c.

Q. How may they be assured of his fatherly care?

A. The amiable, sweet and comfortable titles, that Christ giveth to

Q. How may it be proved that the faithful may assure themselves of their growth in grace?

A. || Because (1) The servants of Christ are exhorted, and commanded to grow in grace and godliness, 1 Thess. 4.1,10. Col. 1.10. (2) There are patterns of holy men left unto us in Scriptures, that have grown rich in wisdom and holiness, Rev. 2.19.

Q. If God command us to grow in grace, how doth it thence follow that we may be assured of it?

A. What God commandeth in the Gospel that Christians should believe, he will enable them to do, John 6.63. 1 John 5.3.

Q. If others have grown rich, is this any assurance to us?

A. What ordinary graces any of the faithful did obtain, the same may all the faithful look for, Zach. 12.10. Eph.
With an exposition upon the same.

Eph. 4.4. 2 Pet. 1.1. If it be for their good, Rom. 8.28.

Q. How is that proved?
An. Because 1. They are all under the same covenant, 2. Have the same Redeemer and Sanctifier, 3. And have the same promises made unto them, 2 Cor. 6. 18. 1 Tim. 2.5, 6. Ephes. 4.30. & 2.12.

Q. What other privileges doth God afford unto them?
Anf. (6) They are || 1. Kept w from, 2. Comforted in, 3. And delivered out x of many troubles; (7) Taught to y use all estates aright, (8) Preserved z from * foul offences, (9) Enabled || to a rise again, if they b fall, (10) Instructed to † live godly, (11) And have c possession * of the word, w Psal. 32.10. Expos. || Qu. How are the godly freed from the troubles that others run into?
A. 1. The godly shun the sins which others follow with greediness, Gen. 39.9.
39.9. & 42.18. Neh. 5. 15. Job 31. 1. (2) They order their affairs with godly wisdom, Acts 23. 6. & 22. 26. & 18. 11. with 19. 37. (3) And they foresee the evil to come, and hide themselves, Prov. 22. 3. & 26. 12. therefore they are preserved from many troubles that others fall into.

Q. Do not the godly oft run into many troubles from which they might be free?

A. For want of care and watchfulness, they often draw no small grief upon their heads, from which they might be free, if they would carefully subdue their passions, and look unto their ways, Cant. 5. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6. 2 Sam. 11, 2, 3. Psal. 51. 8.

Q. How are the godly taught to use prosperity?

† A. In prosperity the godly are taught, 1. To edifie themselves, Acts 9, 31. 2. To walk in meekness, 3. Lowliness, 4. Fear, 5. Comfort of the Lord, 6. And be doing good, Job 14. 15, 21.

Q. How are they taught to use adversity?

A. In adversity, they are taught 1. To

(1) To be humble, (2) Patient, (3) To pray, 1 Pet. 5. 6. Job i. 22. Psalm 39.9. and 30.7,8. (4) To grow out of love with this world, 2 Corinth. 5. 1,2,3,4. (5) To prize the Lords favour, Psalm 73. 26,28. (6) To cleave close unto God, Esay 19. 20. (7) To examine their hearts, (8) And to reform their ways, Lam. 3. 40. Zeph. 2. 1. Esay 27. 9.

Q. How are they taught to use their calling?

Q. Be not the godly sometimes overtaken with reproachful evils?

* A. If the godly be overtaken with some reproachful evil, Gen. 9. 21. and 19. 33. it is (1) Not ordinary, Rom. 8. 1. 2 Corinth. 5. 7. but for a time, Psalm 37. 34. (2) When they have cast cast off their armour, and neglected their watch, 2 Sam. 11. 1, 2. Matthew 26. 40, 41.

Q. Why doth the Lord suffer them to fall?

A. The Lord suffers them to fall, 1. To let them see their weakness, 2. To correct their carelessness, 3. To cure in them pride of heart, and contempt of others: 4. And he orders their slips for the 1. Glory of his great Name, 2. For the comfort of the weak, 3. And for the good of the party fallen, after that by repentance he is risen again.

Q. How is it proved that the righteous may be assured of their perseverance?

|| An. 1. The righteous may fall, but the Lord will not suffer them to perish, John 10. 28. 2. Christ hath prayed for them, John 17. 20. Luke 22. 32. 3. The immortal seed abideth in them, 1 John 3. 9. 4. The spirit of God doth quicken them, Rom. 8. 2, 11. so that afterward they take heart and courage again to fight against sin and Satan.

Q. Are
With an exposition upon the same.

Q. Are not the godly sometimes thrown down?
A. Yes: but they can never be utterly vanquished, though for a time they be thrown down, 2 Cor. 4. 8,9. Mat. 16.18.

Q. How are the faithful instructed to live godly?
† A. If the faithful seek unto the Lord, he will teach them with 1. Delight, 2. And with comfort to live godly in all places, and callings, Prov. 2. 3,4,9. Esay 30.21.

Q. Do they not finde much rebellion in themselves?
A. They do finde the flesh rebelling against the Spirit, Gal. 5. 17. Psal: 42.5,11.

Q. Why?
A. (1.) So that they might not truft to themselves, but in the Lord, Prov. 3. 5,6. (2) That they might no longer live then finde need to pray, Lord strengthen me, 1 Thess. 5.17. (3) That they might be thankful to God for the mercies they have received, Psal. 54.6,7. (4) That they may not triumph before the victory, nor walk in security, as though they had no enemy, 1 Pet. 5.8,9. (5) And that by how much the fight is more, 1. Painful, 2. Sharp, 3. And difficult; by so much the victory should be the more, 1. Delightful, 2. Sweet, 3. And glorious, Rom.16.20. Rev.1.2.10.

Q. What is it to possess the word?

* A. The word of God is possessed, when it is 1. Received truly as our own, 2. And is kept and laid up safely, as a treasure in our minds and hearts.

Q. Why is the Word to be laid up in the heart?

A. So that we may have it in readiness 1. For our direction, 2. And for our comfort, 3. And to rule over us with an holy and universal sovereignty, Luke 2.51. Col.3.16,17. Psal. 119.111,112.33,34.

Question. Do all the godly, or any at all times enjoy all these privileges?

A. No: some are ignorant of them, not believing, or at least faintly believing that there are such; others are careless, who prize

Quest. What other hinderances do deprive Christians of these priviled-ges?

A. d Inordinate passions, as fear, anger, self-love, pride, love of pleasure, cares of the world, and earthly incumbrances; and inconstancy in good Duties: tem-tations also to distrust do keepe under many, d James 4. tation.

1,2,3.

Question. How should a man bridle and reform these unruly passions ?

Answer. Let 1. Him highly esteem a Christian life, 2. Pray earently, 3. Set himself most against the corruptions that be strongest in him, 4. Shun the occasions of sin, 5. Hide the Commandment in his heart,

Y 3 Q. How
Q. How may a man overcome his temptations to distrust?

A. 1. He must not give credit to Satan's suggestions against God's truth, 2. But consider of God's 3. Power, 4. Goodness, 5. Unchangeableness, 6. Former 1. mercies, 7. And free grace in giving us his Son; 8. so that weakness, unworthiness, want of feeling comfort should not dismay him, 9. Mat. 4. 3, 4. h Mat. 8. 2. 10. Esay 40. 28. i Psal. 51. 12. k Jer. 31. 3. 1. Psal. 77. 11. m Rom. 5. 8, 9.

Expos. || Q. How are we to consider of God's power and love?

A. That God is in power all-sufficient, so that he can help us, Eph. 3. 20. and in love everlasting, John 13. 1. 2 Thess. 2. 16. Jer. 31. 3.

Q. What use are we to make thereof?

A. Seeing that he hath once loved us, we may be assured that he will never leave us, Phil. 4. 19.

Q. To whom doth God give Christ? 1 An. God gives Christ to them (1) That are lost in themselves, Esay 61.
With an exposition upon the same.

61.1,2. Mat. 9. 12,13. (2) And the weak as well as the strong are partakers of his merits, 1 John 2.1.

Q. Have not Christians reason to doubt in respect of their weakness?

An. Strength of grace in us, and foundness of a Christian conversation, is not the root of comfort; neither should weakness, or unworthiness in us breed doubting of our salvation, Heb.10.22.

Quest. What is the ground of comfort?

A. The ground of all comfort is, that God of his free grace hath given his Son to us miserable sinners, even to as many as believe in him, 1 John 2.2. & John 3.16.

Q. Can the weak faith lay hold upon Christ?

A. The weak faith doth lay hold upon Christ, 1. As truly, though 2. Not so comfortably as the strong doth, 1 John 2.12,13,14.

Q. What else must be done?

A. 3. Consider what promises the Lord hath made, to keep and uphold us, 4. What o incouragements he hath given us to believe; || 5. And how acceptable a thing it is p that we should so do, n Mat. 16. 18. Luke 22. 32. o 1 John 3. 23. p Matth. 8. 10. and 15. 28. Rom. 4. 20.

Expos. || Q. What encouragements hath God given us to believe?

A. (1) God commandeth, persuadeth and intreateth the thirsty and burdened to believe, (2) God hath bound himself by covenant unto them, Esay 43. 25. (3) He hath sealed it by the Sacraments, (4) And confirmed the same by oath, Gen. 22. 16, 17. Psal. 105. 9. Luke 1. 73.

Q. What if our misery be deep?

A. The deeper our misery is, the more we glorifie his name by resting upon him for succour, Psalm 22. 1. Rom. 4. 18, 20.

Q. What other things are to be learned for the overcoming of these temptations?

Answ. 6. We must judge our selves q not by present † feeling, o2 by our own r discerning the fruits of grace, but by that which we s have felt, and the t fruits of of grace which appear to other, q Psalm 116. 11. Psalm 13. 1. r Psalm 51. 10. f Psalm 77. 11,12. t 2 Corineth. 10. 11.

Expos. Q. Why must not a Christian judge himself by his own feeling?

Answer 1. Because a man may have faith, that feels no comfort;
2. And grace, that sees not the fruits of grace, Psalm 22. 1. and 77. 8,9.

Q. Why may a man that hath grace feel no fruits thereof?

An. (1) Because the soul is sometimes sick, Ezek. 34. 4,16. Cant. 3. 5.
(2) And sometimes in a swound; Cantic. 5. 6. (3) Sometimes we judge amiss of our estate, Psal. 116. 10,11; and 77. 10.

Q. How do we judge amiss of our own estate?

A. 1. By observing what motions we have to evil, but not how we resist them; 2. By supposing we have no grace.

Q. Why do we then think we have no grace?

A. Be-
A Short Catechism.

A. Because we have not 1. What grace we desire, 2. Or because we find not ourselves at all times alike affected and comforted, or else 3. Because we want what others have, or we conceive them to have.

Q. How is this trial erroneous?

A. Because God gives not all graces to one man, nor to all in the same measure, Eph. 4:7. Zach. 12:8.

Q. What other things occasion this mistaking?

An. 1. It is the property of men in affliction, to admire small things in others, and deny great and many graces in themselves: 2. Likewise the vastness of desire causeth that which is much in comparison, to seem nothing; 3. And Satan works upon the timerous disposition of some.

Q. How doth Satan work upon their timerous disposition?

A. 1. He persuades them that they have fearfully consented to those suggestions, which they alwaies abhorred, and in which they never took delight, 2. Or that they wilfully offend, when some sinful motions arise in their hearts; hearts; to which they do not consent, but which they resist, praying to God for forgivenes. and assistance.

Q. Is there any other reason of our mistaking?
A. Yes, because we in temptation want one grace, which accompanies faith, to wit, joy, Job.8.56. 1 Pet. 1.8. we conclude that we have no faith at all.

Qu. Doth not joy ever accompany faith?
A. Faith and joy be not inseparable companions, Job 13.15. Heb.11.1. Psal.77.2,3. the violence of temptation hindring the sense of mercy, when God doth with-hold comfort. For which causes, we must not overmuch trust our selves, or credit our feeling, but give credit to the testimony of the godly and faithful.

Q. What may be a further help beside?
A. 7. It is good to examine our hearts, and use the advice w of others; but we must know withal, that groaning after, and labouring...
ing to rest our wearied souls upon the promises of grace, being never satisfied until our doubtfulness be removed, will bring a good end, v Psal. 4. 4. w 1 Thess. 5. 14. x Mat. 11. 28.

Expos. * Q. Why should a man examine his heart in that case?

Answ. Because God withholdeth, or with-draweth comfort sometimes, 1. By reason of some secret sin, not yet repented of; 2. Or he suffereth Satan to buffet us, that we might more seriously repent of some corruption, Job 40. 3, 4, 5, 6. with 42. 6. 2 Corinth. 12. 7.

Q. What doth God teach us by such temptations?

A. Hereby the Lord doth 1. Correct our not prizing comfort at a high rate, Cant. 5. 3, 4, 5. 2. And our forgetfulness to praise him for it.

Q. In what manner must a man try himself?

A. We ought wisely to make trial of our ways, 1. Neither sparing any sin, 2. Nor censuring that to be sin which is just and lawful, 3. Not making king light account of any sin: 4. Nor yet calling our repentance into question, because 1. Either some things have been amiss, 2. Or we have not attained to perfection.

Q. Do the fruits of the spirit alwaies appear in the faithful?

Ans. No: They are y obscured 1. In our first * conversion, 2. In the days || of z security, 3. When we 3 leave our first love, 4. In time of b temptation * o 2 some || relapse c into sin, y Luke 5. 37, 38. z 1 Cor. 3.1. a Rev. 2.4. b Psal. 6.1, 2, 3. c Psal. 51. 10.

Expos. * Qu. Why are the graces of the spirit obscure in our first conversion?

Ans. 1. Because at our first conversion we are as new born babes who have the truth of mans nature, but the perfection of it groweth with age, 1 Corinth. 3.1. Heb. 5. 13. 2. Our knowledge is small and confused, Psalm 73. 22. and 119. 33, 34, 100. 3. Our sight of Gods love is dim, 4. Many doubts arise in our minds, Luke 24. verse 38. because of our weak-weakness and unworthiness, (5) Many lusts are untamed, (6) We are unexperienced to put on, or wear the Christian armour: and therefore are oft foyled of our adversaries.

Qu. Do not some Christians more plentifully abound in the graces of the Spirit at their first conversion?

A. Some few at their first conversion, abound in the fruits of the Spirit more sensibly, that they might be prepared for some future combates, wherein God will set them forth to be examples to the weak.

Q. What is the reason why our joy is afterward diminished?

A. If our comfort and joy that we felt in our first conversion be diminished, it is either by reason of 1. Security, 2. Or temptation, 1 Sam. 11. 2,3, &c. with Psalm 51.10. Psalm.77. 8,9,10.

Q. Why are the graces of the Spirit obscured in the daies of security?

A. Because 1. Good ground will bring forth weeds if it be not tilled, and fire will die if it be not blown; so the graces of God's Spirit will decay if they be not stirred up by prayer, reading, &c. 1 Thess. 5. 19. 2 Tim. 1. 6.

2. And lusts, worldliness, and drowsiness, &c. will creep upon the best, and over-grow them, if they be not diligent to keep them under, and root them out, Luke 21. 34, 35, 36.

Q. Why is grace obscured when we leave our first love?
A. || Because as our love to God doth decay, so the sense and feeling of God's love to us, doth die and decay also, Rev. 2. 4, 5.

Q. What evils follow the abatement of our love to God?
A. When our love to God is abated, (1) The spirit of God, which is The comforter of the heart, 2. And the stirrer up of that joy which passeth all understanding is grieved, Eph. 4. 30. (2) Our faith is weakened, 1 Tim. 1. 5. (3) Our prayers must needs be cold and faint, (4) We must needs be dull, heartless, and uncheerful, even a burden to our selves, (5) And untoward to any holy duty, Psal. 119. 174.

Q. Why so?
A. Be-
A SHORT CATECHISM.

Ans. Because love is the wheel of the soul, and first affection, Deuter. 6. 5. Matth. 22. 37. and if that be disordered, no other can be of a right temper.

Q. Why are graces obscured in time of temptation?

* Ans. Because in the time of temptation, 1. The minde is full of disorder and confusion, 2. And the heart of fear, Exod. 6. 9. Psalm 77. 2, 7, 8, 9, 10. as the aire is troubled in a tempestuous season.

Q. Why so?

Ans. 1. Many mists being cast between the eye of our understanding and the promises of God, as clouds that obscure the Sun: 2. Satan having then leave to try and buffet us.

Q. What is the benefit that comes by temptation?

A. By temptations, 1. We are fitted to grow in grace, Psalm. 32. 4, 5. 2. Thereby also the graces of God's spirit in us are tried, Rom. 5. 5. Jam. 1. 2, 3. 3. But it is no fit season for us to discern or judge of them.

Q. Why is grace obscured in time of some relapse?

A.
With an exposition upon the same. 337

|| Ans. When corruption getteth ground, grace must needs be weakened, for these two are opposite the one to the other.

Q. How should a man recover out of a relapse?

A. 1. By speedy d consideration of what he hath done, 2. Renewing his repentance with sorrow and shame, bewailing his sin before God, 3. Resolving life, and 4. Laying hold upon the promises of mercies, d Revel. 2. 5. e Jer. 31. 18, 19.

Expos. + Qu. What grounds be there why such as have fallen into gross sin after repentance, should not despair?

Ans. Such as have fallen into some gross sin after repentance, must not utterly despair, f John 3. 23. Esaies 55. 1. Matthew 11. 28. For (1) The Prophets call upon wicked revolters from God, to repent, and promise them pardon, Esaies 1. 18. Jeremiah 3. 1, 12, 13, 14, &c. (2) And in the Law sacrifices were daily offered, not only for ignorance, Leviticus 5. 15, 17.

Z but but for sins, committed willingly, and against conscience, Leviticus 6. 1, 2, 3.
3 We are commanded daily to pray for remission of sins without exception, Luke 11. 4. 4. No sin is unpardonable, but the sin against the Holy Ghost, Matth. 12. 31, 32. Mark 3. 28, 29. from which a man that sins grossly after repentance may be free.
5. God is able to heal the latter wound which sin makes, as well as the former, Hosea 14. 4. 6. Without Christ no offence can be forgiven, and in Christ all offences may be done away, 1 John 1. 7. 7. Mercy in us is as a drop of a bucket, in comparison of that infinite sea of mercy which is in God: If by his commandment man must forgive his brother seventy times seven times, will not he forgive them that humble themselves before him? Matthew 18. 21, 22.

Q. What privileges do the godly enjoy as soon as this life is ended?

A. 1. Their glory then begins, for their bodies remain || in the grave, as in a bed of spices; || And their souls being perfectly g freed

With an exposition upon the same.

g; freed f. from sin, are received into heaven, to the beholding of God and Christ immediately, 1 Theff. 4. 15. g Rev. 14. 13. b Matth. 5. 8. 1 Cor. 13. 12.

Expos. ¶ Qu. Wherein stands the happiness of the Saints, in respect of their bodies when they be separated from their souls?

An. Death separates the soul from the body, but it doth not separate the soul or body of the godly from Christ, Rom. 8. 38, 39. 1 Cor. 3. 22. and 15. 54, 55, 56. Phil. 1. 21. for when the body lieth in the grave, and is dissolved into dust, it is yet united unto Christ, John 15. 5. Eph. 5. 30. and doth expect and look for a future and glorious change, 1 Cor. 15. 38, 42, 43, 44.

Q. Wherein stands their happiness in respect of their souls after this life, above what they had in this life?

† A. 1. From the guilt and dominion of sin, the godly are delivered in this life, 1 John 1. 9. but not from all stain thereof.

2. But after this earthly tabernacle is laid down, they are 1. Delivered from from all sin, sorrow, and care, Rev. 21. 4, 27. 2. And are received into heaven to be with Christ, enjoying the glorious presence of God, 1 Thess. 4. 16, 17.

Qu. How do the Saints see God in heaven?

A. They see him, not by faith obscurely, 2 Cor. 5. 7. as it were thorow a glass, 1 Cor. 13. 12. as the Saints do in this life, but by sight, and face to face, immediately, or without means, Psal. 17. 15.

Q. If this be the state of the godly, what shall become of the ungodly?

A. Their bodies shall rot in the grave, and their souls are judged unto everlasting woe, Gen. 3. 19. k Luke 16. 22, 23.

Expos. * Q. Nothing befals the bodies of the wicked, which befalt not the bodies of the godly, how then is their rotting in the grave a curse?

A. Death is a curse to the wicked, Gal. 3. 10, 13. with John 3. 16. and so is their rotting in the grave, because they are not in Christ, 2 Cor. 5. 17. though to the senses there is nothing befals the bodies.
With an exposition upon the same. 341

bodies of the wicked, which befallth not the bodies of the godly, Eccles.9.2.

Q. Shall not the wicked rise again?
A. The wicked shall indeed rise again, but it is to further condemnation, John 5. 29.

Q. When shall the happiness of the elect be consummate?
A. At the dreadful day of judgment, and the general resurrection, Psal. 17.15.

Expos. Q. How doth it appear that the happiness of the elect is not consummate till the day of judgement?
A. Because 1. The soul in heaven doth retain a natural desire to be united to the body, 2. Neither can the happiness of the soul be every way compleat and perfect without it.

Q. What degrees be there of the happiness of the elect?
A. Of the happiness of the elect, there be three degrees; one at their first conversion, Matth.5.3,4,5. Psal. 32.1,2. the second at death, Apocal. 14.13. the last and most perfect at the day of judgement, 1 Thess.4.17.

Quest.
A short Catechism.

Quest. Who shall be judge at that day?

A. Christ † the Lord and King of the Church, who shall come in a most glorious and visible manner, in descending from heaven with a shout, and with the voice of the Archangel, and with the trumpet of God, most royally attended with innumerable multitudes of mighty Angels, 1 Acts 10.42. and 17, 30. m 1 Thess. 4. 16. n 2 Thessal. 1. 7.

Expos. † Q. Is not the power of judging common to the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost?

A. 1. The decree of judging and judiciary power, is common to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Genes. 18. 25. 2. But the visible act, promulgation, and execution of judgement belongeth to Christ our Mediatour, as God and man, Acts 17. 13. John 5. 22, 23. Rom. 14. 10, 11, 12.

Q. What comings of Christ doth the Scripture mention?

A. Two. 1. His first coming, which was to work our Redemption, when he was judged. 2. His
With an exposition upon the same.

2. His second appearing, when he shall come to judge.

Q. To what special office doth this belong?

A. This is the last act, and accomplishment of his kingly office, 1 Cor. 15.25,26,27.

Q: When shall Christ come to judgment?

A. He will most surely come, but the time is unknown, that we might ever watch, and prepare for his coming, o March.24.36. p verse 42.

Q. Whom will he judge?

A. His elect and chosen, and all their enemies, both evil angels, and wicked men, q 2 Corinth.5.10. r 2 Pet. 2.4. Jud.6.

Q. Seeing many of God's elect people, and wicked men are rotted in their graves, how can they be judged?

A. The very same bodies in substance * that at any time died, shall by the power of God be raised up, and their souls be united to them inseparably to abide together for evermore, f 1 Corinth. 15. 42,43,44. Z 4.
Expos. * Q. Why must the body rise again?

An. Because justice requireth, that the same bodies which joyned with the soul, in working good or evil in this life, should be raised up to share with the soul at the day of the Lord, Rom 2.5,6.

Q. What are we to believe concerning those who shall be found alive at the coming of Christ?

A. They shall be exchanged in the twinkling of an eye, and so presented before the judgment seat of Christ, 1 Cor.15.51,52.

Expos. || Q. By what means shall quick and dead be gathered?

A. The means whereby quick and dead shall be gathered to judgement, are 1. The powerful voice of Christ, John 5.28. 2. And the Ministry of Angels, Matthew 13.40,41. 3. The brute and senseless creatures surrendering up their dead, Revelation 20.13.

Qu. In what manner shall he judge them?

A. Most strictly, 1. Both in respect...

Expos. \(\dagger\) Q. Who must appear?

Q. What account must every man give?

A. He must give an account, 1. Both generally as a man, or a Christian.
2. And specially as a Magistrate, Minister, Master, Servant, &c.

Q. For what things must men give account?

A. 1. For all the things which they have received of the Lord, 2. And for all the things which they have done; even all thoughts, words, and actions, Job 34. 11. Psal. 62. 12. Prov. 24. 12. Ezek. 33. 20. Rom. 2. 6. 2 Corinth. 5. 10, 11. 1 Pet. 1. 17. Apocal. 32. 12.

Q. What use are we to make here-of?

A. We should therefore be, 1. Conscionable,
Agency, 2. Patient, 3. And watchful, taking care that all our actions here be approved by the word of God, 1 Thessalonians 4.18. 2 Peter 3. 11,14.

Q. What shall be the issue of this judgement to the Wicked?

A. Everlasting x perdiction from the presence of the Lord, to all those who ignorantly or wilfully contemn the Gospel, x 2 Thess. 1.7,8,9.

Q. What shall be the issue hereof to the godly?

A. Clear * vision of y God and Christ, endless z communion with them; everlasting a peace and glory, both in soul and || body, in fuller measure then the heart of man can now apprehend, or any of the Saints enjoyed before, y 1 John 3. 2. z John 17.24. Phil.1.23. a Mat. 25.34.

Expos. * Q. What is spiritual or supernatural blessedness ?

A. Spiritual or supernatural blessedness of the Saints, is the immediate fruition of the 1. Chief, 2. Perfect, 3. Suf-
With an exposition upon the same.

3. Sufficient, 4. And unchangeable good, even God in Christ, Matth. 5.8. with 19. 17. 1 Thess. 4. 17. Mat. 25. 34.

Quest. What moves God to give himself to be enjoyed of the Saints?

A. Of his meer goodness he doth give himself unto his Elect, to be seen, loved, and possessed, that is, to be enjoyed by them.

Q. What are the means whereby God is enjoyed?

A. The means by which God is enjoyed, is 1. The understanding, 2. The will, 3. And the affections.

Quest. How doth the minde behold God?

A. The minde 1. Clearly, 2. And immediately doth behold, 1. God in Christ, 2. And his exceeding glory and goodness, as it were face to face, Exod. 33. 20. 1 Cor. 13. 12. 2 Cor. 5. 6.7. 1 John 3. 2.

Quest. How doth the will embrace him?

A. The will with as great 1. Love, 2. And joy, doth imbrace that infinite good, as there is knowledge thereof.
thereof in the mind, Rev. 19. 3, 4.

Q. Do the Saints in glory see God absolutely as he is in himself?

A. The Saints in glory 1. Do not absolutely see God as he is in himself; for that which is infinite cannot be comprehended of that which is limited; 2. But God doth manifest himself unto them, so far forth as a creature is capable for to know him, Psalm 16. 15.

Q. How is it, that the Saints do not wax dull at the glory of so great a light?

A. To the end that the Saints should be fully contented, and not wax dull at the glory of so great a light; God doth 1. Perfect the powers of the soul, 2. Perfectly repair his Image in his Elect, 3. And by his power enlarge the capacity of the soul, so far as the nature of man will bear, 1 John 3. 2.

Q. Why so?

A. 1. That it might always be fully satisfied with the beholding of him, 2. And that without weariness at any time, Psal. 17. 15.

Q. What
